

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE engravings described in the following Catalogue were collected by the late Hon. Francis Calley Gray, LL. D., a graduate of Harvard College of the class of 1809. To those who knew him it is hardly necessary to say that he had a mind of uncommon natural vigor, disciplined and enriched by a wide and thorough course of cultivation. In variety and accuracy of knowledge, he was admitted, by common consent, to have no superior in the community in which he lived.

Frequent visits to Europe, begun early in life, developed in Mr. Gray a strong love of art, the result of which was the gradual and careful acquisition of a large and precious collection of engravings. His purchases were made with judgment and taste. His object was to secure the best representations in engraving of the best works of the great masters in art. He sought not merely to gratify his love of beauty, but also to satisfy his love of knowledge. In his engravings he studied the history of art in all periods, and in every country; and they were regarded by him as a part of and complement to his admirable library. Thus many of the engravings in this collection are valuable as beautiful and accurate transcripts of paintings, while others were acquired on account of some peculiar merit of their own, irrespective of that of their subject, or because they were of essential importance in the history of art.

Mr. Gray's attention being early drawn to engraving as an art by itself, he was led to take a peculiar interest in the works of those artists who are known as peintres-graveurs, that is, painters who have engraved their own works, either with the burin or with aqua-fortis. The most distinguished of the former, Albrecht Dürer and his precursors, and of the latter, Rembrandt, are well represented here. The collection also contains fine impressions of all the most important works of Marc-Antonio Raimondi, who transferred to copper the drawings of Raphael, under the supervision of the latter; so that the engraver has preserved for us true fac-similes of the great master's first conceptions. In painting these subjects, Raphael departed more or less from his original designs. Engravings were not made directly from paintings till about a century later.

The collection has a specimen of the work of the earliest known German engraver, "The Master E. S. 1466," and also a very early Italian engraving,—one of the celebrated prints of the Otto collection, formerly attributed to Maso Finiguerra, but now believed to be the work of his pupil Baccio Baldini. This print is unique, and is the choicest of the series, the rest of which are now in the British Museum.

Mr. Gray devised this fine collection of engravings to Harvard College, together with a choice library of works on art, and several valuable illustrated books, among them Rosellini's Monumenti dell' Egitto and Audubon's Birds and Quadrupeds of America. He also provided for the publication of a catalogue of the engravings, and left the College a sum of money, the income of which was to be expended for the increase of the collection, and for keeping it in order. The whole bequest was subject, however, to the approval of his nephew, the Hon. William Gray, himself a liberal benefactor of the College, who, emulating his uncle's generous spirit, caused the books and prints to be at once transferred to that institution.

As I was thoroughly acquainted with Mr. Gray's plans and wishes touching his collection, he expressed in his will a desire that I should be consulted in regard to it, and at his request I undertook the preparation of a catalogue.

The task was not an easy one. We have, indeed, the excellent works of Bartsch, Robert-Dumesnil, and others, to aid us in identifying and classifying engravings of early date. But no existing treatise contains full and correct information as to the different states of modern engravings. The best general manual for the collector's use is Heller's Praktisches Handbuch für Kupferstichsammler, but this is very incomplete and often incorrect. Even such a monograph as Palmerini's Opere d' intaglio del Cav. Raffaello Morghen fails to distinguish the different states of the principal works of that artist, as, for instance, his engraving of Raphael's Transfiguration. Mr. Gray wished that the catalogue of his collection should supply these deficiencies as far as possible, and mention all the different states of each important plate, as well as that of his own impression. He also desired that under the head of each engraving should be found all the information that could be obtained as to the original which it represents.

In determining the states of the earlier engravings I have relied mainly upon the works of Bartsch and Robert-Dumesnil. Some excellent monographs, also, have been recently issued,—such, for instance, as that by Andresen on the two Müllers, and that by William Smith on Cornelius Visscher. Of all these helps I have gladly availed myself. But much of the information which the present Catalogue contains is the result of personal observation and long-continued research; and it is to be hoped that the pains which have been taken to determine the states of the prints, and to make references to the original pictures, will prove of use to other collectors, as well as to future compilers of manuals of engraving.

The prices of some of the most interesting and important engravings have been given. It is hardly necessary to add that the value of an engraving depends upon the earliness of the impression, as well as upon its general condition. The prices mentioned have reference to good impressions in good condition.

The arrangement of the prints in the portfolios, as originally made by Mr. Gray, has been retained. It is not strictly systematic, but it was found by him the most convenient for reference and study. Engraved portraits from originals by the great masters, such as Raphael, Titian, Rubens, and Van Dyck, have been placed with their other works. Portraits from artists of lesser note have been arranged under the engravers of the same, or by schools. Collectors will understand the propriety of keeping together the works of such engravers as Nanteuil and Edelinck.

Landscapes have also been put by themselves, and a special portfolio is devoted to those by Woollett. The works of Strange and Wille are also in separate portfolios, as each is distinguished by marked and peculiar characteristics, wholly independent of the originals which they have reproduced.

The future practical use of this collection might be facilitated by an alphabetical catalogue, in manuscript, of all the painters and designers whose works are found in it, with a very brief designation of the subjects. With the same object, it might be well to have an alphabetical catalogue of the portraits, indicating the names of the painter and engraver in each case. But all the portraits are made conspicuous in this Catalogue by having prefixed to them a capital p.

I must not conclude without expressing my grateful acknowledgments to my friend Mr. Ezra Abbot, for his kind assistance in the revision of the manuscript and proof-sheets.

III. WORKS ON PAINTING AND PAINTERS.

- BIE, Cornelis DE. Het Gulden-Cabinet van de edel vry schilderconst. 3 delen. Antwerpen, 1661–62. 4to.
The numerous portraits are after the painters' own pictures, engraved by H. Snyers, W. Hollar, P. de Jode, L. Vorsterman, P. Pontius, etc.
- CEAN BERMUDEZ, J. A. Diccionario historico de los mas ilustres profesores de las bellas artes en España. 6 vol. Madrid, 1800. Small 8vo.
- CROWE, J. A., and CAVALCASELLE, G. B. A New History of Painting in Italy, from the Second to the Sixteenth Century. 3 vol. London, 1864–66. 8vo.
- DESCAMPS, J.-B. La vie des peintres flamands, allemands et hollandais, avec des portraits gravés en taille-douce. 4 vol. Paris, 1753–64.
All that is valuable in this work is taken from Carel van Mander's Schilderboek and De Bie's Gulden-Cabinet.
Besides these, however, Descamps also copied from Houbraken's Groote schouburgh der Nederlandsche kunstschilders, Campo Weyerman's Levensbeschryvingen der Nederlandsche kunstschilders, and Johan van Gool's Nieuwe schouburgh der Nederlandsche kunstschilders, — works which are entirely unreliable.
The book is valued chiefly for the really finely engraved portraits, principally by Ficquet, and therefore only the original edition is esteemed.
- DEZALLIER D'ARGENVILLE, A. J. Abrégé de la vie des plus fameux peintres avec leurs portraits gravés en taille-douce. 2 part. Paris, 1745. 4to.
——— Supplément. Paris, 1752. 4to.
There is a later edition, Paris, 1762, 4 vols. in 8vo, but the original edition is preferred on account of the plates, which constitute, at present, the principal interest of the work.
- FÖRSTER, Ernst. Geschichte der deutschen Kunst. 5 Bde. Leipzig, 1851–60. 12mo.
A popular work.
- HOTH. Die Malerschule Hubert's van Eyck nebst deutschen Vorgängern und Zeitgenossen. I<sup>er</sup> Theil. Geschichte der deutschen Malerei bis 1450.

SANDRART, Joachim von. L'Academia Tedesca della architettura, scultura e pittura, oder Deutsche Academie der Bau-Bildhauer- und Mahler-Kunst. 4 Theile in 2 Bdn. Nürnberg, 1675–79. fol.

With numerous plates. What is valuable in this work is mostly extracted from Carel van Mander, but it contains interesting original accounts of some contemporary artists. In 1683 there appeared an edition with Latin text. The later edition in octavo is not esteemed, on account of the inferior engravings.

SMITH, John. A Catalogue raisonné of the works of the most eminent Dutch, Flemish, and French Painters. 8 vol. and Supplement. London, 1829–42. Roy. 8vo.

A — Diz. All that was published.

The work was complete in manuscript, and deposited in the Royal Library at Dresden, where Mr. Nagler had access to it, and incorporated what was of use to him into his Künstler-Lexicon.

HELLER, Joseph. Praktisches Handbuch für Kupferstichsammler. Leipzig, 1850. 8vo.

Of all the manuals of engraving this has been hitherto the best; it is, however, not sufficient for the present time; a more extensive work is wanted, that gives the different states of the plates more correctly. The notices of prices for which the prints have been sold are also a guide no longer.

HUBER, Michel. Notices générales des graveurs divisés par nations, et des peintres rangés par écoles. Par M. Huber. 2 part. Dresde et Leipzig, 1787. 8vo.

This is the first edition of the following work:

HUBER, Michel, and ROST, C. C. H. Manuel des curieux et des amateurs de l'art, contenant une notice abrégée des principaux graveurs, et un catalogue raisonné de leurs meilleurs ouvrages; depuis le commencement de la gravure jusques à nos jours: les artistes rangés par ordre chronologique, et divisés par école. 9 tom. Zurich, 1797 – 1808. 8vo.

At the time of its publication this was a work of great importance. A German translation, by C. C. H. Rost and C. G. Martini was published at Zurich in 1796 – 1808, with the title, Handbuch für Kunstliebhaber und Sammler, etc.

JACKSON, John. A Treatise on Wood Engraving, Historical and Practical. With upwards of Three Hundred Illustrations, engraved on Wood, by John Jackson. London, 1839. Large 8vo. — 2d edition, enlarged, London, 1861.

The historical portion of this work is chiefly by William A. Chatto.

JOUBERT, F. E., père. Manuel de l'amateur d'estampes, dans lequel on trouvera, depuis l'origine de la gravure, les remarques qui déterminent le mérite et la priorité des épreuves, etc. 3 vol. Paris, 1821. 8vo.

LABORDE, Léon DE. Histoire de la gravure en manière noire. Paris, 1839. 8vo.

The book is out of print and has become very rare.

LE BLANC, Charles. Manuel de l'amateur d'estampes, ouvrage destiné à faire suite au Manuel du Libraire par Brunet. Livraisons 1 – 9. Paris, 1850. 8vo.

The work was to have been completed in 16 livraisons, but no more has been published. It is very carelessly compiled.

LONGHI, Giuseppe. La calcografia. Vol. I. concernente la teorica dell' arte. Milano, 1830. 8vo.

No more was published. The volume concludes with "Notizie biografiche di Giuseppe Longhi, raccolte da Francesco Longhena."

Ouvrage faisant suite au Peintre-graveur de M. Bartsch. — Tome IX<sup>e</sup>, X<sup>e</sup>, publié par M. Georges Duplessis. 10 tom. Paris, 1835-69. 8vo.

The important text-book continually referred to.

STRUTT, Joseph. A Biographical Dictionary; containing an Historical Account of all the Engravers, from the Earliest Period of the Art of Engraving to the Present Time; and a Short List of their most esteemed Works. 2 vol. London, 1785. 4to.

The work itself is superseded, but the Introduction, "On the Origin and Progress of Engraving," is worthy of perusal.

VALLARDI, F. S. Manuale del raccoglitore e del negoziante di stampe. Milano, 1843. 8vo.

The author is a printseller, and the book is partly calculated to inform the public at what prices they can obtain the prints mentioned by him. At the same time he attacks Ferrario. But neither he nor Ferrario gives sufficient information about the different states of the prints.

The work was not continued, and the Gallery was sold to the Empress Catherine II. of Russia, for 75,000 thalers.

BUCHANAN, William. Gallery of Pictures, published under the Direction of Mr. Buchanan. 11 plates.

CROZAT. Recueil d'estampes d'après les plus beaux tableaux et d'après les plus beaux dessins qui sont en France dans le Cabinet du Roy, dans celui de Mgr. le Duc d'Orléans et dans d'autres Cabinets. Divisé suivant les différentes écoles; avec un abrégé de la vie des peintres et une description historique de chaque tableau. Tome I. II. L'école romaine et vénitienne. Paris, 1729-42. fol.

The second volume was published after Crozat's death in 1740, by Mariette.

In 1764 Basan acquired the plates, and separated those after the best Italian pictures in the Palais of the Duke of Orleans, which he published in one volume, with explanatory text for each subject, under the title Recueil d'après la Galerie du Palais Royal.

Crozat's own collection of paintings was purchased by the Empress Catherine II. of Russia, and formed, with the Houghton and Brühl Galleries, the basis of the Gallery of the Hermitage.

DESNOYERS, Auguste BOUCHER. Recueil d'estampes, gravées d'après des peintres antiques italiennes. Paris, 1821. 34 plates.

VAN DYCK. Pictorial Notices : consisting of a Memoir of Sir Anthony van Dyck, with a Descriptive Catalogue of the Etchings executed by him. By William Hookham CARPENTER. London, 1844. 4to.

Only 250 copies of this work were printed.

—— Catalogue raisonné d'une collection de portraits gravés par et d'après Antoine van Dyck. Par Hermann WEBER. Bonn, 1852. 8vo.

This catalogue describes the different states of the plates composing Van Dyck's Iconographia. See also the additions and corrections by H. Wolff, in the Archiv für die zeichnenden Künste, X. 1864.

—— Anton van Dyck's Bildnisse bekannter Personen. Von Ignaz von SZWYKOWSKI. Leipzig, 1859. 8vo.

Compiled with great care.

VAN DYCK'S ICONOGRAPHIA.

Under this designation are comprised those engraved portraits of this master, of which Martin van den Enden's publications, 84 in number, form the basis. It appears that the latter, though issued twice by that editor, were never published with a collective title, but were issued singly, as each plate was finished. 80 of them became the property of Gillis Hendricx, the next publisher, who had the name of Martin van den Enden erased from the plates, and his own initials placed in the middle below, and had the inscription, names, and titles changed, an additional line added, etc. This publisher also acquired 15 of the 21 plates of portraits etched by Van Dyck himself, which had likewise appeared in single sheets, without a collective title, probably first issued by Van Dyck himself. 11 of these remained in the state in which Van Dyck left them; the rest were now more or less finished, in the drapery, with the burin. To these two sets he added six plates of which he was the original publisher, and then published the whole with a title-piece, the portrait of Van Dyck, as a bust, etched by the painter himself, and finished with the burin by J. Neeffs; on the pedestal which supports the bust is the title:

101 plates, title included.

This edition, with the year on the title-page, is followed by a second edition with the same title-page, in which only the year, after "Antverpiae Gillis Hendricx," is wanting. It is not known who owned the plates at that time; they may have been owned by his heirs: they are often called a second issue by G. Hendricx himself. The impressions do not differ from the preceding ones, except by the absence of the address, — the initials "G. H.," which have been erased from the plates. The inscriptions are otherwise exactly the same, nor have the plates any retouch. The edition is also printed on the same kinds of paper as the preceding, that is, such as have the watermark of the Cross of Lorraine, a kind of Beehive, sometimes a Double Eagle, an Agnus Dei, or a Foolscap of the larger size.

The date of this edition is supposed to be before 1665.

This first edition without the "G. H." was followed by many others, with the addition of more or less plates; there is no other mark of difference, except the inferiority of the impressions.

One edition on paper with the watermark of the Smaller Foolscap is still tolerably good. It is followed by another much inferior one on paper with the Arms of the City of Amsterdam. Both, however, precede the edition of Verdussen.

About the same time that G. Hendricx published his collection, another publisher at Antwerp, Jan Meyssens, began to form a similar collection, the plates of which corresponded in size and arrangement with those of Martin van den Enden, so that they are well suited to complete that series. The exact number of Meyssens's plates is not known; their publication commenced about 1645, and was not finished till 1650.

There are but two states of these pieces to be distinguished, the 1st with the address of the editor in full, the 2d with the address erased.

At the beginning of the eighteenth century the plates of the two collections—that originally of Martin van den Enden and that of Jan Meyssens—were in the hands of H. and C. Verdussen in Antwerp, who published an edition in 2 volumes, containing 124 pieces, besides the bust of Van Dyck, which served as title. The inscription of the title is not changed, except that after Numero centum the words et viginti quatuor have been added, the address of Gillis Hendricx is erased and replaced by the following address: Antverpiæ, Henricus et Cornelius Verdussen excud. Besides the engraved title there is a printed title, as follows: Le Cabinet des plus beaux portraits etc. peints par Van Dyck, gravés en taille-douce par les meilleurs graveurs. Anvers, Verdussen. Without year. The impressions are on thick paper, with the watermark of a fleur-de-lis. "They are very bad, and can at best only give an idea of the composition." (Weber.)

Still this edition is by no means the last; the plates have often changed hands, they have been re-etched, and impressions still worse have been issued. Quite recently, however, the Calcographie Impériale at Paris has purchased the plates and issues impressions, which, of course, are inferior to any preceding impressions.

See Weber, Catalogue raisonné, and Szwykowski, Anton van Dyck's Bildnisse.

VII. CATALOGUES OF COLLECTIONS OF PRINTS.

MAROLLES. Catalogue de livres d'estampes et de figures en taille-douce, avec un dénombrement des pièces qui y sont contenues, par M. de Marolles, abbé de Villeloin. Paris, 1666. 8vo.

This first collection was purchased entire for King Louis XIV., and formed the foundation of the Cabinet of Engravings in the Imperial Library. — A copy of this catalogue was offered in 1868 by A. Claudin, Paris, catalogue No. 35,802, for 28 fr.

—— Catalogue de livres d'estampes et de figures en taille-douce par M. de Marolles, abbé de Villeloin. Paris, 1672. 12mo.

This second collection was dispersed, and it is not known where the prints went. This catalogue and the preceding were sold in the Bruzard sale for 50 fr.

Under the reign of Henry III., about 1576, Maugis, abbot of St. Ambrose, took it into his head to collect engravings, and, since he had no competitor in this pursuit, he succeeded, in the course of forty years, in acquiring a great number, and among them many that afterwards became very rare. A selection from his collection came, after his death, into the possession of M. de Lorme, and of him Michel de Marolles bought again the finest and rarest prints for 1,000 louis-d'or. To these he made so many other additions, that his collection, without doubt, was the most important in Europe. It contained, in 440 volumes, about 125,000 plates, 17,300 of which were portraits. This was the collection of the catalogue of 1666, which Colbert caused to be bought in 1667. See Waagen, Kunstwerke und Künstler in Paris, p. 40.

MARIETTE. Catalogue raisonné des différens objets de curiosités [sic] dans les sciences et arts, qui composoient le Cabinet de feu M<sup>r</sup> Mariette, Contrôleur général de la grande Chancellerie de France. Par F. BASAN. Paris, chez l'Auteur. 1775. 8vo.

There are also two supplements to this catalogue, according to G. Duplessis, Essai de bibliographie, Nos. 598, 599, namely: "Catalogue d'estampes des plus grands maîtres italiens, flamands et français . . . dépendant de la succession de M. Mariette . . . dont la vente commencera le 1<sup>er</sup> février 1775. . . Par F. Basan, graveur, [Paris,] Basan et M<sup>r</sup> Chariot," 8vo, and "Supplément au catalogue des estampes de la succession de feu M. Mariette, dont la vente a commencé le premier février dernier et laquelle continuera en mai prochain, après la vente de la bibliothèque, qui finira le 13." [1775.]

"Pierre Mariette . . . an eminent collector and dealer about the middle of the seventeenth century. He was accustomed, whenever he happened to become possessed of an impression of more than ordinary beauty, to write his name in full, and a date, on the face of the print [as well as on the back], and although this is certainly a disfigurement, yet such is Pierre Mariette's reputation for judgment, that to be thus disfigured, is no disparagement to a print, but the contrary." Maberly, The Print Collector, p. 81.

This was the grandfather of Pierre Jean Mariette, the writer on art, and father of Jean Mariette. The collection, continued and enlarged through three generations, was dispersed in 1775.

Pierre Jean Mariette, born at Paris, 1694, died at the same place, 1774, a son of Jean Mariette. Waagen speaks of him as follows (Kunstwerke und Künstler in Paris, p. 63): "At the head of all the collectors of engravings, as well as of the connoisseurs of his time, stood the celebrated Mariette. . . . His collection contained, in the choicest impressions and with rare completeness, all the principal works which the art of engraving had till then produced, comprising the works of more than 1,500 artists, without any doubt the most exquisite ever possessed by a private individual."

ACKERMANN. Catalog der . . . Sammlung von . . . Kupferstichen, Radirungen, etc., vereinigt [und beschrieben] von Dr. W. A. Ackermann. Versteigert in Leipzig den 29ten März, 1853. Dresden, 1853. 8vo.

This is the catalogue of Ackermann's principal collection, which was rich in Alb. Dürers, Rembrandts, etc. There is another of a previous sale.

—— Verzeichniss vorzüglicher . . . Kupferstiche, etc., gesammelt [und beschrieben] von Dr. W. A. Ackermann. Versteigert in Leipzig 25. Juni, 1844. Leipzig, 1844. 8vo.

ALIBERT. Catalogue d'une nombreuse collection d'estampes et de dessins de grands maîtres, après le décès de madame Alibert. Par REGNAULT. Vente le 5 floréal an XI (1803). Paris, 1803. 8vo.

The richest collection of portraits after Van Dyck ever sold. It contained the 522 portraits by and after Van Dyck, from the collection of Mariette, which M. Guillaume Alibert increased to 908. — Szwykowski, p. 141.

AMANN. Sammlung von Kupferstichen, Radirungen, etc., aus dem Nachlasse Herrn J. J. Amann's, vormaligen Rathsherrn in Schaffhausen. 3 Abth. Leipzig, 1840–41. 8vo.

Sold at Leipzig in 1840–41.

AMSLER AND RUTHARDT. Lager-Catalog I. Verzeichniss von Kupferstichen der berühmtesten neueren Meister . . . in trefflichen Abdrücken vor der Schrift, aus dem Lager von Amsler und Ruthardt, Kunsthandlung in Berlin. Mit beigesetzter Preisen. Berlin, 1864. 8vo.

APELL. Verzeichniss der von Herrn Aloys Apell in Dresden gesammelten Kupferstiche von Wenzel Hollar. Dresden, Mai, 1857. Versteigert in Leipzig 26. October, 1857, mit Kupferstichsammlung des Herrn Moritz Steinla, etc. Leipzig, 1857. 8vo.

Describes some "states" of prints by Hollar, not mentioned by Parthey.

ARCHINTO. Catalogue de la magnifique collection d'estampes anciennes et modernes, provenant du cabinet de M. le Comte Arch[into], de Milan. [Par M. CLÉMENT.] Vente 17, 18, et 19 mars, 1862. Paris, 1862. 8vo.

Contained fine proofs of modern engravings, an artist's proof of R. Morghen's Last Supper, Müller's Sistine Madonna in the same state, Nanteuil's portrait of Pomponne in the 1st state, etc.

[ARNDT.] Catalog einer . . . Sammlung von Kupferstichen und Radirungen der Deutschen und Italienischen Schule. Versteigert in Leipzig am 20ten October, 1847. [Abth. I.] Berlin, 1847. 8vo.

—— Catalog einer . . . Sammlung von Kupferstichen, Radirungen und Schwarzkunstblättern der Niederländischen, Französischen und Englischen Schule, etc. [Verfasst von Rud. WEIGEL.] Versteigert in Leipzig am 1sten Mai, 1848. [Abth. II.] Leipzig, 1848. 8vo.

[AROZARENA.] Catalogue de la très-belle collection d'estampes anciennes provenant du cabinet de M. D. G. de A. Par M. CLÉMENT. Vente le 11 mars. Paris, 1861. 8vo.

ARTARIA ET FONTAINE. Catalogue d'une collection d'estampes. Vente Août 1856. Leipzig, 1856. 8vo.

BAMMEVILLE. Catalogue of the very Important and Interesting Collection of Engravings by Ancient Masters, the Property of M. de Bammeville. Sold by S. Leigh Sotheby and John Wilkinson, the 8th of May, 1854. London, 1854. 8vo.

BARNARD, John. Catalogue of the Superb and Entire Collection of Prints, and Books of Prints of John Barnard, Esq. Sold by Mr. Th. Philipe. London, April, 1798. 8vo.

The catalogue of this fine collection is, unfortunately, too summary.

BAUSE. Catalog der . . . von . . . Joh. Friedr. Bause und dessen Enkel Georg Keil hinterlassenen . . . Sammlung von Kupferstichen, etc. . . . Versteigert in Leipzig [unter der Aufsicht von R. Weigel]. 1° Abth. Deutsche Schule, 5. Dec. 1859. — 2° Abth. Niederländische und Englische Schule, 24. Sept. 1860. — 3° Abth. Italienische und Französische Schule, 9. Sept., 1861. 3 Abth. Leipzig, 1859–61. 8vo.

BÖRNER. Catalog der von Johann Andreas Börner zu Nürnberg hinterlassenen Kupferstiche, Radirungen, etc. Versteigert in Leipzig [unter der Aufsicht von R. Weigel]. 1° Abth. Niederländische Schule, 22. Jan. 1863. — 2° Abth.

BÖRNER, continued.

Französische und Englische Schule, 15. Juni, 1863. — 3° Abth. Italienische Schule, 20. Aug. 1863. — 4° Abth. Erste Hälfte. Deutsche Schule, Kupferstiche, 11. Jan. 1864. — 4° Abth. Zweite Hälfte. Deutsche Schule, Radierungen, Lithographien. 17. Oct. 1864. — 5° Abth. Originalzeichnungen . . . Bücher . . . 28. Nov. 1864. 6 Abth. Leipzig, 1862–64. 8vo.

BRANDES. Catalogue raisonné du Cabinet d'estampes de feu Monsieur Brandes, secrétaire intime de la Chancellerie royale d'Hannovre. Rédigé et publié par M. HUBER. 2 tom. Leipzig, 1793–94. Large 8vo.

The first, larger catalogue, with the measurements of the plates. . . The sale of this collection took place at Leipzig April 18th and Oct. 3d, 1796, and there appeared a smaller catalogue of this collection, Leipzig, 1795, 2 vol. small 8vo.

BRISART. Catalogue de la magnifique et précieuse collection de livres, manuscrits, dessins et estampes, formant le cabinet de M. Brisart. Vente à Gand le 10 décembre, 1849. Gand, 1849. 8vo.

[BUCKINGHAM, Duke of.] A Catalogue of a Valuable and Extensive Collection of Ancient and Modern Prints, the Property of a Nobleman of High Rank. Sold by Auction by Mr. Phillips, May, June, and July, 1834. 3 parts. London, 1834.

A magnificent collection; a great part of the collection Paignon-Dijonval went into it. It is a pity, that the careful and instructive description of the prints by M. Bénard was not reproduced in the catalogue, which is, like most English catalogues, too summary.

CAMESINA. Catalogue de l'intéressante collection d'estampes et de dessins du cabinet de feu M. Joseph de Camesina. 4 parties. Vente à Vienne en 1831–33. Small 4to.

CICOGNARA. Le premier siècle de la chalcographie, ou catalogue raisonné des estampes du cabinet du comte Léopold Cicognara. Par Alexandre ZANETTI. Venise, 1837. 8vo.

The collection was sold by auction, and the following is the catalogue of the sale:—

——— Catalogue de la riche collection d'estampes du comte Cicognara, par A. ZANETTI. Vente à Vienne le 4 novembre, 1839. 8vo.

A very rich and very important collection, the catalogue of which is highly prized.

The collection of Drawings of Baron Verstolk was sold at Amsterdam the 22d of March, 1847.

VISCHER. Catalogue des livres d'heures, dessins et estampes, formant le cabinet de feu M. Pierre Vischer de Bâle. Rédigé par Ch. LE BLANC. Vente à Paris 19 avril 1852. Paris, 1852. 8vo.

A very rich collection. It contained some fine specimens of the earliest prints — but, above all, a very extensive collection of Holbein's woodcuts in the earliest state, and fine impressions. It is to be regretted that the catalogue does not specify them sufficiently. Under No. 979, "Holbein, Son Œuvre," it gives only eight lines of description, saying at the end, "272 pièces."

WEBER. Catalogue de la superbe collection d'estampes laissée par feu M. Hermann Weber à Bonn. 1<sup>re</sup> partie, Écoles allemande, italienne, française et néerlandaise. AMETLLER, BLAS, pupil of Carmona, engraved at Madrid at the close of the last and the beginning of the present century.

SPAGNOLETTO pinx. St. Gregory performing a Miracle, probably that of the Brandeum.

Very incorrectly called "The Mass of St. Gregory," in which miracle the Saviour appeared with the instruments of his torture. The picture is in the Madrid Gallery. Engraved for the Coleccion de las estampas de los cuadros . . . pertenecientes al Rey de España.

Proofs are before letters, with only the names of the artists.

VELAZQUEZ pinx. The Water-carrier of Seville.

The picture is now in the collection of the Duke of Wellington at Apsley House, to whom it was presented by King Ferdinand VII. of Spain.

Proof, with only the names of the artists.

Engraved for the Coleccion de las estampas de los cuadros . . . pertenecientes al Rey de España.

AMLING, CARL GUSTAV VON, designer and engraver, born at Nuremberg in 1651, died at Munich in 1701. A pupil of François de Poilly.

♣. Maximilian Emanuel, Duke of Bavaria, in his younger years.

Medallion, held by two angels, who support also a ducal crown. A label above has the inscription: Date Caesari quae sunt Caesaris, et Deo quae sunt Dei. The following inscription is below: Justitia et Pax osculatae sunt. Not mentioned by Le Blanc.

From Otto's collection, i. No. 1041.

♣. Henrietta Maria Adelaide, Duchess of Bavaria.

Le Blanc, No. 17.

P. CANDIDO (Pieter de Witte) pinx. The Four Seasons.

Four plates: "Ver," "Aestas," "Autumnus," "Hiems." Designs of tapestry in the palace of Munich. Defer, Catalogue générale.

AMSLER, SAMUEL, engraver, born at Schinznach in Switzerland in 1793, died at Munich in 1856. He was a pupil of Oberkogler and H. Lips, and of C. E. C. Hess; but formed his style by the study of Dürer and Marc-Antonio.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Entombment.

Engraved in 1832, with the predella. Passavant, II. 54. The picture is in the Borghese Gallery in Rome, but without the predella representing the three Christian Virtues, Faith, Hope, and Charity, which is now in the gallery of the Vatican. The predella is separately engraved by Desnoyers. See DESNOYERS.

Impression with the engraver's address, and before the cross on the host over the chalice held by Faith, also with the white stamp of the engraver's initials.

AMSLER, SAMUEL, continued.

Artist's proofs are before the name of the engraver, with merely the monogram of his initials and the year 1831, and the name Felsing as printer, in the middle below. No inscription was ever put on the plate.

There exist also a very few, probably not more than six, impressions of the plate, which were taken before the predella was added by the artist to fill the lower margin of the plate, because the engraving appeared too square. They are otherwise entirely finished.

The plate became the property of the Bibliographic Institution in Hildburghausen, and the later impressions have its address as well as the cross on the host.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Holy Family of the House of Canigiani.

See Passavant, II. 52. The picture is in the Munich Gallery. Engraved in 1836.

This is the earliest state of the plate. We have found mention of one artist's proof before letters, but Mr. Hermann Amsler, the son of the artist, states that this must have been an impression from the unfinished plate.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna Staffa.

See Passavant, II. 18. The picture is in the possession of the Count Conestabile della Staffa in Perugia. Engraved in 1821.

Proof, with the coat of arms, and the dedication in traced open uncial letters, with the white stamp of the engraver's initials.

OVERBECK pinx. The Triumph of Religion in the Arts.

The original is in Städel's Museum in Frankfort. Engraved in outline.

BEGAS pinx. Þ. Thorwaldsen.

With the engraver's autograph dedication to Baron Rumohr.

ANDERLONI, FAUSTINO, engraver, born in the province of Brescia about 1766. He lived in Pavia, and his last work appeared about 1830.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Virgin and Child, in the Gallery of Naples.

Repetition, or rather old copy, of the Bridgewater Madonna. Passavant, II. 97. a.

Open letter proof.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same.

Rare artist's proof, before any letters.

The state between this and the preceding is before letters, with merely the names of the artists.

CORREGGIO pinx. Magdalen, sleeping, with a Cross.

Artist's proof, before any letters, and before the border.

There are four kinds of proofs of this plate, viz. :— I. Before any letters and before the border, like ours. II. Before letters (Dilexit multum), but with the artists' names. III. Open letter proof, before the dedication. IV. Open letter, with dedication. See Messrs. Holloway and Son's sale Catalogue, London, 1865, i. Nos. 25 – 28.

SASSOFERRATO pinx. Mater Amabilis.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Uffizj in Florence.

Artist's proof. In the middle, below, only slightly traced with the needle: "F. Anderloni incise."

The proofs have the name of the painter and of the engraver.

NIC. POUSSIN pinx. Holy Family.

The infant St. John presenting a scroll to the Virgin, who is seated with the infant Saviour at the base of a column, St. Joseph standing behind, reading. Engraved in 1827, from a picture owned by the publisher of the plate, Sign. Zanetti, in Manchester.

Proofs are before letters, with the names of the artists, and the arms. Artist's proofs are before any letters, and before the coat of arms.

SEBASTIANO DEL PIOMBO pinx. P. Andrea Doria, bust.

The original full length portrait is in the Doria palace in Rome, formerly in Genoa. Platner and Bunsen, III. iii. p. 545. Engraved for Vite e Ritratti di illustri Italiani, Milano, Tipografia Bettoni, 1820.

Proofs are with open letters. Artist's proofs have merely the artists' names; and still earlier impressions are without any letters.

KÜGELGEN pinx. P. Schiller.

Artist's proof, without any letters.

GUIDO pinx. The Assumption of the Virgin.

Engraved by Garavaglia, finished by F. Anderloni. See GARAVAGLIA.

ANDERLONI, PIETRO, engraver, born in 1784 at St. Eufemia in the Brescian Territory, died in 1849. He was a pupil of his brother Faustino and of Longhi.

NIC. POUSSIN pinx. Moses at the Well, defending the Daughters of Jethro.

See Smith, Cat. rais. No. 23. The picture is in the collection of the Countess Pino at Milan. Engraved in 1818.

Proof, with but one line of inscription in open letters.

Artist's proofs are before any letters, with merely "P. A. f." traced with the needle, and with the white lacing of the sandal. Geo. Smith, No. 503, £6 15 s.; Archinto, No. 2, 280 fr.; Lehrs, No. 11, 72 th.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Judgment of Solomon.

From the ceiling of the Camera della Segnatura. Passavant, II. 78. Engraved in 1845.

Proof; one line of open letters and arms only traced, before the dedication.

The artist's proofs are without the names of the artists, without the inscription of the title, and without the coat of arms and dedication. They have, however, in the shaded socle below, in open letters, the inscription: Date illis infantem vivum et nolite interficere eum. Reg. III. — Raphael Santius pinx. in aedibus Vaticanis.

An earlier state of the artist's proof is before the finished border of the plate, formed of lines. The socle is shaded.

The earliest state of the artist's proofs of the finished plate have the socle below white, unshaded, but have likewise in it the inscription, in open letters, which are formed of two lines. Johnson, No. 24, £ 8 10 s.; Archinto, No. 4, 200 fr.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Vision of Ezekiel.

The plate was finished by Longhi. The picture, of the same size as the engraving, is in the Gallery of the Pitti palace. Passavant, II. 118.

Proof, with merely the names of the artists.

RAPHAEL pinx. Heliodorus driven out of the Temple.

Fresco in the Stanza of Heliodorus in the Vatican. Passavant, II. 105.

Engraved in 1830.

Proof; one line of open letters, with the coat of arms, and before dedication.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same.

Artist's proof, "avec remarque" (i. e. the white ring on the hand of the man in the group at the left), before any letters, and before the coat of arms, also before the corners on the two sides of the arch were finished.

The finished artist's proofs have also the letters "P. A. f." below, traced with the needle.

TITIAN pinx. The Woman taken in Adultery.

Engraved in 1821, from a picture then in the collection of the Countess Pino in Milan, now in England.

With the address of Tanner (the later address is Lissant) followed by two dots, indicating it to be an impression of the second hundred.

TITIAN pinx. The same.

Artist's proof, before any inscription, and with merely the letters "P. A. f." traced with the needle; — further (avec remarque), before the flowers on the ground were finished.

A similar copy, Debois, No. 22, 300 fr.; Johnson, No. 25, £ 11; Archinto, No. 1, 301 fr.; Lehrs, No. 9, 85 th.

The proofs have one line of inscription, like "Moses at the Well."

CALISTO DA LODI pinx. Christ bearing the Cross.

Proofs are before letters.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna called The Virgin in the Meadow, "Die Jungfrau im Grünen."

See Passavant, II. 37, and III. p. 91. The picture is in the Vienna Gallery. Engraved in 1810.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna del Passeggio.

See Passavant, II. 263. The original is in the Bridgewater Gallery, and there are several repetitions.

Quandt, No. 2194, 27 th.

Artist's proofs are before any letters, and have only the initials of the engraver in the middle below, traced with the needle. Wilcox, No. 16 (London, May, 1856), £ 8; Debois, No. 21, 290 fr. In Evans's sale catalogue, £ 12 12 s.

TITIAN pinx. Virgin and Child, adored by two Angels.

Engraved from the picture in the collection of the Countess Pino in Milan.

Proof before letters, with only the artists' names and the address.

Artist's proofs have merely the initials of the engraver cut with the needle.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Defeat of Attila.

Fresco in the Stanza of Heliodorus in the Vatican. Engraved in 1837. Passavant, II. 107.

The artist's proofs are before any letters, i. e. before the names of the artists, and before the inscription in open letters.

The artist's proofs avec remarque are before the upper corners were shaded, but with an inscription in them in open letters: Raphael Santius pinx., etc. They have also the remarque of the white reins of the horse of the last horseman on the right side of the plate.

ANDREWS, JOSEPH, engraver, residing in Boston, U. S., where he was born in 1806. A pupil of Goodyear.

HEALY pinx. p. Adams, John Quincy.

Proof.

HEALY pinx. p. Grahame, James.

STUART pinx. p. Washington.

From the original, in the Athenæum Gallery, Boston, U. S.

Proof.

ALLSTON pinx. The Witch of Endor.

Engraved in conjunction with Wagstaff. See WAGSTAFF.

ANGUS, WILLIAM, an English engraver who flourished from about 1786 to 1820.

ELSHEIMER pinx. Tobit and the Fish.

"From the original picture in the collection of the Right Honorable Earl Grosvenor, 1790." Not mentioned by Waagen.

AQUILA, FRANCESCO FARAONE, designer, painter, and engraver, born at Palermo in 1676. He worked at Rome about 1700, in the style of Santi Bartoli.

CORREGGIO pinx. La Vierge au Panier.

Madonna, with the child, at her side a basket with a large pair of shears, in the background Joseph, working at his trade. The picture is in the National Gallery. There is another in the Bridgewater collection, and there are numerous repetitions.

AQUILA, PIETRO, painter, etcher, and engraver, brother of Francesco, born at Marzella near Palermo in 1677. He also went to Rome, where he became a monk, but still pursued his art. No work of his has a later date than 1700.

ANNIBALE CARACCI pinx. The Dead Christ on the Lap of his Mother, St. Mary Magdalen, St. Francis, and two Angels.

Etched. The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 140.

AUBIN, SAINT. See SAINT-AUBIN.

AUBRY-LECOMTE, HYACINTHE LOUIS VICTOR JEAN-BAPTISTE, historical painter and lithographer at Paris, born at Nizza in 1797, a pupil of Girodet-Trioson.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna di San Sisto.

A lithograph after the repetition, or rather copy, of the picture in Dresden, formerly in the Abbey of Saint-Amand, now in the City Hall of Rouen, Normandy. This differs from the original in that St. Sixtus has, besides the crosier, a bishop's mitre at his feet, instead of the papal tiara. Passavant, II. No. 240, p. 341, considers the picture a work of the 17th century.

It is stated that M. Aubry-Lecomte received from the publisher M. Gauguain 12,000 fr. for this work. Impressions were sold for 40 – 80 fr.

The print is of uncommonly large size, and our impression is without any letters.

AUDENAERDE, ROBERT VAN, painter and engraver, born at Ghent in 1663, where he died in 1743. A pupil of Jan van Cleef and Carlo Maratti.

CARLO MARATTI pinx. Dead Christ, and Mourners.
2d state, with Frey's address.

CARLO MARATTI pinx. Madonna of the Rosaries.
2d state, with Frey's address.

GUIDO RENI pinx. Aurora with Apollo and the Hours.
Fresco in the casino of the garden of the Palace Rospigliosi in Rome.
Compare the same subject under MORGHEN, RAFFAELLO.
Impression with the address of Westerhout.

From the Gallery Borghese and of Lucien Bonaparte in Rome the painting came into the collection of the Duke of Lucca, in which it was sold in London; it is now in the collection of H. A. J. Munro, Esq., in London. Engraved for the Galerie Lucien Bonaparte, No. 134.

Proof. The artists' names below the socle — which has the title, "La Vierge aux Candelabres," in finished shaded letters — are in large cursive letters, but delicately cut with the needle.

VAN DER WERFF pinx. The Judgment of Paris.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 83. The picture was in the Orleans Gallery. The Dresden picture differs a little in the composition from this.

LEONARDI DA VINCI pinx. La Vanité.

From the picture "Vanity and Modesty" in the Gallery of the Sciarapalace in Rome, of which there are several repetitions. Rigollot, No. 56.

BOISSIEU, JEAN JACQUES DE, painter and etcher, born at Lyons in 1736, died there in 1810. His first lessons in drawing were received from Lombard and Frontier, and he perfected himself by the study of the great masters of the Netherlands, but especially after Nature. The references are to Rigal's Catalogue, and Le Blanc's Manuel.

The impressions are nearly all modern.

The painter of this landscape is Jan Asselyn, born at Antwerp in 1610, who studied with Jan van de Velde and then went to Rome, where he had much intercourse with Pieter van Laer, whose influence is perceptible in this composition. He was nicknamed Krabbetje, on account of his contorted, crab-like hand, with crooked fingers. Josse van Craesbeke is a different painter, born in 1608; originally a baker and a boon companion of Adriaen Brouwer in his carousals, he became his pupil and imitator.

BOLSWERT, BOETIUS A, (family name ADAM,) born at Bolswert in Friesland about 1580, died at Antwerp in 1634. He is supposed to have been a pupil of Corn. Bloemaert.

RUBENS pinx. The Raising of Lazarus.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 357. The picture is in the Berlin Gallery. Waagen's catalogue, No. 783. Formerly in the Gallery of Potsdam. Basan, 61.
1st state, with the engraver's own address.

Nagler (K.-L.) states that the picture from which this engraving was taken was painted for an altar of the Abbey of Audenaerde, and that it is now in the Gallery of Turin. We do not find such a picture mentioned there; comp. Lavice, Revue des Musées d'Italie.

RUBENS pinx. Christ crucified between the two Thieves, and pierced in the side.

Altar-piece formerly in the church of the Recollets, now in the hall of the Academy of Antwerp. Smith, Cat. rais. 27; Basan, 87.

VINCKBOONS pinx. Time and Death slaying Men of all conditions, and also Beasts.

Nagler, K.-L. II. p. 22, and xx. p. 351. The original picture is owned by the writer of this catalogue.

1st state, with the address: "B. a Bolsuerd excudit."

VINCKBOONS pinx. The same.

2d state, with the address: "Hugo Allardt excudit."

BOLSWERT, SCHELTE A., (family name ADAM), a brother of the preceding, designer and engraver. He was born at Bolswert about 1586, and lived at Antwerp, where he died at an advanced age. He was one of the most prominent members of that school of engravers of which Rubens was the head. It is said that the latter often retouched Schelte's proofs of the plates after his pictures.

THEODOR ROMBOUTS pinx. Abraham offering up Isaac.

2d plate, or rather repetition, or copy in reverse, of Scheltius's plate, by a contemporary engraver of the same school.

Nagler (K.-L. XIII. p. 339, art. Rombouts) speaks of this print. After mentioning Schelte à Bolswert's engraving, dedicated to the bishop Antoni Triest, he goes on to say: "The composition is also engraved in reverse, the ram caught in the thorns appearing at the left. It has the inscription: Poscit Abrahamus etc. Gaspar ex. . ." The description is taken from Count Sternberg-Manderscheid's catalogue, III. p. 256, No. 2086 (2085 being Schelte's engraving). Through an error the catalogue has "Abrahamus" instead of "Abram," and the extreme lower right corner was wanting, so that of the address there was only "Gaspar" ("Huberti exc." being torn off). Our print is the identical one from the Count's collection, and as we do not find it described except from this collection, we give the inscription in full. It is in two rows, each of two lines:—

Poscit Abram poscit vitam Deus, annuit Isaac

Et patris primus gaudet ab ense mori.

Disce puer legesq. patris matrisq. tenere

Vt videas longos et sine labe dies.

RUBENS pinx. The Raising of the Brazen Serpent.

Smith, Cat. rais. 769, and Suppl. 260; Basan, 16. The picture is in the National Gallery, from T. B. Owen, Esq.; formerly in the Marana palace at Genoa. Waagen, Treasures, I. p. 316, and p. 349. A duplicate is in the Royal Gallery at Potsdam, according to Michiels. There is a school copy in the Madrid Gallery. Smith, ibid.

2d state, still with the address of Martin van den Enden. It has the cross-hatching on the garment and the cheek of the second soldier on the right.

The 1st state is before this crosshatching. Logette, No. 25, 244 fr.; Rigal, No. 150, 340 fr.; Archinto, No. 26, 200 fr.; Marshall, No. 214, £ 12.

VAN DYCK pinx. The Elevation of the Cross.

Smith, Cat. rais. 33. Painted for the church of Notre Dame at Courtray, and still there.

Without any address.

VAN DYCK pinx. The Crucifixion; "Christ à l'Éponge."

Altar-piece in the church of St. Michael at Ghent, for which it was originally painted. Smith, Cat. rais. 31.

3d state. With the shading of four lines in front of the great toe of the man with the sponge; with the shadow of the bone in the foreground extending its entire length; and with the name of Van Dyck transferred from the left to the right. These three changes were made in the preceding 2d state. In addition to these, in this 3d state, the hand of St. John — which in the 2d state rested on the shoulder of the Virgin Mary — has been erased, to make it appear like the 1st state. The single line of inscription of the 2d state (the first line of the inscription of the 1st and 3d) — "Cum vidisset Jesus matrem," etc. — has been erased, and the inscription of the 1st state, which has the addition of a dedication to Franc. de Moncada, has been re-engraved. The letters however are thicker and less graceful than those of the 1st state. The address of this 3d state, as of the 2d and 1st, is Martin van den Enden.

See Rigal, No. 151; also the description in Bartsch's Anleitung, II. p. 92. 1st finished state, Marshall, No. 215, £ 12 12 s.

JORDAENS pinx. The Crucifixion.

Basan, 10.

2d state, with "cum privilegio regis" before the coat of arms of the 3d state.

RUBENS pinx. Maria Mater Dei, Regina Coeli.

Virgin with crown and globe, Child with sceptre. Smith, Cat. rais. 953; Basan, 36.

1st state, before any address.

RUBENS pinx. Holy Family with a Lamb.

The picture is in the collection of the Earl of Lonsdale at Lowther Castle. A repetition was in the Houghton Gallery, and is now in the Imperial Gallery of St. Petersburg. Smith, Cat. rais. 546, and App. p. 329, No. 313; Basan, 44.

1st state, with the address of Martin van den Enden.

The 2d state has Hendricx's address.

RUBENS pinx. Saint Anne teaching the Virgin to read.

Painted for the church of the Minor Carmelites at Antwerp, and now in the hall of the Academy there. Smith, Cat. rais. 77.

2d state, with 4 lines of inscription and Gillis Hendricx's address.

The 1st state is before the dedication, and has but 2 lines inscription and Martin van den Enden's address.

RUBENS pinx. The Assumption of the Virgin.

Engraving with a square top (not arched).

1st state, with the dedication: "R. P. Gvardiano FF. Minorvm . . . Martinvs vanden Enden D. C. Q." Before any further address.

The addresses are, (1.) Martinus vanden Enden excud. (2.) G. Hendricx excud. (3.) Retouched, Corn. van Merlen.

M. Huber states, in Brandes's Cat. i. p. 454, that the picture is "à l'Église Cathédrale d'Anvers." In that painting the composition is different, and the picture is arched at the top; comp. Smith, Cat. rais. 148. This engraving differs more or less from any composition of this subject described by Smith. It is perhaps after the picture (or from a drawing corresponding with the picture) which was destroyed by fire in the Jesuits' church at Antwerp.

RUBENS pinx. St. Teresa interceding for the Souls in Purgatory.

Smith, Cat. rais. 75. In the Gallery of Antwerp, painted for the church of the Minor Carmelites in Antwerp. Waagen, Handb. ii. p. 268; Basan, 33. A picture corresponding with this was sold in the collection of Patureau in Paris, in 1857, and purchased by the Marquis de Blézié for 16,000 fr. Charles Blanc, Le Trésor, ii. p. 529.

RUBENS pinx. St. Francis Xavier, standing in Prayer before a Crucifix.

Smith, Cat. rais. 144. The picture was formerly in the Jesuits' church at Brussels. Basan, 18.

JORDAENS pinx. The Family Concert.

Waagen, Handb. ii. p. 293. The engraving differs a little in composition from the picture of this subject in the Gallery of Berlin (Waagen's catal. No. 879), and also from that in the Gallery of the Louvre (Villot, No. 256). Basan, 24.

2d state, with Blooteling's address, but before the retouch.

The 1st state is before address.

RUBENS pinx. The Great Lion Hunt.

In the Munich Gallery. Smith, Cat. rais. 247; Waagen, Handb. ii. p. 272.

With the engraver's address.

RUBENS pinx. Le Retour de Chasse.

Basan, 26. Diana with three Dogs, followed by three Nymphs ; before her, two Satyrs, with fruit, and a third person. "Sic vobis lassae sint ... bene." In the Dresden Gallery, according to Smith, Cat. rais. 252 ; but the picture there does not entirely correspond with this engraving.

With G. Hendricx's address.

JORDAENS pinx. Mercury and Argus.

1st state, before Blooteling's address.

RUBENS pinx. Philemon and Baucis.

Vienna Gallery. Smith, Cat. rais. 297. The first of the series of six engravings, — "The Great Landscapes" (the sixth engraved by Clouet).

With Gillis Hendricx's address.

RUBENS pinx. Dance of Peasants.

The 20th of the set of 21 small Landscapes.

2d state, address of Gillis Hendricx.

The 1st state has the address of Martin van den Enden.

There is a similar picture in the Madrid Gallery that has been lithographed by F. de Craene in the Coleccion litografica of Madrazo.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Brouwer, Adriaan, painter.

"Adrianus Brauwer [sic], gryllorum pictor Antverpiae." Engraved for M. van den Enden, Van Dyck's Iconographia, No. 4. Weber, Cat. rais. p. 52.

4th state, after the address of M. van den Enden, but before the letters "G. H.," Gillis Hendricx's address, and before the 3d line of inscription, "Natione Flander." "État intermédiaire et extrêmement rare." (Weber.) Paper with the watermark of the Smaller Foolscap and the letter H with a P joined, above in the middle.

The 5th state is with the 3d line, with the spelling of the name corrected ("Brouwer"), and with the letters "G. H." "Beau et rare." — In the 6th state these letters are effaced.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Ertvelt, Andreas van, painter.

Engraved for G. Hendricx. Weber, p. 101.

2d state, without "G. H." Brilliant impression on paper with the watermark of the Cross of Lorraine. Weber remarks, however, that though such impressions pass for proofs before the address, they are after the same.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Lipsius, Justus, historiographer.

Engraved for M. van den Enden, Van Dyck's Iconographia, No. 5. Weber, p. 53.

4th state, after the erasure of "G. H." on the plate. Paper with the watermark of the Smaller Foolscap.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Pepyn, Martin, painter.

4th state, after the address "G. H." Paper with the watermark of the coat of arms of Amsterdam.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Vos, Willem de, painter.

Van Dyck etched the head and doublet. Carpenter, p. 117, No. 20; Weber, p. 34.

4th state, after "G. H." Fine impression, on paper with the watermark of a kind of beehive.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Vos, Paul de, painter.

Van Dyck etched the head, doublet, and part of the background.

Smith, Cat. rais. 355. The picture is in the collection of the Prince of Saxe-Coburg. Carpenter, p. 119, No. 21; Weber, p. 35.

5th state. ("S. à Bolswert sculpsit" has been erased from the print.) The watermark has the letters "C. A.," etc.

See further under VAN DYCK. Van Dyck etched merely the head and coat, and part of the background; pure aqua-fortis, before letters; 1st state. — The plate was then finished, in an unsatisfactory manner, by J. Meyssens, who published two states of the plate, the second with cross-hatchings on the cloak over the right shoulder; they have the inscription Pavls de Vos pictor, and below, on the left, Anton Van Dyck fecit, on the right, Joan Meyssens excudit; 2d and 3d states. — The plate was then well retouched by S. à Bolswert, with the title in two lines, Pavls de Vos pictor venationum Antverpiæ, and below, on the left: Anton van Dyck pinxit et fecit aqua forti, on the right, S. à Bolswert sculpsit. First with the address "G. H."; 4th state. — In the 5th state, the address is effaced.

BOTTICELLI, SANDRO (ALESSANDRO), painter, goldsmith, and engraver, born at Florence in 1437, where he died in 1515. His own name was Filipepi, but he assumed the name Botticelli from a goldsmith, who instructed him in his art; painting he studied afterwards with Filippo Lippi.

BALDINI, BACCIO, goldsmith and engraver, born at Florence about 1436.

All we know of this artist is contained in a passage of Vasari, in the life of Marc-Antonio, where, after relating Finiguerra's discovery, he says that this artist was followed by Baldini, who, being himself deficient in drawing, engraved only after designs of Sandro Botticelli. He produced likewise many plates in copartnership with the latter, whom he followed so closely that it is very difficult to identify their individual works. But Sandro, though not so skilful in handling the graver, was far superior in design, and his works have a more artistic effect.

FINIGUERRA, MASO (TOMASO), goldsmith and niellist, "the Italian discoverer of the art of engraving," was born at Florence according to Zani in 1418, according to Ottley in 1410, and is considered a scholar of Masaccio.

Unique impression of a silver plate of circular form, 4 inches 5 lines in diameter, old French measure, or 120 millimetres new measure.

A young woman in classical costume and a young man dressed in a tabard, which has the figure of an eagle on the breast, each holding a ball in one hand, and standing as supporters to a circular shield with six balls (the arms of the Medici family), which are sketched in with pen and ink, as is also the inscription at the top: ò amore te q<sup>a</sup> piglia q<sup>a</sup>. The shield rests on a flower-basket, and is surmounted by a basket, full of balls, in the form of a crown. The woman holds in her other hand a wreath, the left hand of the young man rests on his hip. Bartsch, XIII. No. 2; Ottley, No. 2.

CARVING, chiselling, and engraving in metal had always been a practice with goldsmiths. Works of this kind were executed in the middle ages, and even among the antique bronzes we find specimens with ornamental engraving on them; but it seems that no impressions from them were made on paper till the middle of the fifteenth century. At this time some of the finest designs were executed on silver in "niello," so called (from the Latin nigellum, niellum) on account of the black color of the drawing, which was produced by filling up the hatches with a mixture of oxide of silver, sulphur, etc., which was burned in. Of these plates the artists were in the habit of making a cast in sulphur before they filled up the hatches, and it is recorded of Maso Finiguerra, that he was the first who added to this process that of making an imprint on paper by filling up the lines and tracings of the plate with a mixture of lamp-black and oil, and pressing damped paper upon it, by rubbing it with the hand or with a common roller. These impressions are extremely rare, as seldom more than one or two were made.

Some of the engraved silver plates of which impressions have come down to us seem not to have been destined to have the design on them filled up with a niello or enamel substance, because they are more delicately or slightly worked, rather traced or scratched.

Our print is one of this latter class. It is the 2d in number of a set of 24 as described by Huber, Bartsch, and Ottley, which Baron von Stosch bought a hundred years ago in Florence, and which, after his death and that of his heir, Mr. Muzel, were for half a century the ornament of the Otto collection in Leipzig. They are unique with the exception of one (Huber, Bartsch, and Ottley, No. 13), of which, according to Zani, there is a duplicate in the Durazzo collection in Genoa.

Heineken, Neue Nachrichten von Künstlern und Kunstsachen, is the first who has described them, attributing them to Maso Finiguerra. He gives a fac-simile of our print, No. 2 (as also of No. 1 of the set). Huber, in his Manuel des curieux et des amateurs de l'art, also ascribes them to Maso Finiguerra, and gives a full description of the prints. The same account will be found in Huber and Rost's Handbuch für Kunstliebhaber, III. p. 34, et seqq. They were further described by Baldinucci, who attributes them to an unknown Italian master. Bartsch, who speaks of them under Maso Finiguerra, is inclined to ascribe them to the unknown Italian master who engraved the playing cards usually called Gioco di Mantegna. Ottley, in his Inquiry into the Origin and Early History of Engraving, gives (Vol. I.) a description of this set of prints, which he ascribes to Baccio Baldini, and also (p. 354) a fac-simile of the two first, like Heineken. Duchesne ainé, in his Voyage d'un Iconophile, attributes them to Baccio Baldini, and says, "Though not by Maso Finiguerra (under whose name they were in the Otto collection) they are not the less 'excessivement précieuses.'" Rudolph Weigel, in his Catalog der Otto'schen Kupferstichsammlung, ascribes the engraving of the plates as well as the design to Sandro Botticelli.

The prints are further spoken of in Huber, Notices générales des graveurs; Zani, Enciclopedia metodica, Parte I. Vol. I. p. 18; Parte II. Vol. IV. pp. 19, 39; Bryan's Dictionary of Painters and Engravers, under Finiguerra; and Nagler's Künstler-Lexicon, IV. p. 336. Waagen, Treasures of Art in Great Britain, I. p. 253, and Supplement, p. 42, describes 16 of them, which are now in the British Museum.

When the Otto collection was broken up in 1852 there were but 18 of the original set of 24 left, so that the British Museum now possesses all that were then sold, with the exception of two. One of these, No. 11 of Huber, Bartsch, and Ottley, did not go to the British Museum, though bought by

Mr. Evans, who bid in others that went there. The other, H. B. and O. No. 2, is ours, the above described. It was bought by the compiler of this catalogue as the most desirable of the number, the most pleasing, and for a higher price than any of the rest. Nagler, Die Monogrammisten, I. p. 716, gives an account of this set of engravings, and also states the prices for which they were sold, and the names of the purchasers.

Mr. Otto, who died in 1799, had parted before with the other 6 pieces : with 3 to the engraver Bause, who died in 1814, and at the auction of whose collection in Leipzig, 1861, they were sold at the following prices :— H. B. and O. No. 13, for 182 th. ; No. 17, for 208 th. ; No. 23, for 182 th. ; Mr. Weigel must know to whom. No. 4 of H. B. and O. Count Fries received from Mr. Otto, and it is now in the collection of the Archduke Albert, in Vienna ; No. 18 came into Rost's collection, in which it was sold in Leipzig in 1800 ; No. 20 Mr. Otto presented to the Abbate Zani. This print has also been recently acquired by the British Museum.

BOULANGER, JEAN, designer and engraver, was born at Troyes in 1613, and died in Paris at an advanced age. He was a pupil of Guido Reni.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna with the Pink ; both Mother and Child holding stems of Carnation in their hands.

See Passavant, II. 55. There are numerous repetitions of this picture, the original of which is not known ; the most familiar one was that in the Camuccini collection in Rome, now in the collection of the Duke of Northumberland, in Alnwick Castle. Proof, with open letters.

Artist's proofs are before letters, with only the artists' names traced with the needle. La Motte-Fouquet, No. 192, 46 th.; Debois, No. 160, 195 fr.†

* A deceptive copy of this plate sometimes occurs without any letters, which may, however, be distinguished from the artist's proof of Claessens's plate by the absence of the artist's name, and by the inferiority of the engraving, especially of the design. Guichardot in his Catalogue Van den Zande gives a fuller account of it.

† There occur spurious proofs without any letters, made by covering up the inscription of the plate while under the press.

p. 166. The picture is now in the Madrid Gallery. Madrazo, No. 752. Engraved in 1566.

Amidst the saints the coffin of Charles V. is carried to heaven. It owes its origin to a dream of the Emperor, and was designed for the Convent of St. Justus. The picture was held up before the king on his death-bed. There was an original sketch of this picture in the collection of the poet Rogers.

1st state, before Cort's name.

TITIAN pinx. Diana and Callisto.

Engraved in 1566. The picture is in the Madrid Gallery. Passavant, Tour of a German Artist, I. p. 129, and Christliche Kunst in Spanien, p. 165. Another picture, on a larger scale, is in the Bridgewater Gallery, formerly in the Orleans collection. A picture of the same subject is also in the Vienna Gallery of the Belvedere. Krafft, Verzeichnisse, Wien, 1845, p. 17, No. 17.

1st state, before Cort's name. On thin paper, with the watermark of three circles, one within another.

TITIAN pinx. Perseus and Andromeda.

A painting of this subject was in the Orleans Gallery, bought by Mr. Bryan. Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 497, No. 23.

The same has been engraved by Delignon. See DELIGNON.

COSSIN, LOUIS, painter and engraver, born at Troyes in 1633.

RAPHAEL pinx. The School of Athens.

See Passavant, II. 67. Stanze in the Vatican, Camera della Segnatura. The representation corresponds very nearly with Ghisi's engraving; both are without the second, higher arch, which Volpato's has. On the left, the head of the old man with a child in his arm is but half given, and of the child only the fore-arm appears. The tablet at the base of the column is without inscription, but shaded with horizontal lines. On the right are wanting half the figure of the king, and Raphael and Perugino, together with the two figures which are above them, and behind the man with a staff; the latter is represented without a beard, and in front view, not in profile, as in Ghisi's plate. On the floor in the print stands, on the left: Raphael pinx. — Parisiis. On the right: A Paris chez Cars rue St. Jacques au nom de Jesus. — L. Cossin sculp. The impression is in bad condition.

Proof, before any letters on the floor. The tablet at the base of the column is white, without any lines. Our copy is cut close at the top.

COUCHÉ, JACQUES, père, engraver, born at Gournai in 1750 (Le Blanc erroneously says "at Gournay, or at Abbeville, in 1769"). A pupil of Levasseur.

PONTE BASSANO pinx. "The Circumcision." More correctly, The Presentation in the Temple.

In the collection of Lord Gower; formerly in the Orleans Gallery. Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 61. Engraved for the Orleans Gallery.

COUCHÉ, FRANÇOIS LOUIS, fils, engraver, born at Paris in 1782. A pupil of Lafitte in drawing, and of his father, Jacques, in engraving.

GÉRARD pinx. The Battle of Austerlitz.

"The Lady Evelyn Gower and the Marquis of Stafford" slightly cut with the needle, on the right below.

SIR THOMAS LAWRENCE pinx. p. The Duchess of Sutherland, with her little daughter on her knee, one of whose shoes is on the table.

The picture is in the Stafford House. Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 72.

Proof, before letters, with only the artists' and the publisher's names.

COUVAY, JEAN, designer and engraver, born at Arles in 1622.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Madonna with the Pink.

See Passavant, II. 55. There are numerous repetitions of this picture, the original of which is not known; the most familiar one is that in the Camuccini collection in Rome, now in the collection of the Duke of Northumberland in Alnwick Castle. Waagen, Galleries and Cabinets, or Treasures, IV. p. 466.

CRANACH, LUCAS, the elder, painter, engraved seven plates in copper, and published woodcuts under his name, for which he drew the blocks. He was born at Kronach in Franconia in 1472, and died at Weimar in 1553. His real name was Sunder, but by mistake he has been called Muller, because he signed himself Lucas Maller (instead of Maler, i. e. painter). Bartsch, VII.

p. Duke Albert of Saxony and his son Henry. B. 2.
Engraved for the Wittenberger Heiligthum, 1509. 4to.

EDELINCK, GERARD, designer and engraver, born at Antwerp in 1640, died at Paris in 1707. He received his first instruction from C. Galle, the younger, but his great talents were developed afterwards by François de Poilly in Paris. Robert-Dumesnil, vii.

PHIL. DE CHAMPAGNE pinx. Moses with the Tables of the Law. R.-D. 2.

Commenced by Nanteuil, and finished by Edelinck, who did the face and hands. The picture was in the collection of M. de Lalive, in Paris.

3d state, with Drevet's address.

"1ère épreuve, avant les noms: Champagne pinxit, Nanteuil et Edelinck sculp. 1699, et avant la dédicace," Debois, No. 302, 201 fr.

RAPHAEL pinx. Holy Family of Francis I.

R.-D. 4.

See Passavant, ii. 233. In the Gallery of the Louvre.

Debois, No. 296, 605 fr. ; Maberly, No. 137, £ 12 12 s. ; Archinto, No. 184, 290 fr. ; Johnson, No. 61, £ 13 10 s. ; Marshall, No. 682, £ 10 15 s. ; Lehrs, No. 98, 95 th.

The 1st state is before any letters, and before the arms. Of this state but two copies are known to exist ; one in the Imperial Cabinet of Engravings at Vienna, and the other in the Imperial Cabinet of Engravings in Paris ; which latter the French government bought at the sale of the Duke of Buckingham's collection in 1834, No. 3252, for £ 73 10 s. — The 3d state has the coat of arms.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same. R.-D. 4.

4th state, with the coat of arms erased, and the traces of the erasure, with the new lines drawn over it, visible.

J. STELLA pinx. Madonna raising the Veil from the Sleeping Child.

R.-D. 6.

1st state, before the escutcheon on the cradle.

GUIDO pinx. "La Couseuse." Madonna sewing, while the Child is asleep. R.-D. 7.

This little picture, 11½ by 9 inches, was in the old Royal Collection at Paris, but is not now in the Gallery of the Louvre. Waagen, Kunstwerke und Künstler in Paris, p. 69 and p. 776.

1st state, with the words "A Paris chez" before the address of N. Poilly.

In the 2d state these words are taken away, leaving "N. de Poilly ex. cum priuil. Re."

From Otto's collection.

LE BRUN pinx. Holy Family at Table, called the Benedicite. R.-D. 8.

According to an inscription on the plate the picture was, when engraved, in the church of St. Paul in Paris.

3d and last state, with the address of J. Audran.

The 1st state is before letters, the 2d before address.

LE BRUN pinx. The Crucifixion. "Le Christ aux Anges." R.-D. 17.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 62. Engraved on two plates.

3d state, with Drevet's address.

The 1st state is before the address, and with the misspelling of k instead of ck in the last syllable of the engraver's name ; — the 2d is also before the address, but with the correction into ck.

LE BRUN pinx. P. St. Louis, King of France, in Penitence. R.-D. 28.

LE BRUN pinx. P. St. Charles Borromeo, praying. R.-D. 29.

In the St. Nicholas Church in Paris.

4th and last state, with the shorter address, "ce vend à Paris chez P. Dreuet."

The 1st state is before the inscription. — The 2d state has the inscription, consisting of four metrical lines and dedication to Ch. Le Brun, but no address. — The 3d state has the address, Se vend à Paris chez P. Dreuet rue du Foin devant les Mathurins, avec priviil. du Roy.

LE BRUN pinx. p. Magdalen renouncing the Vanities of the World. Portrait of Mme. de La Vallière. R.-D. 32.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 66. It was formerly in the church of the Carmelites at Paris.

2d state, before the border formed of several lines, with but ONE line below, close under which are the artists' names. Our copy has also the inscription of four verses, in two columns, which, according to Robert-Dumesnil, accompany the 3d state, with the border; it forms, therefore, a state between his 2d and 3d.

p. The same. R.-D. 32.

3d state, with the border, so that the artists' names appear between lines, with the above-mentioned four lines of verses in two columns. Before address.

p. The same. R.-D. 32.

4th state, with the address, "se vend à Paris chez P. Dreuet rue du Foin devant les Mathurins, avec privilege du Roy."

The 5th state, instead of rue du Foin devant les Mathurins, has aux galeries du Louvre. The 1st state is before the border, and with the artists' names only slightly traced with the point; in the 2d state they were strengthened. 1st state, Logette, No. 53, 900 fr.

LE BRUN pinx. The Tent of Darius: the Family of Darius at the Feet of Alexander. R.-D. 42.

The picture, with "The Battles of Alexander," is in the Gallery of the Louvre. It was engraved on two plates to be joined, to complete the series of Le Brun's Battles of Alexander, engraved by Gérard Audran.

4th state, with the name of Goyton, engraved in dots, and 9 points after it, of which 5 are effaced in the present print.

The 1st state is before the inscription of four lines, which ends on each plate, with 1661; — the 2d state has these four lines, but not Goyton, the publisher's name; — the 3d state has Goyton's name in dots on each plate; — in the 4th state this name is followed by 9 points; — in the 5th state, Goyton's name is traced in reverse; — in the 6th state Goyton's name is scarcely visible, but there are 20 dots on the right.

PIERRE MIGNARD pinx. Alexander in the Tent of Darius. R.-D. 43.

Engraved on two plates, finished by P. Drevet. The picture is in the Imperial Gallery of St. Petersburg.

LEONARDO DA VINCI pinx. The Combat of four Horsemen for the Standard. R.-D. 44.

See Rigollot, No. 59. Engraved after a copy of the celebrated Cartoon, drawn in red chalk by Rubens, which Edelinck found at Antwerp.

2d state, with the inscription in the plate, "L. d' la finse pin. G. Edelinck Sc.," and before the three points on the blade of the sword of the second horseman.

The 1st state is before any letters. Logette, No. 50, 252 fr. ; Archinto, No. 189, 575 fr. ; Marshall, No. 683, £ 14.

In the 3d state, the retouched plate has still the misspelled inscription, — which was never corrected, — and three points on the sword, placed thus : .

PHILIPPE DE CHAMPAGNE pinx. P. Arnauld, Antoine, Doctor of the Sorbonne. R.-D. 140.

Bust in oval.

1st state, before address.

The 2d state has the address, A Paris chés la V<sup>e</sup> de F. Chereau, etc.

CLAUDE MELLAN del. P. Mellan, Claude, engraver. R.-D. 272.

PIERRE MIGNARD pinx. P. Mignard, Pierre. R.-D. 274.

DE TROY pinx. P. Moréri, Louis, Doctor of Theology. R.-D. 280.

DE TROY pinx. P. Mouton, Charles. R.-D. 281.

The 1st state, before the names of the artists, is very rare. It has four Latin verses in two columns:—

"Hoc ore, hoc . . . reddere posse sonum!"

Cat. Lamotte Fouquet, by H. Weber, No. 221.

Impressions occur of the 2d state with four French verses in two columns:—

"Cher Mouton à te voir . . . je crois t'entendre."

Edelinck Sculp. à Paris chez I. Audran graveur du Roy au gobelins. — In the 4th state is the inscription, also all on the left side, De Troy Pinxit. Edelinck sculp. A Paris chés Buldet rue de Gesvres. — In the 5th state the inscription is again divided as in the 2d, but, besides the difference of the impressions, the paper is different.

HYAC. RIGAUD pinx. p. Noailles, Anne Jules, Duc de. R.-D. 284.
 1st state, with the verses, "Dans des apres Rochers . . . pour son Roy."
 In the 2d state the verses are changed to Ce Vainqueur, etc.

D. — Su Original existe en la Real Galeria de Madrid. — Florencia en Casa de D<sup>a</sup> Iuan Rivera." Large folio.

An apocryphal picture, not identified by Passavant as the one from the Vestry of the Escorial (Passavant, II. 267, and III. p. 168), nor by Richard Ford (Handbook for Travellers in Spain, II. p. 694). The "Agnus Dei" of the Madrid Gallery has ruined architecture in the background, and corresponds more with Passavant, II. 267, b, Mr. Munro's picture, which has been engraved by Forster.

FORSTER, FRANÇOIS, engraver, born in 1790 in Locle in French Switzerland, recently (since 1861) deceased in Paris. A pupil of Langlois.

LEONARDO DA VINCI pinx. La Vierge au Bas-relief.

See Rigollot, No. 25. The picture is in the collection of the Countess Warwick at Gatton Park. Waagen, Galleries and Cabinets, or Treasures, IV. p. 343. Lately owned by Lord Monson. Engraved in 1835.

Debois, No. 337, 540 fr.; Johnson, No. 64, £14; Lehrs, No. 121, proof, No. 34, 60 th.; ibid. No. 122, artist's proof, before the border line, and with only the engraver's name cut with the needle, on India paper, 165 th.

The prints have the title in open letters, and the earliest impressions of them have the stamp of the engraver's initials and the stamp of the initials of the first publisher, Pierri-Bénard, both in white.

RAPHAEL pinx. La Vierge de la Maison d'Orléans.

The smaller Madonna of the Orleans Gallery. Passavant, II. 45, and III. p. 93. The picture is owned by M. Benjamin Delessert; it was previously in the Aguado Gallery. Engraved in 1838.

Schletter, No. 26, proof No. 102, 20 th.

The artist's proofs have only Forster sculp<sup>t</sup>. 1838, slightly cut with the needle, in the middle of the lower margin, and they are likewise numbered. Artist's proof No. 22, Lehrs, No. 126, 30 th.

RAPHAEL pinx. La Vierge à la Legende.

A square picture. Both children holding a scroll. Passavant, II. 267, b. The picture is in the collection of H. A. J. Munro, Esq., London. Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 132. Engraved in 1847.

Proof before letters, No. 115. On India paper.

Artist's proofs are before any letters, except in the middle of the lower margin, F. Forster sculp., delicately cut with the needle. Johnson, No. 65; George Smith, No. 701, £ 6; Archinto, No. 215, 140 fr.; Lehrs, No. 119, 70 th.

DELAROCHE pinx. St. Cecilia.

Engraved in 1840.

Proof, before the inscription on the tablet, having only the names of the artists and address of publishers below.

An artist's proof before any letters. Schletter, Leipzig, 1855, No. 28.

RAPHAEL pinx. Urania.

Bust, from the Parnassus. Passavant, II. 66. Engraved in 1839.

Proof before letters. On India paper.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Three Graces.

See Passavant, II. 48, and III. p. 96. The picture is in the collection of Lord Ward. Engraved in 1841.

Proof before letters No. 11, with only the names of the artists, the publishers, and printers, and within a border of two lines.

The artist's proofs are before any letters; they have merely F. Forster sculpsit, and the date, slightly traced with the point, in the middle of the lower margin. They are, further, before any border line to the plate, and are likewise numbered. Debois, No. 340, 300 fr.; Johnson, No. 63, £ 10; G. Smith, No. 702, £ 11.

RAPHAEL pinx. ¶. Raphael at the age of about 23.

The picture is in the Painters' Portrait Gallery in Florence. Passavant, II. 47. Engraved in 1836.

Proof before letters, with the names of the artists, before the inscription on the tablet, which is shaded gray.

The artist's proofs are before any letters ; they have merely Forster sculp., 1836, slightly traced with the point in the middle of the lower margin. The tablet is entirely blank, and they are numbered. Wilcox, No. 94, artist's proof, No. 9, £ 6 4 s. An impression of this state, No. 14, is priced 40 th. by Messrs. Amsler and Ruthardt of Berlin.

RAPHAEL pinx. P. "Raphael at the age of 15."

The portrait in the Louvre — a lovely youth with fair hair and large liquid eyes, resting his head on his hands — probably represents some young artist-friend of Raphael. Passavant, II. No. 61, and III. p. 101.

Proof, before any letters, except the address of the publishers. Numbered 36.

Macready, No. 31, a proof of this state, with the number 2, bought by Messrs. Amsler and Ruthardt for £ 5 5 s.

TITIAN pinx. P. "La Maitresse du Titien."

The picture in the Louvre is supposed to represent the Duke Alfonso I. of Ferrara and Laura Bianti.

With the name of Ramboz as printer, and the address of Artaria and Fontaine.

Rare earlier impressions have the engraver's own address. The extremely rare proofs of this plate have open letters. Messrs. Amsler and Ruthardt, in Berlin, had such a proof in 1868, the price of which was about 30 th. Archinto, No. 216, "Très rare épreuve avant toutes lettres. Elle n'est pas entièrement terminée." Bought by Mr. Colnaghi for 155 fr.

DÜRER pinx. P. Albrecht Dürer's own portrait, after the picture in the Munich Gallery.

Proof, that is, with the inscription in open letters.

DÜRER pinx. P. The same.

Engraver's proof, before any letters, with the inscription on the background in white, and in the lower margin a croquis, a cluster of three stones.

George Smith, No. 708, £ 5 5 s.

FR. PORBUS pinx. P. Henry IV. of France.

Engraved in 1834 for Bettoni's Le Panthéon des Nations.

STEUBEN pinx. P. Alexander von Humboldt.ANN. CARACCI pinx. The Nativity.

Engraved in conjunction with Lips. See LIPS.

FOSSEYEUX, JEAN BAPTISTE, born at Paris in 1782, died there in 1824."RAPHAEL pinx." The Hours of the Night and Day.

See Passavant, II. p. 422, and III. p. 173.

Twelve plates, each with a female figure floating in the air, upon a black ground, under which is a small socle with animals and other symbolic figures. They are not by Raphael, but are imitations of the small antique pictures from the walls of Pompeii, now in the Museum at Naples, reproduced in the spirit of the School of Raphael. It is not known where the pictures are from which these engravings were made, — whether they were ever executed as frescos in some palace in Rome, or merely designed for these engravings, which appeared in 1805 and 1806. Some sets were published in colors by Ag. Maestri. They were engraved by Fosseyeux in conjunction with Bourgois, Lavallée, L. F. Mariage, J. F. Ribault, F. Hubert, L. Croutelle, N. Tomas, L. Petit, and F. J. Dequevauvillier.

Ora prima di notte.

The figure carries poppy-pods in one hand, and an owl in the other.

Ora seconda di notte.

Carrying an hour-glass.

Ora terza di notte.

Carrying a squirrel.

Ora quarta di notte.

Carrying an owl.

Ora quinta.

Figure with wings of a libellula, pouring dew from an urn (like one of the three figures preceding the chariot of Aurora, painted by Guercino in the Villa Ludoviso in Rome).

Ora prima di giorno.

Ora seconda di giorno.

Ora terza di giorno.

The figure which carries a censer is evidently taken from Raphael's Galatea in the Villa Farnesina in Rome.

Ora quarta di giorno.

Carrying a sun-dial.

Ora quinta di giorno.

The figure stretches her hand towards the sun.

Ora sesta di giorno.

Carrying a bat.

FRANCK, JOSEPH, an engraver of the present day.

LEONARDO DA VINCI pinx. The Madonna with a Flower.

Of the Pourtalès collection, "formerly in the Gallery of the kings of Spain." Rigollot, No. 33.

The composition is different from that engraved by Juster; Rigollot, No. 96. The Virgin holds with one hand the Child, standing before her on a table on which is a book, with the other a flower (not a lily). Engraved while in the collection of Count Pourtalès in Paris, which was dispersed in the spring of 1865. The engraving was begun by Aristide Louis.

Proof, before letters, with the names of the artists and publishers. On India paper.

FRANCO, GIOAN-BATTISTA, called SEMOLÉI, painter and engraver, was born at Udine in 1498 or 1510, and died in 1580. Bartsch, xvi.

The Ark of the Lord, placed by the Philistines in the Temple of Dagon. B. 6.

3d and last state, with the letters "B. F. V. F." replaced, and "Franco forma" added.

The 1st state has the letters B. F. V. F.; in the 2d these letters are effaced.

FRANÇOIS, ALPHONSE, engraver, born at Paris in 1811. A pupil of Henriquel-Dupont.

DELAROCHE pinx. A Mother holding up a Book to her Child.

DELAROCHE pinx. P. Bonaparte crossing the Alps.

The picture, owned by John Dillon, Esq., was in the Manchester Exhibition, 1857, No. 659. "The property of Mr. John Naylor (Leighton Hall). The Queen possesses at Osborne a reduction of this picture, made by Delaroche himself." (Fine Arts Quarterly Review, May, 1864, II. 299 n.)

"Le Général Bonaparte franchissant les Alpes" is in open and traced letters. On India paper.

TITIAN pinx. P. "Titian's Portrait."

In reality this is the portrait of an unknown person, probably some Venetian nobleman.

FRANÇOIS, CHARLES REMY JULES, engraver, born at Paris in 1809. A pupil of Henriquel-Dupont.

DELAROCHE pinx. Les Pèlerins.

"Tiré de la galerie du Cte. Raczyński."

Proof before letters, with only the names of the artists, publishers, and printers.

FREDERIC WILLIAM III., King of Prussia.

A Trooper leading a Pack-horse.

Amateur etching. Weigel, Kunst-Catalog, No. 11876; Nagler, Die Monogrammisten, II. p. 929.

FRENZEL, JOHANN GOTTLIEB ABRAHAM, engraver, principally of landscapes, was born at Dresden in 1782, and died at that place in 1855. A scholar of Darnstedt.

JAC. RUYSDAEL and W. ROMEYN pinx. Der Abend.

Engraved from the picture in the collection of Count Lamberg in Vienna, a duplicate of which, formerly in the possession of Baron Badenfeld in Bohemia, is owned by the Hon. Charles Sumner in Washington.

With the engraver's autograph dedication.

FREY, JOHANN JACOB, designer and engraver, born at Lucerne in 1681, died at Rome in 1752. A pupil of Carlo Maratti and of Westerhout.

NIC. POUSSIN pinx. The Sacrifice of Noah.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 5. The picture is in the Lichtenstein Gallery in Vienna.

GUIDO pinx. The Daughter of Herodias.

Herodias's daughter, followed by two maids, receives from a kneeling page the head of St. John on a platter; a third maid in front is pushing a curtain aside for her exit. Whole length figures. Engraved in 1745 from a picture then in the Colonna Gallery. There is such a picture in the collection of Lord Yarborough in London.

CIGNANI pinx. Joseph and Potiphar's Wife.

The composition is not the same as that of the picture of the same subject in the Dresden Gallery.

C. MARATTI pinx. The Adoration of the Kings.

"In Eccle. S. Marci Romae," but not mentioned by Platner and Bunsen as being there now.

DOMENICHINO pinx. The Communion of St. Jerome.

From the picture in the Gallery of the Vatican.

GUIDO pinx. The Doctors of the Church.

The picture is in the Imperial Gallery of St. Petersburg.

DOMENICHINO pinx. The Martyrdom of St. Sebastian.

Fresco painting, removed from St. Peter's to Santa Maria degli Angeli in Rome, and replaced by a copy in mosaic. Platner and Bunsen, III. ii. p. 356.

C. MARATTI pinx. St. Andrew, on his Way to Execution, sees his Cross.

GUERCINO pinx. The Burial of St. Petronella.

"MICHEL-ANGELO" sculp. in marm. Statue of Venus.

"In the Museum of the Capitol."

C. MARATTI pinx. P. Carlo Maratti.

1st state, "Jo. Jac. Frey incidit."

The 2d state has "Romae Apud Jo. Jacob Frey incidit." (Heller.)

FREY, JAN PIETER VAN, or DE, designer and engraver, born in 1770 at Amsterdam, died at Paris in 1834, according to Defer in Cat. Debois. A pupil of Jacob Lauwers.

BREKELENKAMP pinx. A Hermit in the Wilderness, reading.

In small 4to.

REMBRANDT pinx. Les Syndics de la Halle aux Draps.

The five trustees of the building called the Staxthof, devoted to the Company of Clothweavers. The picture is now in the Amsterdam Gallery. Smith, Cat. rais. 141; Waagen, Handbook, II. p. 342.

REMBRANDT pinx. P. Nicol. Tulp delivering a Lecture on Anatomy.

Painted for the Anatomical Institute at Amsterdam, now in the Gallery of the Hague. Smith, Cat. rais. 142; Waagen, Handbook, II. p. 341.

FREY, MARTIN R., engraver, born at Wurzach in Swabia in 1769. A pupil of J. G. von Müller.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna with the Child sleeping, "Madonna del Velo."

Engraved from the round picture in the Gallery of Prince Esterhazy in Vienna. Passavant, II. 57, a.

One of the repetitions of this composition, also in a round, which King William II. of the Netherlands bought in 1847 for his Gallery, and which at the sale of the same, in 1850, found no purchaser, and is still in the possession of the Royal Family, was engraved in 1854, by Achille Martinet, as "La Sommeil de Jésus." A composition in a square was engraved by Longhi, and finished in 1834 by Toschi. See LONGHI.

FUSINATI, G., an Italian engraver, born about 1803.

TITIAN pinx. P. Magdalen.

many repetitions, is now in the Imperial Gallery of St. Petersburg. A fine repetition is in the Gallery of the Pitti palace in Florence.

Artist's proof, with merely the engraver's name in the middle of the lower margin.

G.

GAILLARD, ROBERT, engraver, born at Paris in 1722, died in 1785.

HYAC. RIGAUD pinx. P. Castanier, François.

GERARD DOW pinx. P. Galilei, Galileo.

GALLE, CORNELIS, the elder, designer and engraver, born at Antwerp in 1570, died about 1641. A pupil of his father Philip.

RUBENS pinx. The Four Fathers of the Church.

Whole length figures, seated, with a crosier, with a burning heart, and with a beehive; hovering over them are a dove and three angels. The picture is in the Berlin Gallery. Attributed to the School of Rubens by Waagen, Verzeichniss, No. 773. Basan, 2.

2d state, the enlarged plate, two additional strips having been soldered on; and with the coat of arms.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Artus Wolfaerts, painter.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 758. The grisaille painting is in the collection of the Duke of Buccleugh. Engraved for Martin van den Enden, Van Dyck's Iconographia, No. 10. Weber, Cat. rais. p. 56.

5th state, after the erasure of the letters "G. H." from the plate.

GALLE, CORNELIS, the younger, son and pupil of Cornelis the elder, born at Antwerp in 1600.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Jan Meyssens, painter.

Engraved for Meyssens's collection of portraits after Van Dyck. Weber's Cat. rais. p. 111.

2d state; the name "Meysens" has been changed into "Meyssens," and the name of the engraver, in the 1st state in the middle, has been effaced, and placed at the right below.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Baron Engelbert Taie, Chevalier.

The full inscription is "Dominvs Engelbertvs Taie Eqves Baro Wemmelivs, etc. Depvtatvs ordinarivs inter nobiles statvs Brabantiae."

Engraved for Meyssens's collection of portraits after Van Dyck. Weber, Cat. rais. p. 112.

An oil painting corresponding with this engraving, costume and all, but with the omission of the hands and the sword, is in the Dresden Gallery;

Hanfstängl gives a lithograph of it, a reverse of this engraving which is the reverse of the picture. Smith, Cat. rais. 703, describes only this engraving, without mentioning any picture. Matthäi, Gemälde-Galerie zu Dresden, p. 35, No. 206, calls it the portrait of Martin Engelbrecht. Hübner, in his Catalogue of the Dresden Gallery, p. 209, No. 937, calls it the portrait of "the painter Engelbrecht," without giving a Christian name.

1st state, before the address of Joannes Meysens was effaced. Watermark, the Large Foolscape.

GANDOLFI, MAURO, designer and engraver, born at Bologna in 1771, died in 1834. A pupil of Longhi.

ALLORI pinx. Judith with the Head of Holofernes.

The original is in the Gallery of the Pitti palace. Engraved for the Musée Français.

Proof, before letters, with only the artists' names. The paper has the watermark: "Musée Napoléon publié par Henri Laurent."

Artist's proof, before any letters or arms.

An artist's proof, R. Weigel, Kunst-Cat. No. 16515. — The proofs have the artists' names; the 2d proofs have lettres grises.

BAROCCIO pinx. Hagar and Ishmael.

One of the repetitions of this pleasing subject after Correggio.

Engraved in 1823 from the picture in the Dresden Gallery, of the size of the engraving.

1st state, artist's proof before any letters.

Wilcox, No. 102, £ 7. — The 2d state is with the names of the artists. — The 3d is with open letters and before the dedication ; Arndt, i. No. 1824. — The 4th has closed letters, with L' originale esiste nell' Imp. e Reale Galleria di Dresda in small letters as the first line of the inscription. — The 5th has closed letters, with L' originale esiste nella R. Galleria di Dresda in larger letters, and as the last line of the inscription. Even of this last state the good impressions are becoming rare, as the plate of this lovely engraving is worn out.

APPIANI pinx. Jacob and Rachel.

The picture is at the Parochiale at Alzano. Engraved in 1831.

Proof, with one line of open letters and the coat of arms, before the dedication. Below, in the middle, the white stamp of the engraver's initials.

LUINI pinx. The Daughter of Herodias with the Head of St. John.

Engraved after a picture in the Scarpa collection. There is a similar one in the Brera Gallery in Milan.

There are proofs before letters, and with open letters.

RAPHAEL pinx. Holy Family, with a Lamb.

See Rigollot, No. 53. The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 485.

GARNIER, HIPPOLYTE LOUIS, engraver in the modern mixed style of mezzotinto, born in 1803, died at Paris in 1855.

MURILLO pinx. "La Vierge de Madrid," Our Lady of the Conception.

Three quarters figure. Around the head is a glory of six cherubim, three on each side. Across her body is a large crescent, pointing upwards. A corresponding picture is in the Gallery of Madrid. Madrazo's Catálogo, No. 275.

GAYWOOD, ROBERT, an English etcher of the middle of the seventeenth century. A pupil of W. Hollar.

VAN DYCK pinx. Antoni van Opstal, portrait-painter.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 794. The plate has no name of engraver in any of its states. Weber, Cat. rais. p. 116, "Portraits divers d'après A. van Dyck," ascribes the engraving neither to J. Morin, nor W. Hollar, nor N. de Helt Stoccade, but to Robert Gaywood. It likewise calls to mind the style of Louis Ferdinand.

2d state, before the address of Jac. de Man, which appears in the 3d state, but with the retouch in the folds of the cloak, the absence of which constitutes the 1st state. Watermark, the arms of Amsterdam.

GAULTIER, LÉONARD, designer and engraver, born at Mentz in 1552 or 1560, worked at Paris, and died about 1641.

MICHEL-ANGELO pinx. The Last Judgment.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Vision of Ezekiel.

The original, of the size of the engraving, is in the Gallery of the Pitti palace in Florence. Passavant, II. 118. Engraved in 1803–08 for the Musée Français.

Purchased from Messrs. Evans, in London, for £12 12s. — Archinto, No. 229, 250 fr.

Proofs are before letters, having the artists' names in larger letters, engraved with the burin, and the additional name of the printer.

RAPHAEL pinx. Vision of Ezekiel.

Engraved in conjunction with Anderloni. See ANDERLONI.

"GERARD DOW" pinx. The Beheading of St. John the Baptist.

In reality painted by Gerard Honthorst, who was in Italy called Gherardo dalle Notti. Ascribed to Dow by mistake. A picture, figures life size, corresponding with this engraving, is in Santa Maria della Scala in Rome. Smith, Cat. rais. I. p. 45, No. 137. Platner and Bunsen, Rom, III. III. p. 678, give a detailed description. Etched in 1806.

Proof, with merely the artists' names etched in small letters.

PROCACCINI pinx. The Rest in Egypt.

The picture, of the size of the engraving, was owned by John Key, Esq., London. Longhi, Calcografia, Appendix by Longhena, p. 409. Engraved in 1801–03.

Artist's proof, before any letters, only "Longhi sc." in very small letters, written with the needle. On the right, below, is the white stamp of the initials of the publisher, Domenico Artaria.

Proofs, before letters, have the names of the artists engraved with the burin.

RAPHAEL pinx. Lo Sposalizio.

The Marriage of the Virgin, according to the Apocryphal books of the New Testament. Passavant, II. 22, and III. p. 87. The picture — after Perugino's prototype, now in the Museum at Caen in Normandy — is in the Brera Gallery in Milan; it was painted for the church San Francesco in Città di Castello. Engraved in 1812–20.

Subscription copy, before the inscription on the middle arch of the temple "RAPHAEL URBINAS. MDIHI," and with the name of Bardi as printer, — before the name of Lissant. On the left, below, is the small stamp "G. L." in white, and on the right the white stamp with the helmeted head of Minerva. Over the coat of arms in the margin, in the plate, in a round field, is the subscription number 34, written with ink.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same.

1st proof, or artist's proof, before letters and before the coat of arms, with only the names of the artists, — like Debois, No. 459. With the two white stamps, as in the preceding.

There are proofs before any letters, but they are not as satisfactory as those with the artists' names. The latter, however, are usually called "proofs before all letters," to distinguish them from the second proofs with the four verses, which the catalogues have as "avant la lettre." In Thorel's sale in Paris, December, 1853, there was an impression, No. 77, before any letters, as well as one with merely the artists' names, No. 78, the latter of which, formerly in the Debois collection, sold for double the price of the first, — No. 77 for 520 fr., No. 78 for 1110 fr. The artist's proof, with artists' names, Johnson, No. 87, £ 84; Macready, No. 59, £ 74. Beretta, Della vita, etc. del Cav. Longhi, p. 85, states that Longhi was obliged to go to Florence to have the proofs of the Sposalizio taken, not being satisfied with the few first impressions taken in Milan. — The 2d or common proofs are before the coat of arms and the dedication; they have an inscription of four lines of verses in open letters. The small white stamp is on the left of the lower margin, the large on the right. Archinto, No. 228, 900 fr.; Lehrs, No. 172, 200 th. The first 1200 prints, according to Heller, Praktisches Handbuch für Kupferstichsammler, Leipzig, 1850, were numbered for the subscribers; they are before the inscription on the temple, and with Bardi's address. They were followed by 1200 more, without numbers, still without the inscription on the temple, and with Bardi's address. — The plate was then entirely retouched, and the impressions have the name of Lissant as printer. Very recently the plate has been again entirely retouched, and the new impressions are frequently met with.

REMBRANDT pinx. The Good Samaritan.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 118; Waagen, Handbook, II. p. 344. The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre; Villot, No. 405. The composition differs from Rembrandt's etching of this subject, B. 90. Goethe confounds the two compositions. See his Sämmtliche Werke, Stuttgart, 1850–51, 8vo, xxv. p. 310. — Engraved in 1808 for the Musée Français.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Holy Family in Naples, Madonna of the Pio family; also called "La Bénédiction."

See Passavant, II. 99. The original is in the Gallery of Naples, and there are numerous repetitions. Engraved in 1827, after a school copy, then in the possession of the engraver, ascribed to Gianfrancesco Penni.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same.

Proofs have open letters, and are before the arms and dedication.

There also occur proofs with merely the names of the painter and the engraver. Lehrs, No. 178.

LEONARDO DA VINCI inv., MARCO D' OGGIONE pinx. Madonna del Lago.

See Longhena, in Longhi's Calcografia, Appendix, p. 420; Beretta, Vita di Longhi, p. 91. In the Earl of Harrington's collection, Kensington, is a "small early copy on wood of Leonardo da Vinci's Madonna del Lago, known by Longhi's engraving," which Waagen attributes to Marco d'Oggione. Waagen, Galleries, etc., or Treasures, iv. p. 238. Engraved in 1825.

Nearly finished engraver's proof before any letters, and before the shading of the infant's figure.

The 1st state of the finished plate is the proof before any letters. Johnson, No. 91, £ 15 10 s. — The 2d state is the proof before letters, with merely the names of the artists. Wilson, Catalogue raisonné, p. 81, No. 191, "proof before any letters, the artists' names excepted; in which state six impressions only are said to have been taken." — The 3d state, proof, has but one line of inscription in open letters: Madonna del Lago. Archinto, No. 231, 80 fr.; Hösel, No. 109, 23½ th.; Lehrs, No. 173, 50 th. — The 4th state, still called proof, has the title in shaded letters and eight verses in Italian; it is before the coat of arms and the dedication. — The 5th state is the print, with coat of arms and dedication.

A square picture. Passavant, II. 57. Engraved from the painting owned by Sig. Brocca in Milan, one of the eight different repetitions and copies, some round and some square, of which the original is not known. Raphael's cartoon is in the Florentine Gallery. Engraved by Longhi in 1829, and finished by Toschi in 1834.

Artist's proof of the plate as finished by Toschi, before letters and before the coat of arms, with merely the artists' names traced with the point: "Raffaello dip.<sup>o</sup> Raggio dis.<sup>o</sup> Longhi inc.<sup>o</sup> Toschi ultimò." On India paper. With the small white stamp of the initials "G. L."

The proofs have, besides the artists' names, the coat of arms of the Prince of Prussia. — There are also artist's proofs of the plate as Longhi left it, almost finished and quite harmonious; they are without any letters.

LEONARDO DA VINCI pinx. Madonna di San Onofrio.

Longhi dir., Marri sc. See MARRI.

GUIDO pinx. St. Joseph with the Infant Christ in his Arms.

"Dal quadro . . . esistente nella Galleria Arcivescovile di Milano."

Small piece, oval in a square border,  $2\frac{1}{8}$  inches high,  $1\frac{1}{4}$  inches broad; engraved in 1812 as a pendant to R. Morghen's plate, of the same size, of Lodovico Caracci's "Madonna col Bambino."

CORREGGIO pinx. Magdalen, reading.

See Coxe, p. 125. Engraved in 1809, of the size of the original in the Dresden Gallery. A repetition, or rather copy, is in the collection of Lord Ward. Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 234. "The figure . . . is entirely worthy of Correggio; at the same time the many details in the landscape . . . testify the hand of a skilful Netherlandish painter."

Artist's proof, before letters and coat of arms, having only: "Correggio pin. Joseph Longhi sc." traced with the needle in very small letters. With the white stamp of the initials of the publisher, Dom. Artaria.

Purchased from Messrs. Evans for £ 35. — Debois, No. 457, 585 fr.; Johnson, No. 90, £ 21; Archinto, No. 232, 1010 fr.; Marshall, No. 1075, £ 27.

Proofs are with the artists' names engraved with the burin, and the coat of arms. Debois, No. 458, 345 fr.

CORREGGIO pinx. The same.

Old impression before retouch and on the first, thin paper of the print, with coat of arms and full inscription.

CORREGGIO pinx. The same.

Old impression of the print with the first retouch.

The current modern impressions are from the repeatedly and entirely retouched plate.

ALBANI pinx. Galatea.

See Longhi's Calcografia, Appendix by Longhena, p. 406. Engraved in 1813 from a picture then owned by the engraver. Such a picture is in the collection of the Earl of Leicester at Holkham. Waagen, Treasures, III. p. 419.

Impression of the print, with the title, the dedication, and coat of arms of Prince Beauharnais. With the white stamp of the engraver's initials.

ALBANI pinx. The same.

Artist's proof, with merely the names of the artists. With the white stamp of the engraver's initials in the middle of the lower margin.

Purchased for £ 9 9 s. Marshall, No. 1074, £ 10. Proofs have one line of open letters.

LONGHI del. Pan and Syrinx.

TITIAN pinx. The Supper at Emmaus.

R.-D. 5.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 462. It passed from the collection of the Duke of Mantua into that of Charles I., after whose death it was purchased by Eberhard Jabach of Cologne, banker in Paris, who afterwards sold it to Louis XIV. There is a tradition that the person on the right of the Saviour is the portrait of Charles V.; that on the left of Cardinal Ximenes and the page, Philip II. The engraving is called "La Nappe," from the exquisite work of the table-cloth.

3d state, the finished plate. Early impression, before the eye of the Saviour had suffered, and before the retouch in the air, etc.

are white; — in the 2d state, "rare," the building in the background on the right is covered only with a few strokes.

- N. MIGNARD pinx. p. Brisacier, Guillaume de, Secrétaire des Commandemens de la Reyne. R.-D. 15.

The engraving is known under the name of "The Gray-headed Man." Engraved in 1664.

2d state with the two misspellings, "Brisasier" and "Segretaire."

- N. MIGNARD pinx. The same. R.-D. 15.

4th state, with both misspellings corrected.

The 1st state is before the inscription in the oval border. Debois, No. 641, 430 fr.; Duke of Buckingham, No. 1681; Archinto, No. 242, 315 fr.; Marshall, No. 1101, £8 8*s.*; Colnaghi, May, 1865, No. 584, £10 15*s.* — The 3d state has one misspelling, Segretaire.

- T. BLANCHET pinx. p. Charrier, Gaspard, Lieutenant, criminel au présidial de Lyon. R.-D. 16.

2d state, with the border, the arms, and the inscription finished.

In the 1st state these parts are not finished, the inscription is only indicated; — in the 3d, the tassel is parted in two.

- P. MIGNARD pinx. p. Cureau de la Chambre, Marin, médecin ordinaire du roi. R.-D. 24.

Von Rumohr, No. 2236, 22 th.; Von Quandt, No. 1566, 24 th.

The 2d state has the cross-hatching; — the 3d has it over the whole face; — the 4th has E. Desrochers below in the oval; — in the 5th, the address was erased again and the plate was ruined.

- N. MIGNARD pinx. p. Dupuis, Pierre, peintre de fleurs. R.-D. 25.

Engraved in 1663.

2 impressions.

- P. MIGNARD pinx. p. Guise, Marie de Lorraine, Duchesse de. R.-D. 32.

Engraved in 1684.

3d state, before the rabbit after the word "pinxit," "rare."

The 1st state is before letters and border, "très rare"; — the 2d, with unfinished border and before the letters, "très rare aussi"; — the 4th with the word Roma, and the rabbit, and the point after the word pinxit forms a zero.

- N. MIGNARD pinx. p. Harcourt, Henri de Lorraine, Comte d', called Le Cadet La Perle. R.-D. 34.

1st state, before the figure resembling the number 4 on the left margin of the plate.

The 2d state has this 4 ; — in the 3d the figure is again erased, but there is a strange retouch visible over the head in the hair.

MASSON del. ? pp. Helyot, Madame. R.-D. 36.

In 8vo. Without the name of the painter.

MASSON pinx. pp. Le Fèvre d'Ormesson, Olivier. R.-D. 58.

Engraved in 1665.

2d state, with the correction in the curls.

In the 1st state the hair forms an arch over the brow ; the figure is less finished.

MASSON pinx. pp. Medavy, François Rouxel de. R.-D. 51.

2d state, with the letters.

The 1st state is before letters. Engraved in 1677.

MASSON pinx. pp. Patin, Gui. R.-D. 59.

Engraved in 1678.

2d state, before the address of the engraver.

The 1st state is before letters ; the 3d state has, on the right hand : a Paris rue St. Germain de l'Auxerrois Proche lespée de Bois.

MASSON del. pp. Patin, Charles. R.-D. 60.

Engraved in 1670.

Impression with the inscription from a separate plate, " In effigiem V. C. Caroli Patin," etc., and four Latin verses.

MASSON, ANTOINE, an engraver of the present day.

TITIAN del. The Entombment.

Engraved in 1846. The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 465. It is a repetition of the one in the Mamfrini Gallery in Venice, and was successively in the collections of the Duke of Mantua, Charles I., Eberhard Jabach, and Louis XIV.

Proof before letters, with artists' names and address.

MASTER OF THE CADUCEUS. See CADUCÉE.

MASTER OF THE DIE, whose real name probably was Dado or Daddo, and who adopted the mark of the die as an emblem of his name, has been called Beatrizet, or Beatricius the elder. See BEATRIZET.

MASTER OF THE UNICORN. See DUVET.

MASTER  Brulliot, Dict. i. No. 1291.

Christ teaching the Doctors.

Already mentioned at the end of letter C.

MASTER E. S., 1466, goldsmith and engraver; supposed to be the first who used a rolling press, and made the engraving of copper plates his regular occupation; though his skill in handling the graver, and the number of his works, more than 200, prove sufficiently that he could not have been the first who attempted this pursuit. In his design he followed the school of Jan van Eyck. According to Harzen, Naumann's Archiv für die zeichnenden Künste, Jahrg. 1859, p. 1 et seq., the letters "E. S." stand for Egidius (Gilles) Stechin, or Steclin (Stecher, i. e. engraver). He was a son of Hans, and a native of Cologne. The family name is not known. Bartsch, vi.

"Solomon adoring the Idols."

B. 8.

In reality the Tiburtine Sibyl showing to the Emperor Augustus (who, in the costume of the Dukes of Burgundy, does homage and swings the censer) the apparition of the Holy Virgin with the Child in the air, as the true object for his worship. He died at Dresden in 1808. See REINHART.MECKEN (or MECKENEN), ISRAEL VAN, the elder, sometimes mis-called van Mecheln, painter, goldsmith and engraver, probably a native of Mecken, a small town on the Moselle. He engraved after the Master E. S. 1466, and Franz van Bocholt, and even older models, and lived at Bocholt, where his name occurs in documents from 1482 to 1498. He died in 1503.* Bartsch, VI.

Christ scourged; from the Passion.

B. 13.

* Zani, Ottley, Von Quandt, and Renouvier have come to the conclusion that there was a second, a younger Israel, perhaps the son and pupil of the elder, and that he continued to work till 1527, and copied a great deal, even after Dürer.

MEDICO, ALOYSIO DEL, engraver.

MASACCIO pinx. Frescos in the Church of San Clemente.

According to Vasari painted by Masaccio, though Schorn, in his notes to Vasari, ascribes the work to Giotto. Platner and Bunsen, III. i. p. 582. 8 plates in outline, namely, The Evangelists, the Fathers of the Church, the Apostles, the Annunciation, and St. Christopher with the Christ-child. These plates are added to Labruzzi's Le Pitture di Masaccio esistenti in Roma nella Basilica di San Clemente. See under LABRUZZI.

MELINI, CARLO DOMENICO, engraver, born at Turin about 1740, worked at Paris, in the style of Beauvarlet, towards the end of the last century.

DROUAIS pinx. P. The Two Children of Prince Turenne.

Represented as Savoyard boys, one with a marmot, the other with a hurdy-gurdy.

The picture is not in the Louvre.

MELLAN, CLAUDE, painter and engraver, born at Abbeville in 1601, died at Paris in 1688. He was a pupil of Simon Vouet; for engraving he studied Egidius Sadeler and Fr. Villamena. Montaignon, Catalogue raisonné de l'œuvre de Claude Mellan, Abbeville, 1856.

CLAUDE MELLAN del. P. Mellan, Claude. M. p. 77.
1st state, before Odieuvre's address.

TINTORETTO pinx. Jacob and Rachel at the Well. M. 3.
From Otto's collection, No. 790, where it is called "Capitalblatt, vor der Adresse." *

Holy Family, or, rather, Rest in Egypt. M. 13.
3d state, with the coat of arms of Bishop Beaumanoir and the words "cum privilegio Regis" after the engraver's name.

The 1st state is before the arms; — the 2d with the arms, but before cum privilegio Regis; — in the 4th the arms are effaced, and the place on the stone where they were is shaded.

Christ praying in the Garden. M. 22.
2d state, with the dedication.
The 1st state is before dedication.

The Sudarium of St. Veronica, with the Face of the Thorn-crowned Saviour.† M. 25.

There are three different copies of this print.

* Nagler, under No. 18, mentions a state "before the mark of the artist" (it is not a mark, but the full names of both artists) of which Montaignon does not speak. Heller enumerates this print twice, first as "Jacob and Rachel," then under the title "Rebecca," which mistake Le Blanc has repeated.

† Nagler, under No. 1, mentions a state "before the letter." Heller has "1st state before letters, 2d state, before address," — which Le Blanc copies after him. I have not met with any avant la lettre, and have seen even very late impressions without any address.

The Corpse of our Saviour prepared for Burial by the Virgin; St. John and the Holy Women mourning. "Factvs obediens vsque ad mortem." M. 32.

St. Alexius Romanus, represented as dead. M. 49.

St. Francis. M. 71.

The saint, in the robe and hood of a capuchin, is kneeling before a cross placed on the ground; in the background is another figure of a capuchin in a hood. Inscription: *Cum privilegio . . . Cl. Mellan Gall. inuen. et sc. . . Eminentissimo S. R. E. Card. de la Rochefoucault Tit. S. Calisti hanc S. Francisci effigiem Patroni S. E. in obsequii monumentum offert. d. d. Claud. Mellan, 1638.**

St. Ignatius in Ecstasy. M. 79.

Over the saint's head are the words "Ego vobis Romae propitijs ero."

3d state, having in place of the dedication, "Solicitudinis patris pro bono familiae vigilantis. — C. Mellan in. et sc."

The 1st impressions are before the inscription, Ego vobis.

Perseus delivering Andromeda. M. 121.

1st state, before the dedication to Giustiniani, like Paignon-Dijonval's.

The 2d state is with the dedication; the 3d is retouched in the water.

SIM. VOUET pinx. Lucretia with the Dagger. M. 122.

¶ Bentivoglio, Cardinal. M. 169.

From the collection of P. Mariette. Superb impression.

¶ Gassendi, Pierre. M. 189.

¶ Habert de Montmor, Henri Louis. M. 194.

A late impression, with the address "A Paris chez Vanheck" (erased).

Nagler mentions, under No. 265, "1st impression, before the mark of Mellan," which Le Blanc copies. The "mark," however, is, Claud. Mellan Gall. del. et sculp.

¶ Giustiniani, Vincenzo. M. 197.

2d state.

The 1st state is before letters.

¶ The Capuchin Father Joseph. M. 196.

In 8vo. From Gawet's collection.

¶ Peyresc, Fabri de. M. 223.

1st state, before the plate was reduced.

The plate was afterwards cut down for Odieuvre's portraits.

* Heller describes the 1st state as with the year 1627, the 2d as with the year 1638 and having the eyes shut, the 3d as having the eyes open, which Le Blanc, No. 65, repeats. Montaignon has but one state.

- p. Séguier, Pierre. M. 231.
1st state, before the additional inscription, "anno aet. suae 51."
 The 2d state has the inscription.

- POUSSIN del. Apollo crowning Virgil. M. 303.
See Smith, Cat. rais., Poussin, No. 283.
1st state, before any letters.
 The 2d state is also without the names of the artist, but on an escutcheon stands
   "VIRGILII MARONIS OPERA,"
   "PARISIIS E TYPOGRAPHIA REGIA ANNO MDCLI."

MERCURJ, PAOLO, painter and engraver, born at Rome in 1804, works at Paris.DELAROCHE pinx. St. Amelia, Queen of Hungary.

The picture was in the Oratory of Louis Philippe's Queen Amélie. Engraved in 1841.

Artist's proof; the plate has merely the names of the artists slightly traced with the point, in very small and irregular letters.

The 2d proofs have the artists' names in the same words, re-engraved, also in delicate letters, but regularly and calligraphically written; they have further the inscription Sainte Amélie in open letters, and, below, the names of the publisher and printer. — In the 3d state, Reine de Hongrie is added to the inscription.

LÉOP. ROBERT pinx. The Reapers in the Pontine Marshes.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Engraved in 1831, with the aid of etching and the aquatinta manner, for the Paris journal L'Artiste.

Proof before letters, having merely the engraver's name, "P. Mercurj dis. e inc. Parigi 1831," and the name of the printer, "imprimé par Chardon aîné," traced with the point.

There is one impression on record, "Première épreuve d'artiste; on lit seulement: P. Mercurj dis. e inc. Parigi 1831," and before the name of the printer, Debois, 1843, No. 678, 365 fr.; it occurred again at Thorel's sale, Paris, 1853, No. 103, 361 fr., and again at Schletter's, Leipzig, 1855, No. 73.

- p. Columbus, "after an old cotemporary picture."
Proof before any letters, except very slightly written with the needle, "P. Mercurj inc. 1843."

- p. Tasso.
 In 8vo.
Impression on India paper; below is the address "Goupil et Vibert."
 Earlier impressions are without this address.

VANLOO pinx. ♣. Louis Michel Vanloo, painting the portrait of his Father, Jean-Baptiste Vanloo.

Painted in 1762. Engraved in 1799.

MILLER, WILLIAM, an English engraver of the present day.

TURNER pinx. Venice from the Canale Grande.

Proof before letters, with only the names of the artists and publishers slightly traced. On India paper.

GAINSBOROUGH pinx. The Watering Place.

The picture is in the Vernon Gallery. Waagen, Treasures, i. p. 368.

Open letter proof. On India paper.

MIRICENUS, MERICENUS, or A MYRICINIS, PETRUS, a Dutch engraver of the second half of the sixteenth century, whose real name Renouvier has ascertained to be Pieter van der Heyden. His monogram is composed of the letters A M E united, and surmounted by a P. Renouvier, Des types et des manières des maîtres graveurs, II. p. 148.

ANDREA DEL SARTO pinx. Herod ordering the Imprisonment of St. John the Baptist.

After the fresco in the Chiostro della Compagnia dello Scalzo in Florence. Cock exc.

PIETER BREUGHEL, the elder, pinx. Landscape with Grotesque Devilry.

MOCHETTI, ALESSANDRO, a pupil of Volpato, born at Rome in 1760.

RAPHAEL pinx. a. Psyche giving the Vase to Venus.

b. Cupid and Jupiter.

One plate from Raphael's frescos in the Farnesina. See under RICCIANI.

MOGALLI, COSMO, engraver, born at Florence in 1667, died in 1730.

TITIAN pinx. The Virgin and Child, St. Elizabeth, and the infant St. John.

The Christ-child is represented as taking the globe from a kneeling Emperor, Charles V.

Engraved for the Raccolta de' quadri dei Granduchi di Toscana.

The picture, formerly in the Gallery of the Uffizj, is not now in either of the Florentine Galleries.

MOITTE, PIERRE ÉTIENNE, engraver, born at Paris in 1722, died in 1780. A pupil of Beauvarlet.

ANDREA DEL SARTO pinx. Holy Family, with a Go-cart.

In the Dresden Gallery. Engraved for the Rec. d'est. de la Gal. de Dresde, I. No. 7.

RUBENS pinx. The Judgment of Paris.

The picture is in the Dresden Gallery; it corresponds with the picture formerly in the Brühl collection, and is probably the same, though that is not stated in Hübner's catalogue. This plate seems also to be the same that was, as No. 30, in the Recueil d'estampes gravées d'après les tableaux de la Galerie et du Cabinet de S. E. M. le Comte de Brühl, etc., 1<sup>e</sup> partie, 1754. Royal fol. 50 pl. (No more appeared.) It had the inscription "Peint par P. P. Rubens. Gravé à l'Eau forte par P. F. Tardieu" (all on the left side), the coat of arms of Count Brühl, an inscription, "Gravé d'après le tableau original . . . qui est dans la Galerie de . . . le Comte Brühl." When the picture came into the Electoral Gallery, Moitte retouched the plate, and changed the inscription, supplying the Electoral coat of arms, and it forms thus No. 35 of the third, the interrupted, volume of the Rec. d'estampes de la Gal. de Dresde.

Another picture of the same subject, about four times as large in size, but smaller in composition, otherwise corresponding with the Dresden picture, only painted in a bolder and broader style, is in the National Gallery in London, having been previously in the Orleans and Penryce collections. Smith, Cat. rais. 748; Waagen, Treasures, i. p. 317.

MONTMORILLON, LUDWIG ALBERT VON, designer and engraver, born at Erlangen in 1794.

ANDREA DEL SARTO pinx. Holy Family.

After the picture in the Munich Gallery. Alfred Reumont, p. 81; Nagler, K.-L. art. "Montmorillon," No. 1. A similar picture is in the Vienna Gallery. Alfred Reumont, p. 77.

Proof before letters, with only the artists' names.

MORACE, ERNST, engraver, born at Stuttgart in 1776, died, according to Nagler, in Stuttgart, about 1820, according to Heller, in Paris in 1808; Le Blanc has followed Nagler. He was a pupil of J. G. von Müller.

GIULIO ROMANO pinx. Venus and Vulcan.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 296. Engraved for the Musée Français.

SIR JOSHUA REYNOLDS pinx. ♀. Angelica Kauffman.

Proofs have the name in the socle in open letters. — Artist's proofs have no letters in the socle, and no names of the artists nor of the publisher.

MOREL, ANTOINE ALEXANDRE, engraver, born at Paris in 1765, died there in 1829. A pupil of Massard the elder, and, in drawing, of David.

RAPHAEL pinx. ♀. Pope Julius II.

Engraved for the Orleans Gallery, from a copy in that collection, which was sold in England, with the other pictures, in 1800. Passavant, II. No. 83, h. The original of many repetitions and copies is the picture in the Gallery of the Palazzo Pitti in Florence.

RUBENS pinx. ♀. "Les quatre philosophes." Portraits of Hugo Grotius, Justus Lipsius, Philip Rubens, and P. P. Rubens.

In the Gallery of the Palazzo Pitti in Florence. Smith, No. 521. Engraved for Wicar, Tableaux de la Galerie de Florence et du Palais Pitti.

MORELLI, FRANCESCO, engraver, born about 1768, and a pupil of Volpato; he was a Frenchman by birth, and his name was Morel, but he usually added the Italian termination (Nagler, IX. p. 459).

Temples of the Sibyl and of Vesta.

"Francesco Morel, 1797."

Castle of St. Angelo.

"Francesco Morelli, 1796."

Tomb of Cæcilia Metella.

"Fr. Morelli, 1796."

Temple "delle Tosse," on the way to Tivoli

"Morel, 1798."

MORGHEN, GIOVANNI ELIA, engraver, a brother of Filippo, the father of Raphael Morghen, was born at Florence in 1721.

GUIDO RENI pinx. St. Cecilia.

"E tabula Romae Burghesianis in aedibus asservata." — "Romae apud Montagnani, in Platea Pasquini." The picture seems not to be now in the Borghese Gallery; we do not remember to have seen it there, nor do we find it recorded as being there.

GUTTENBRUN pinx. p. J. F. Reifenstein.

"Si vende a Napoli da Ernesto Morace." With a white stamp of the letters E. M., which probably do not stand for Elia Morghen, but are the initials of the publisher.

MORGHEN, G., engraved the 16th plate of Montagnani's Bible of Raphael. (See MONTAGNANI.) Le Blanc ascribes it also to Giovanni Elia Morghen; Nagler mentions this uncle, as well as a Guglielmo, a brother of Raphael Morghen, as engravers for Montagnani's work, though there is but this one plate engraved in the work by G. Morghen. No particulars are known about the life of Guglielmo, and it is possible that he is the engraver of the two plates mentioned above, under Giovanni Elia.

MORGHEN, RAFFAELLO, designer and engraver, born at Portici in 1758, died at Florence in 1833. A pupil first of his father Filippo, and then of Volpato. Palmerini, Catalogo delle opere d' intaglio di Raffaello Morghen, Ediz. 3<sup>a</sup>, Firenze, 1824.

GUERCINO pinx. Lot and his Daughters. Palm. 130.

Engraved from a picture now in the possession of the Rev. T. Staniforth at Storrs. Waagen, Galleries, etc., or Treasures, iv. p. 426. Different from the composition of the same subject in the Louvre.

Proof before letters, with only the artists' names.

In this state the plate remained a considerable time, and a great number of impressions were taken before letters; then an inscription was made in open letters, which in the next state were shaded.

RAPHAEL MENGES pinx. Adoration of the Shepherds. Palm. 163.

From the picture in the Gallery of Madrid. Engraved for the Coleccion de las estampas . . . de los cuadros . . . pertenecientes al Rey de España.

The proofs are before letters, having only the names of the artists.

N. POUSSIN pinx. Rest on the Flight into Egypt. Palm. 131.

In the Palazzo Rospigliosi.

Proof, before the inscription, "Butirum et mel," etc., with the artists' names and the dedication traced with the needle.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Transfiguration. Palm. 209.

Painted for the Church San Pietro in Montorio; now in the Gallery of the Vatican. Passavant, II. 244. Engraved in 1812.

Subscription copy, signed with ink, "N. Quattro cento tre. R. Morghen," and having the white stamp of the engraver's initials in the right-hand corner.

There were 600 impressions taken of this state.

The artist's proofs of the plate which are finished, except the book in the hands of St. Andrew, which has no cross-hatching, are before any letters. There are 15 impressions known of this state. "Première épreuve avant toutes lettres, au livre blanc," Logette, No. 105, 472 fr.; Wilcox, No. 193, £ 80. — There were also impressions taken from the unfinished plate, beginning with the first etch-proof, which are properly to be considered curiosities, and not as "states" of the engraving.

The proofs of the plates are entirely finished. I could not find any additional work on the book, or "the leaves of the book," distinguishing the prints from the proof presently to be described, as Palmerini states, and Heller, Nagler, Le Blanc, etc. after him. The regular proofs are before the coat of arms and the dedication; they have only the inscription Raph. Sanctius pinxit, Steph. Tofanelli delin. Raph. Morghen sculpt.; — in open, traced uncial letters, Et transfiguratus est ante eos. Mat. C. xvii. v. 2; — below, on the left, Aloysius Bardi excudit; — in the middle, in uncial letters, Exstat in Imperiali Museo Parisino; — and, in the right corner, the white stamp with the initials of the engraver. Thorel, No. 106, 910 fr.; Archinto, No. 258, 975 fr.; G. Smith, No. 1021, £ 30. An artist's proof with the white book, Duke of Buckingham, 1834, No. 1103, £ 21, and a proof of the finished plate, No. 1102, £ 24 3 s.

In the prints the artists' names remain the same, only to Raphael Morghen sculpt. is added, in a line below, Florentiae 1811. The line Transfiguratus est ante eos. Matth. C. xvii. v. 2 is newly engraved; the letters are again open, but smaller, and Matth. stands instead of Mat. Under the coat of arms and the dedication to "Napoleon le Grand" stands, below, on the left, Déposé à la Bibliothèque Impériale à Paris 6 Décembre 1811. Emprimé [sic] par Louis Bardi; in the middle, in written cursive letters, Le Tableau existe au Muséum Impérial à Paris, and, on the right, Par son très humble et très obéissant serviteur et sujet Raphael Morghen.

LEONARDO DA VINCI pinx. The Last Supper. Palm. 180.

See Rigollot, No. 14. The well-known painting in oil, not fresco, on the wall of the refectory of the convent of the Dominicans in Santa Maria delle Grazie, in Milan. Engraved in 1800, after the drawing of Teod. Matteini.

Impression of the 1st state of the print, before the mark, resembling a comma, after the word vobis, and the dot under the R of the engraver's name.

In the 2d state the comma and dot are found, and in the 3d the plate is retouched.

prints the inscription stands, Amen dico vobis, etc., and under this the coat of arms and dedication, Ferdinando III., etc., traced with the needle. Harrach, No. 1523, 1200 fr.

Impressions of the etching occur in which a small part of the background is finished with the graver.

There are eleven artist's proofs, before any letters, and in which the dish next to the Apostle Simon is drawn only in outline, and the shadow of the bread thereon is before the cross-hatching. Such a one is described in Thomas Wilson's Catalogue, No. 180; another was sold in Johnson's collection, in London, 1860, No. 96, for £316. Same state, Archinto, Paris, 1862, No. 256, "magnificent proof of the first state of the finished plate, before all letters, and with the coat of arms; with the white dish, on which is the monogram R. M." (these letters are not on all the impressions). It was sold for 8,400 fr., and 5 per cent addition, and bought by Messrs. Amsler and Ruthardt, printsellers in Berlin. At the sale of Macready's prints there occurred, No. 74, a "proof with the white plate"; it was bid in by Mr. Colnaghi for £110.

LEONARDO DA VINCI pinx. Head of the Saviour. Palm. 207.

"Engraved in 1809, from a picture, of the size of the plate, in the possession of the Trivulzio family in Milan."

BAROCCIO pinx. Christ appearing to Magdalen in the Garden: "Noli me tangere." Palm. 222.

The picture, now in England, was formerly in the collection of the Duke of Lucca. Mrs. Jameson, Sacred and Legendary Art.

Engraved in 1816.

Old impression with the white stamp of the initials of the publishers: "A. E. L(api)."

Proofs have lettres grises; artist's proofs have one of the canes in the foreground left white, and are before any letters. La Motte Fouquet, No. 320, 58 th.; George Smith, No. 1018, £9; Marshall, No. 1166, £7 7 s.; Lehrs, No. 239, 31½ th.

ANDREA DEL SARTO pinx. Madonna del Sacco. Palm. 175.

Fresco in the cloister of the Serviti in Florence. Alfred Reumont, p. 153; Crowe and Cavalcaselle, III. p. 572; Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, XIX. p. 400. Engraved in 1795.

Old impression, before the additional flourishes of the letters of the inscription, which the late impressions have.

Proofs have, besides the artists' names and the coat of arms, only one line of dedication in uncial open letters, A sua Eccellenza, il Signor Generale Marchese Mamfrini; which in the prints is shaded, and has two additional lines added in cursive letters.

Artist's proofs are before any letters. Archinto, No. 265, 115 fr.

TITIAN pinx. Madonna watching over the Sleeping Child. Palm. 177.

Engraved in 1797 for the painter Head. In 1814 it formed one of the plates of the "Select engravings published by Stone under the direction of Wm. Buchanan, Esq."

Proof with the artists' names, and the inscription "Parce somnum rumpere" in open letters; and with the English address. On India paper.

In the 1st state of the print the inscription is shaded, but there is still the English address; — the 2d has the address of Artaria in Mannheim. — There are artist's proofs with only the names of the artists (Johnson, No. 106, £ 26), and still earlier ones without any letters. Duke of Buckingham, No. 1091; Marshall, No. 1169, £ 29 10 s.; Archinto, No. 262, 610 fr.; Lehra, No. 234, 70 th.

GAROFALO pinx. Madonna and Child.

Palm. 219.

Engraved in 1815.

1st proof, before letters, with only the artist's names in very small letters.

The 2d proofs have open letters. — Artist's proofs are before any letters.

ANDREA DEL SARTO pinx. Madonna col Bambino.

Palm. 124.

Virgin and Child with St. John. The picture was in the collection of Count Fries in Vienna, now dispersed. Alfred Reumont, p. 84. Engraved in 1787.

Impression before the address.

The 1st proof is before letters, with only the artists' names; — the 2d has the inscription with the misspelling Rambino; — the 3d is with the correction, but is before the address; — the 4th has Artaria's address.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna del Granduca: "Pulcra est," etc. Palm. 251.

The picture is (or was) in one of the Duke's private apartments of the Pitti palace. Passavant, II. 27. Engraved in 1823.

Artist's proof before any letters, with merely the two letters "R. M." traced with the needle in the middle below.

LOD. CARACCI pinx. Madonna col Bambino.

Palm. 198.

Small piece, oval in a square border, two and one third inches high, one and three quarters inches broad, engraved in 1804 after a picture of the same size in the possession of the Gini family in Bologna.

Impression with the misspelling "Rambino" instead of "Bambino" in the inscription.

Proofs are before letters, with only the artists' names: Thomas Wilson, No. 188; Hillig, No. 296. Palmerini mentions that a very few artist's proofs were taken from the plate before the shading that made the oval square.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna del Cardellino, Madonna with the Goldfinch.

"Mater pulchrae dilectionis." Palm. 213.

See Passavant, II. 36. The picture is in the Tribune of the Uffizj Gallery in Florence. Engraved in 1814.

Proofs are with open letters. — Lehrs, No. 233, "Proof before letters, with only the names of the artists," 43 th.

Artist's proof before any letters, Thomas Wilson, No. 187. — Artist's proof before any letters, with the white book, Marshall, No. 1167, £ 35.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna della Sedia, or della Seggiola. Palm. 165.

Purchased for £ 9. A similar impression, Lehrs, No. 227, 63 th.

A print impression with the full inscription, and all engraved with the burin. The artist's names as well as all the writing in current letters are thicker, and the letters which were open in the proof are shaded. The impression has the 2d address of Nicolò Pagni, and is of that state which has the misspelling A SUA ECCLL<sup>ta</sup> in the dedication.

After the mere etch-prints come : — 1st state, finished proof before any writing, Thomas Wilson, No. 177 ; — 2d state, before letters, with merely the artists' names and the arms of Manfredini, Debois, No. 690, 405 fr. ; — 3d state, proof with one line of inscription, dedication to Manfredini, in open letters traced with the needle as described above ; — 4th state, the letters of the inscription shaded, and the dedication written out in full with the graver, the address still Pagni e Bardi ; — 5th state, with only Pagni's name as address, the inscription, that is, the dedication, erased, and only the coat of arms left. — The 6th state has Pagni's address, and again one line of inscription in open uncial letters, the dedication, with the misspelling "ECCLL<sup>ta</sup>." Palmerini describes this state with the misspelling and but one line of inscription, and so do the manuals of engraving after him. I have never met with such an impression, nor found one described in a catalogue of a collection. — The 7th state would then be the print with the full inscription engraved with the burin and the uncial letters shaded, but with the misspelling ECCLL<sup>ta</sup> ; such I have seen repeatedly, and our second copy is such, though I do not find it described before Rudolph

Weigel in the catalogue of Von Quandt, whose collection was sold in 1860. No. 2179, "Alter schöner Abdruck mit ECCLL<sup>ta</sup> und der Adresse von N. Pagni (on the left side below), auch Nic. de Antonj's Name als Drucker" (in the lower corner on the right). — 8th state, still Pagni's address, with the misspelling corrected; — 9th state, address of Bettelini, Rome.

There are still later impressions with Antoni's address on the left side below; and very recently the whole plate has been re-engraved, and these new impressions have again put the misspelling in the dedication, calculated to deceive: they are, however, without Pagni's address; those that I have seen had no address at all.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same Madonna della Seggiola.

A small plate, in 16mo, engraved in 1832, shortly before Morghen's death, when he was 74 years old. Not enumerated in Palmerini's catalogue, of which the 3d and last edition appeared in 1824.

An impression before any letters, Johnson, No. 122; "before the R. M.," Marshall, No. 1161.

MURILLO pinx. Magdalen. (Whole figure, kneeling.) Palm. 188.

Different from the picture in the Doria palace, Rome, which is half figure. See Alfred de Reumont, Römische Briefe, II. p. 210; Platner and Bunsen, III. iii. p. 551.* Engraved in 1800.

Artist's proof of the finished plate, before any letters, Th. Wilson, No. 181; Debois, No. 696; Johnson, No. 102, £ 35; Duke of Buckingham, No. 1085; Marshall, No. 1170, £ 17; Goddard, No. 342, £ 24 10 s.

Proof before letters, with only the artist's names, George Smith, No. 1014, £ 11 11 s.; Macready, No. 66, £ 15 10 s.

CARLO DOLCE pinx. Magdalen. Palm. 249.

With the box of ointment and with the inscription: Fides salvam fecit. The picture is in the Uffizj Gallery, Florence.

The proofs have open letters. — Artist's proofs are before any letters. "Before all letters, with the white jewel," Johnson, No. 116.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Mass of Bolsena. Palm. 63.

Fresco of the Stanze, Sala d' Eliodoro; Passavant, II. No. 106.

* William Stirling, in his Annals of the Artists in Spain, in the Catalogue of the works of Murillo, III. p. 1439, says: "St. Mary Magdalen, possibly the picture from which Sir Robert Strange's and G. Balestra's engravings were executed. ROME, D. of Bracciano, Bracciano Palace." The Gallery of the Duke of Bracciano came into the Orleans Gallery, and the latter was sold in England in 1798. The banker Torlonia is now Duke of Bracciano, through the purchase of the fee of the Orsini Odescalchi. I do not know of such a picture in his palace; perhaps the Doria palace was meant. The only Magdalen engraved by Giovanni Balestra that I know of is after Francesco Vanni. Sir Robert Strange did not engrave a Magdalen after Murillo; Raphael Morghen must have been meant, who engraved our Magdalen, a whole length figure; while the picture in the Doria palace, of which, as far as I know, there is no engraving, is half figure.

Old impression before the retouch, with the mended crack in the plate barely visible over the heads of the persons on the stairs (see Palmerini, p. 43, under 4), and with trial marks of the graver in the margin.

Proofs are before letters, with only the artist's name.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Three Allegorical Figures, Attributes of Jurisprudence, — Prudence, Fortitude, and Moderation. Palm. 49.

Passavant, II. No. 68. Fresco of the Stanze, Camera della Segnatura.

Proofs are before letters, with only the artist's names.

Fresco on the ceiling of the Camera della Segnatura, Stanze of the Vatican. Passavant, II. 71. Engraved in 1781.

Impression before the retouch of the plate.

RAPHAEL pinx. Allegorical Figure. Poetry. Palm. 47.

Fresco on the ceiling of the Camera della Segnatura, Stanze of the Vatican. Passavant, II. 72. Engraved in 1781.

RAPHAEL pinx. Allegorical Figure. Philosophy. Palm. 67.

Fresco on the ceiling of the Camera della Segnatura, Stanze of the Vatican. Passavant, II. 73. Engraved in 1784.

Fresco on the ceiling of the Camera della Segnatura, Stanze of the Vatican. Passavant, II. No. 74. Engraved in 1784.

* * The proofs of these four pieces have only the artists' names. Of the two first there are also rare artist's proofs, before any letters; Debois, No. 699.

CARLO DOLCE pinx. La Poesia.

The picture is in the Corsini Gallery, Florence. Engraved in 1827. It is not contained in Palmerini's catalogue of R. Morghen's engravings, as the last (third) edition was published in 1824. Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, No. 162.

Artist's proof before letters and before the coat of arms, with only the artists' names. In the corner is the white stamp of the engraver's initials.

The proofs have the coat of arms. There are also earliest artist's proofs before any letters. "Proof before any letters, with the white buckle," Johnson, No. 114.

GAV. HAMILTON pinx. Poetry. Palm. 39.

Engraved in 1780.

With the 1st address, Rome.

GAV. HAMILTON pinx. Painting. Palm. 38.

Engraved in 1779.

With the 1st address, Rome.

* * Of these two prints the 2d state has the address Naples; the 3d the address Florence. — The proofs, which are very rare, have the title in open letters and the coat of arms, and are before the dedication.

GÉRARD pinx. Les Trois Ages. Palm. 238.

The picture is owned by the royal family of Naples; there is a copy in the Palais Royal in Paris. Engraved in 1820.

"CORREGGIO pinx." Caritas. Palm. 166.

A mother with three children. "Pulchriores Charitum pingunt charitatis amorem." Engraved in 1795.

The picture was in reality painted by Ignatius Unterberger, born at Cavalese in 1748, a successful student of Correggio's works, like Mengs, whose friend and associate he was in Rome. On his departure from that city he left this picture behind unfinished and neglected, and his brother Christoph Unterberger sold it in 1786–87, with some other trumpery, to a picture-dealer and restorer, Lovera, who, after the necessary preparation, brought it forward as a newly discovered original of Correggio. The English painter Day purchased the privilege of making a drawing from it, and having it engraved by Morghen, which spread the fame of the picture. In the same year in which the engraving came out, Prince Nic. Esterhazy, then in Rome, bought the picture, by the advice of Hofrath Hirt, but when it arrived in Vienna, Ignatius Unterberger, who then resided there, identified it as the picture which he had left behind him in Rome twenty-five years before. It was returned to Rome in 1796, and is now forgotten.

Proofs are before letters, with only the names of the artists. There occurs a counterfeit copy of this plate without any letters.

NIC. POUSSIN pinx. The Dance of the Hours to the Tune of Time.

Palm. 132.

See Smith, Cat. rais. "Poussin," No. 279. Engraved in 1789, when "in the Palazzo Rospigliosi." Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 156, mentions it as in the Marquis of Hertford's collection: "The celebrated Dance of the Seasons, from the collection of Cardinal Fesch, and generally known by Raphael Morghen's elegant engraving."

1st state of the print, before the inscription "In aedibus Rospigliosis."

Proofs have merely the coat of arms and dedication to Ferdinand of Austria, and the names of the artists, traced. They are also before the inscription In aedibus Rospigliosis.

DOMENICHINO pinx. La Caccia di Diana.

Palm. 115.

Diana presiding over the prize-shooting of her Nymphs. The picture is in the Borghese Gallery in Rome. Platner and Bunsen, III. iii. p. 279. Engraved in 1784.

From the collection of Carmesina.

The late impressions show a stroke, like a large comma, where the printer's ink went into a crack, between et and Sua in the dedication. — The proofs are on paper of a bluish tint, showing the lines of the paper wire, and have no inscription, except the names of the artists, and these scarcely perceptible, in very small letters traced with the needle. — The early impressions of the print are on stout, not very white paper, which, according to Palmerini, — I have not found it, — has the watermark of the name of Pietro Miliani.

GUIDO RENI pinx. Aurora with Apollo and the Hours. Palm. 125.

Aurora scatters flowers before the chariot of the Sun-god Apollo, which is drawn by four steeds and accompanied by the dancing Hours. A fresco on the ceiling of the casino in the garden of the Palazzo Rospigliosi in Rome. Platner and Bunsen, III. ii. p. 400. Engraved in 1792.

Impression before the retouch and on the old paper.

The proofs are before letters, the artists' names excepted. Wilcox, 191, £ 51; Johnson, No. 99, £ 50; Archinto, No. 259, 1300 fr.; Lehrs, No. 255, 300 th. — The first rare impressions of the print are before the inscription on the left below; In aedibus Rospigliosis. Archinto, No. 260, 360 fr.; Lehrs, No. 254, 100 th. After many retouches the plate became the property of the "Stamperia Camerale" in Rome, which issued impressions again without that inscription. Recently the plate has been entirely re-engraved, and the impressions look like a new engraving.

AFTER AN ANTIQUE CAMEO. Head of Jupiter. Palm. 142.

Engraved in 1790, for E. A. Visconti, Osservazioni sopra un antico cameo rapp. Giove Egioco, Padova, 1793.

1st impression with "effosus" instead of "effossus."

The very rare proofs are before letters.

RAPHAEL pinx. Þ. Joan of Aragon. Palm. 239.

Joan was the daughter of Ferdinand of Aragon, Duke of Montaldo, married to Ascanio Colonna, Constable of Naples, and mother of Marc-Antonio Colonna, the hero of Lepanto. Vasari calls her, erroneously, Vice-queen of Naples. She was one of the most remarkable women of the sixteenth century for her intellect and her beauty; she was celebrated by more than three hundred poets, and she was of spotless fame.

The picture in the Louvre is the original of numerous school repetitions. The portrait in the Doria Gallery in Rome is by a scholar of Leonardo da

BARTOLINI del. P. Boccaccio, Giovanni. Palm. 243.

Engraved in 1822, and inserted in the folio edition of the Decamerone which F. Didot published in 1816, in conformity with the Pisa edition of the great Italian poets, and which originally had only a small head of Boccaccio, in a round, engraved by Rosaspina.

Engraved for the folio edition of La Divina Commedia, Pisa, dalla tipografia della Società letteraria, 1804.

Impression without the address of L. Bardi.

The different states of proofs are like those of the portrait of Ariosto.

TOFANELLI del. P. Dante Alighieri. Palm. 203.

In 8vo. A repetition of the preceding on a reduced scale. Engraved for Gaetano Poggiali's edition of Dante's Divina Commedia, 4 vol. 1807-13, large 8vo.

RAPHAEL pinx. P. "La Fornarina," in reality the portrait of Beatrice Pio da Ferrara. Palm. 215.

The famous picture in the Tribune at Florence. Passavant, II. No. 95, III. p. 114. Engraved in 1805.

An early impression, with the white stamp of the engraver's initials in the right-hand corner below.

Proofs have one line of inscription, Raphaelis amicitia celeberrima La Fornarina, in open letters, the artists' names, the coat of arms, no dedication, and on the right below the white stamp R M. Lehrs, No. 285, 43½ th. — Artist's proof before letters, but with the artists' names, Johnson, No. 112, £ 11 15 s., and G. Smith, No. 1007, £ 7. — A still earlier finished proof before any writing, Wilson, No. 186. — Impression of the plate in which the bust is finished except the bosom, but the arm is only traced, Wilson, No. 185; Quandt, No. 2157; Hillig, No. 307. — There is also a copy of this engraving by Antonio Morghen, with Antonio's name as engraver; impressions before any letters of this plate may be easily mistaken for an artist's proof of the original Raffaello Morghen, and, no doubt, are often confounded.

Palm. 204.

Kneeling in the foreground; designated by the name of the "Fornarina."

Engraved on a piece of silver. Very rare.

Proof before letters, with only the names of the artists and the coat of arms.

Before any letters, Duke of Buckingham, No. 963.

"SIMONE MEMMI" pinx. ¶. Laura, Madonna. Palm. No. 234 and p. 97.

From a miniature by Francesco Scotto after a picture in the possession of the Bellanti family in Siena, attributed to Simone Memmi. Engraved in 1819 for Marsand's edition of Le rime di Petrarca, 2 vol. Padova, 1819–20, large 4to.

RAPHAEL pinx. ¶. Leo X. Palm. 218.

The bust merely of the pope, from Raphael's celebrated picture in the Pitti palace, representing Leo sitting at a table and attended by the Cardinals Giulio de' Medici and Lodovico de' Rossi. Passavant, II. 237. Engraved in 1815 for Bettoni's Vite e Ritratti di illustri Italiani.

Open letter proof with the white stamp "P. C."

RAPHAEL pinx. ¶. The same.

Artist's proof before letters with only the artists' names, and the white stamp "P. C."

RAPHAEL pinx. ¶. The same.

Still earlier finished trial proof, before any letters, and without stamp.

A. BRONZINO pinx. ¶. Machiavelli, Nicolò. Palm. 171.

There is a portrait of Machiavelli by Bronzino in the Palazzo Doria (formerly Pamfili). Platner and Bunsen, III. iii. p. 542. Engraved in 8vo for the works of Machiavelli, Livorno, 1797.

The prints have open letters.

A. BRONZINO pinx. The same.

Proof before letters, with only the artists' names.

VASARI pinx. P. Medici, Lorenzo de'.

Palm. 236.

With the address, "L. Bardi & Co."

Proofs have open letters. — Artist's proofs are before letters, but with the artist's name. Wilcox, No. 186.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Moncada, Francisco de, on Horseback. Palm. 162.

Engraved in 1793. The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 146; Smith, Cat. rais. 143; Waagen, Handbook, II. p. 287.

Impression before the cross-hatching on the cuirass.

The cross-hatching was made after the plate began to wear, and constitutes the 2d state. — The proofs are before the inscription, Imago equestris Francisci de Moncada, etc., for which a place is left blank; they have the names of the artists, the coat of arms, and the dedication in open and traced letters, "lettre grise," Debois, No. 704, 320 fr. — Finished proof before the inscription and with the date 1792, Thomas Wilson's Cat. rais., No. 176; — an artist's proof, before letters and arms, Sir. J. Hippisley, London, 1857, No. 111, £ 23 10 s.

The title-inscription of the prints "with letters" is in open letters.

GÉRARD pinx. TOFANELLI del. P. Napoleon I. Emperor of France, in his Imperial Robes.

Palm. 206.

Engraved in 1808.

Open letter proof, 4th state of the finished plate.

GÉRARD pinx. P. The same.

Print, old impression with the 2d address.

The states of the finished plate are as follows: — 1st, proof before any letters and before the motto round the star of the Legion of Honor, Johnson, No. 111; Marshall, No. 1158. — 2d, proof before letters, with only artists' names, Debois, No. 705; Marshall, No. 1156. — 3d, proof with the artists' names and only the name "Napoléon" in open uncial letters, without further inscription and without address. There were but one hundred impressions taken in this state, to be inserted in a magnificent folio edition of the Code Napoléon, for which this plate was expressly engraved, and which was published by Molini, Landi & Co. in the style of the Pisa edition of the Italian poets. — 4th, proof, in which to the name, in open letters, are added the titles in cursive letters, and, traced with the needle, Empereur des Français, Roi d'Italie et Protecteur de la Confédération du Rhin. Without address. — 5th, print, with shaded and stronger letters, and still before the address. — 6th, with the address of Molini, Landi, & Co. — 7th, with the address of L. Bardi & Co.

TOFANELLI del. P. Neri, San Filippo. Palm. 190.

TOFANELLI del. P. Petrarca, Francesco. Palm. 200.

Engraved for Rime di Francesco Petrarca, Pisa, dalla tipografia della Società letteraria, 1805.

Impression with L. Bardi's address.

The different states of the proofs are like those of the portrait of Ariosto.

RAPHAEL pinx. P. Raphael. Palm. 191.

In reality the portrait of Bindo Altoviti, whose family kept it as such for more than two centuries, until, about the middle of the last century, Bottari, misunderstanding a passage in Vasari, "for Bindo Altoviti he painted his portrait while he was young," pronounced it Raphael's own portrait. As such it was engraved in 1803, and as such it was in 1808 bought by Louis of Bavaria, then Crown Prince. It is now in the Munich Gallery. Passavant, II. 96. Herman Grimm, however, maintains that it is the portrait of Raphael, and so did Baron Rumohr.

RAPHAEL pinx. P. The same.

Proof, with the artists' names, coat of arms, one line of dedication in letters traced with the needle, an open space for one line, and, below, one line in small letters.

Lehrs, No. 283, 38 th. — Artist's proof, Johnson, No. 115, before letters, but with the artists' names, £ 17 10 s. — A still earlier proof, "finished proof before any writing," Wilson, No. 182.

CATANI del. P. Rossini, Gioacchino. Palm. 242.

Engraved in 1822, after a marble bust, by Bartolini.

P. ERMINI del. P. Tasso, Torquato. Palm. 205.

Engraved for La Gerusalemme Liberata, Pisa, dalla tipografia della Società letteraria, 1807.

With L. Bardi's address.

The different states of the proofs are like those of Ariosto.

Raphael Morghen engraved the portrait of this poet a second time, in profile view and of 8vo size (Palm. 254), which was inserted in the Gerusalemme Liberata edited by Giuseppe Molini, 1818.

MIEREVELT pinx. P. "William II., Prince of Nassau." Palm. 66.

This is not the portrait of William of Nassau, but of an unknown person, and as such engraved by Morghen in 1784 at Rome. After Mr. Artaria, the publisher at Mannheim, had bought the plate, he caused impressions to be made from it with the inscription "Wilhelmus II., Princeps Nassoviae."

This impression is before that inscription.

F. VIEIRA pinx. P. Turchi, Deodato, Bishop of Parma. Palm. 181.
Engraved in 1800.

1st state of the print, with the titles of the prelate, and before Bard's address.

The proofs are before letters. — "Proof before any letters," Duke of Buckingham, No. 969.

LEONARDO DA VINCI pinx. P. Leonardo da Vinci. Palm. 224.
Engraved in 1817, after the picture in the Painters' Portrait Gallery in Florence. Rigollot, No. 84.

Artist's proof before any letters, with merely the artists' names.

Purchased for £8. G. Smith, No. 991, "fine and rare proof before any letters," £10 10 s. — Proofs have open letters.

ANGELICA KAUFFMAN pinx. P. Volpato, Giovanni. Palm. 186.
Engraved in 1801. Proofs have open letters. — Engraver's proof not quite finished, the waistcoat still white, Quandt, No. 2028.

FRA BARTOLOMMEO pinx. Virgin and Child, with a Book and Two Angels. Palm. ed. 1824, p. 154.

Inscription on the plate, Ricavato dal quadro originale esistente nella Galleria di S. E. Milord Clive in Londra. Engraved by Raphael Morghen and Giovanni Volpato in conjunction. There is no engraver's name, only the address Apud Joan. Volpato.

MORIN, JEAN, painter and etcher, born at Paris at the beginning of the seventeenth century, died in 1666. A pupil of Philippe de Champagne. Robert-Dumesnil, II.

PH. DE CHAMPAGNE pinx. P. Borromeo, Cardinal Carlo. R.-D. 46.
Profile to the right, in an oval border without inscription, also no inscription below, except the artist's name.

FRANCK pinx. P. Franck, Jérôme. R.-D. 52.

In an oval border, without inscription; the bust rests upon a socle, and is surrounded by a shaded square. The socle has the inscription, on a slip of paper of greenish hue, pasted on the print, Jérôme Franck, peintre du Roi. Franck Pin. Morin sculp. This is pasted over and covers the inscription, Henri IV. Roi de France et de Navarre. Ferdinand pinx. Morin sculp. The portrait is, however, that of the painter, as Ferdinand's picture of the King represents him in cuirass, only a passe-partout was used in printing which contained the other name. A Paris chez Bligny, Lancier du Roi, m<sup>d</sup> d'estampes, etc.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Opstal. See GAYWOOD.

MOUZIN, or MOZIN, MICHEL, painter and engraver, born at Amsterdam about 1630.

LIEVENS pinx. P. "Joan van Galen, Admiral der Holl. Vlote in de Middellandsche Zee."

With twelve Dutch verses in two columns, divided by a coat of arms, commencing: Dus ziet men Galen in 't gedrang der Britten woeden, and ending Zyn Krygsroem . . . ewig staan. Jan Vos. "J. Livius Pinxit. — F. de Wit excudit."

Without "Michiel Mozyn sculpsit." With the address of F. de Wit, not mentioned by Bartsch, L'œuvre de Rembrandt, II. p. 174, No. 94, nor by Claussin, L'œuvre de Rembrandt, II. p. 165, No. 95, who give the address of Cornelis Danckertsz.

This impression is also without the coat of arms in the plate, on the left above, where the space for it is left unshaded.

The 1st state has Danckertsz's address; the 2d has the address of Allardt. Le Blanc, after Heller's Handbuch, art. "Mouzin," 21.

MOYREAU, JEAN, engraver, born at Orleans in 1691, died at Paris in 1762.
A pupil in drawing of Bon de Boulogne.

P. VERONESE pinx. Rebecca and Eliezer.

The picture, probably not painted by Paolo Veronese, but from his school, is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 110.

Engraved for the Cabinet Crozat.

WATTEAU pinx. La Collation.

PH. WOUWERMANS pinx. Grande Chasse au Cerf. No. 20.

See Smith, Cat. rais. No. 14. When engraved, in 1736, the picture was owned by the Countess de Verrue; it is now in the Dresden Gallery. There is a repetition in the Gallery of the Louvre; Villot, No. 569.

La Fontaine de Bacchus. No. 22.

According to Smith, Cat. rais. No. 35, in the Dresden Gallery, but not identified in Hübner's Catalogue of that Gallery; when engraved in 1736, it was owned by Mr. de Fontpertuis.

PH. WOUWERMANS pinx. La Présent du Chasseur. No. 31.

Not in Smith, Cat. rais. A party returned from the chase, in front of a chateau; on the left a statue of Diana, on the right a fountain. When engraved, in 1738, the picture was in the collection of the Duke of Orleans, to whom the plate is dedicated.

- PH. WOUWERMANS pinx. La petite Foire aux Chevaux. No. 33.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 26. When engraved, in 1738, the picture was in the collection of Prince Victor Amadeus of Savoy, Prince de Carignan, to whom the plate is dedicated; it is now in the Gallery of the Louvre, Villot, No. 576, under the title "Halte de militaires."

- PH. WOUWERMANS pinx. Le Défilé d'Equipages. No. 44.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 204. When engraved, in 1742, the picture was in the possession of the Prince d'Issenghien, to whom the plate is dedicated; it was afterwards in the collections of D'Argenville, Praslin, Prince Talleyrand, and is now in that of A. Baring, Esq.

- PH. WOUWERMANS pinx. Gardes de Cavalerie. No. 45.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 342. When engraved, in 1742, the picture was in the collection of M. Dinet; in 1827 in that of M. Van Loone in Amsterdam.

- PH. WOUWERMANS pinx. Les Marchands Forains. No. 60.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 354. When engraved, in 1748, the picture was in the Gallery of Count Brühl in Dresden, the greater part of which was bought by Catharine II., for her Gallery at St. Petersburg.

- PH. WOUWERMANS pinx. Départ pour la Chasse à l'Oiseau. No. 80.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 357. When engraved, in 1756, the picture was in the collection of the Marquis de Marigny, to whom the plate is dedicated.

* * These engravings form part of the "Œuvre de Philippe Wouwermans, Hollandois, gravées d'après les meilleurs tableaux, Paris, 1737," containing 89 plates. The plates are numbered, and the numbers used above refer to this work. Treuttel and Würtz, Paris, published a new edition, the plates of which are not desirable.

- TITIAN pinx. P. François I.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre; Villot, No. 469.

MÜCKE, HEINRICH CARL ANTON, painter and etcher, born at Breslau in 1806, lives in Düsseldorf. A pupil of his father and of König.

Two Friars leaning over a Parapet by a Lake.

In 8vo. Etched in 1840.

- SPRANGER pinx. "Apotheosis of the Fine Arts." B. 76.

Painting, Sculpture, and Architecture, fleeing from Barbarism, are received in Olympus. A great Allegory, engraved on two plates.

Impression with the 1st address, that of Harman Muller.

MULLER, JAN, continued.

The 2d address was that of Ger. Valck.

ALDEGREVER sculps. p. Johan van Leyden, King of the Anabaptists.

A copy of the engraving of Aldegrever (Bartsch, No. 182).

MÜLLER, JOHANN GOTTHARD VON, painter and engraver, born at Bernhausen near Stuttgart in 1747, died at Stuttgart in 1830. A pupil of Wille, and father and teacher of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Müller, the engraver of the Sistine Madonna. See A. Andresen, Johann Gotthard von Müller und Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Müller, beschreibendes Verzeichniss ihrer Kupferstiche, Leipzig, 1865.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna della Sedia.

The well-known picture is in the Pitti palace. Passavant, II. 226.

Engraved in 1804 for the Musée Français.

Old impression, with the name of Ramboz as printer.

The later ones have Durand's name.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same.

Artist's proof before any letters.

Rigal, No. 560; Bause, No. 2855.

The proofs have merely the artists' names; Rigal, No. 562. — 2d proofs have open letters.

DOMENICHINO pinx. FR. MÜLLER fil. del. St. Cecilia with a Basso.

The picture, formerly in Jabach's collection, is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 494. Engraved in 1809 for the Musée Français.

Proofs have merely the artists' names.

Artist's proofs are before any letters; they have, however, Müller's name very slightly traced on the top of the plate. Hüsel, No. 126, 38 th.

"LEONARDO DA VINCI pinx." St. Catherine with Two Angels.

The picture is by a follower of Leonardo da Vinci's school. Engraved in 1817, after one of the repetitions of the picture, owned by M. Frauenholz, a picture-dealer in Nuremberg. The best of these repetitions is in the Royal Gallery of Copenhagen. Rigollot, No. 48.

Artist's proof before any letters.

The 1st proof has the names of the artists merely; — the 2d has the inscription in open letters.

N. R. JOLLAIN pinx. The Nymph Erigone.

Engraved in 1773.

Proofs are before letters, having merely the name of the engraver; the 1st are before the coat of arms, the 2d with it.

J. TRUMBULL pinx. The Battle of Bunker Hill.

Lettre grise proof. Close under the plate, in open traced letters stands the inscription: "Painted by J. Trumbull, Esq. London, Published Feb. 1798, by A. C. de Poggi, No. 91 New Bond Street. Engraved by J. G. Müller." The next line is the title, "The Battle of Bunker's Hill," in open uncial letters. No further letters.

The states of the plate, after the etching, are as follows : 1st, before any letters, from the larger plate before it was made smaller. — 2d, before letters, with only J. G. Müller slightly traced with the needle, the letters formed of two lines, open letters ; Rigal, No. 565 ; Bause, i. No. 2864. — 3d, before letters, with the names of the painter and engraver ; Debois, No. 747. — 4th, before letters, the name of the publisher added ; Hillig, No. 327. — 5th, lettre grise ; Schwarzenberg, No. 1085, and our copy. — 6th, with finished letters.

P. A. WILLE pinx. La Mère Brigide.

P. A. WILLE pinx. La Petite Javotte.

Engraved in 1772.

* * The proofs of these two plates are before all letters.

F. TISCHBEIN pinx. P. Dalberg, Carl Theodor Anton Marie Freyherr von.

Engraved in 1798.

Proof, i. e. lettre grise.

Artist's proofs are before all letters.

LOUIS TOCQUÉ pinx. P. Galloche, Louis, painter.

Engraved in 1776, as a second plate for his admission into the Academy.

LOUIS TOCQUÉ pinx. P. The same.

Proof, before all letters ; it also has not the engraver's name traced on the top of the plate.

A. GRAFF pinx. P. Graff, Anton.

The picture is in the Dresden Gallery. Engraved in 1795.

Open letter proof.

A. GRAFF pinx. P. The same.

Artist's proof, before letters, with merely the artists' names.

There are still earlier artist's proofs, without any letters, having, however, the engraver's name traced on the top of the plate.

MME. KINSON del. P. Jérôme, Roi de Westphalie. In his Regal Robes.

Half length. "Dessiné à Cassel par Mde. Kinson." Engraved in 1813 by J. G. Müller, in conjunction with his son Friedrich Müller, who did the face and the lace kerchief.

MME. KINSON del. p. The same.

An open letter proof, i. e. the first line, "Jérôme Napoléon," is in open German text.

MME. KINSON del. p. The same.

Artist's proof, before any letters.

N. S. A. BELLE pinx. p. Leramberg, Louis, sculptor.

Engraved in 1775, as the first plate for his admission into the Academy.

Proofs are before all letters; Bause, No. 2875.

F. TISCHBEIN pinx. p. Loder, Professor of Anatomy.

Engraved in 1801.

Proof; the name is in cursive letters, traced with one line.

DUPLESSIS pinx. p. Louis XVI. King of France.

Engraved in 1793.

Open letter proof, 4th state.

The different impressions of this plate are :—

1. Before any letters; Rigal, No. 567. — 2. With only the name LOUIS SEIZE traced with the needle, before letters, before Müller's name at the right below. — 3. The same, but with Müller's name at the right below. — 4. With the full inscription, the name LOUIS SEIZE, however, only traced, i. e. in open letters, before Ramboz's name, and with the traced address : à Nuremberg chez Frauenholz. — 5. With the full inscription, engraved with the burin : LOUIS SEIZE, and below it : Il voulut le bonheur de sa nation, et en devint la victime; at the left, Peint d'après nature par Duplessis; at the right, Gravé par J. G. Müller Prof. ... de l'Acad. des Arts à Paris, and in the margin, at the left, Imprimé à Nuremberg par Ramboz; in the middle, Se vend chés J. Fr. Frauenholz à Nuremberg.

FRISCH pinx. p. Mendelssohn, Moses.

Engraved in 1787.

With the names of the artists and the dedication.

GREUZE pinx. p. Wille.

Engraved in 1776. — The original was sold at Paris in March, 1869, (Delessert's collection,) for £1,218.

2d impression, with the address of the engraver.

The 1st impressions are before the address. The proofs of the finished plate are before any letters; they have also not the engraver's name on the top of the plate.

MÜLLER, JOHANN FRIEDRICH WILHELM (not Christian Friedrich), son and pupil of the preceding Johann Gotthard, was born in 1782. After leaving the school of his father at Stuttgart, he studied for several years at the Academy in Paris, was made Engraver to the King of Württemberg, and afterwards Professor at the Academy of Dresden. His great work of the Sistine Madonna places him at the head of all modern engravers, and upon this plate he bestowed all his energies to the end of his life. He may be said even to have sacrificed life itself for it; he died at the Sonnenstein near Dresden, where he was confined, in the gloomiest depression of insanity, in 1816. A. Andresen, Johann Gotthard von Müller und Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Müller, Leipzig, 1865.

RAPHAEL pinx. Adam and Eve.

Engraved in 1812, after the fresco on the ceiling of the Camera della Segnatura of the Stanze in the Vatican. Passavant, II. 75.

Artist's proof of the finished plate, before any letters, with merely "Raf. Sanzio pinx. F. Müller sculp.," traced in very thin letters.

The artists' names were afterwards re-engraved differently.

A proof before any letters, even before the names of the artists, Lehra, No. 330, 14 $\frac{1}{2}$  th.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same.

Lettres grises. With the artists' names differently engraved. With the inscription "Was sich . . . im Leben," in open, and the whole inscription in traced letters, with the dedication, and with the engraver's own address. Andresen's 4th state.

The 5th state has shaded letters;—the 6th has Frauenholz's address added;—the 7th has the address taken out, and it has only the name Felsing as printer;—the 8th is with the address of the Bibliographic Institution in Hildburghausen.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna di San Sisto.

The picture, now the pride of the Dresden Gallery, was painted for the Gray Friars of the order of St. Benedict of the cloister of St. Sixtus in Piacenza, as a drapellone (according to Rumohr), a banner to be carried round in procession, and for this reason on canvas, which otherwise was very seldom used instead of panel in the Roman and Tuscan schools. It must soon, however, have been withdrawn from this use, as Vasari already found it secured on the principal altar of their church. In 1753 it was bought for Augustus III., Elector of Saxony, after protracted negotiations, and an old copy by Paris Nogari put up in its place. When, in 1827, the celebrated restorer Palmeroli of Rome was called to clean, line, and varnish the picture, which had become dim and dry, he at the same time unrolled the upper end of the canvas, which had been turned over the frame in such a manner that the top of the curtain with the rod and rings was concealed. These parts were not brought to view at the time of this engraving. They are represented in Steinla's engraving of the year 1847.

A proof etching of the plate, containing the whole design. The Madonna and Child are WITHOUT, the two Saints WITH, a halo. Below the print are traces of small letters in reverse.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same.

Artist's proof before any letters. The Madonna and Child are without a halo, though St. Sixtus and St. Barbara have one, as in the etching. At the right below there are still the traces of letters in reverse, very slightly written with the needle: "gef. d. 26 Merz. geätzt 24 Jul 1810."

From the collection of the father of the engraver, J. G. von Müller.

Other recorded exemplars of this very rare state of the plate: — Durand, 1821 (sold for 550 fr.); Révil, 1845, No. 118 (sold for 1,750 fr.), where it is said that but five impressions are known to exist of this state of the plate; but it is there stated that, besides these, there occur some impressions without any letters, with the halos on the heads of the Madonna and Child (these, of course, would also be without the traces of the letters in reverse); they were taken from the plate after the first inscription of the proofs (Madonna di S. Sisto di Rafaele, in traced letters) and the artists' names had been erased to make room for the inscription in uncial letters and the coat of arms, and dedication of the prints. I never saw such a spurious artist's proof. — Th[orel], 1853, No. 111, this identical exemplar of the Révil collection, "l'une des cinq épreuves tirées de cet état," 2,550 fr. The same copy, of the Révil and Thorel collections, occurred again in the sale of the engravings of M. Thieme, Leipzig, Jan. 28, 1867, No. 51, and was purchased by Messrs. Amsler and Ruthardt of Berlin for 185 thalers. I saw the print at that time, and ascertained that it corresponds exactly with the impression in the Gray collection, the Virgin and Child wanting the halo in both, and both having the somewhat indistinct inscription, or rather traces of an inscription, in reverse, at the bottom of the plate. — Johnson, 1861, No. 126, £ 126; Archinto, 1862, No. 293, 3,000 fr.; Marshall, 1864, No. 1190, "first finished proof before any letters, and before the aureoles over the heads of the Virgin and Child," £ 86.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same.

Proof, before the coat of arms and dedication, with only the names of the artists, of the publisher, and printer, and the title "La Madonna di S. Sisto di Rafaele," in open cursive letters.

On the back, written in pencil, the name H[ermann] Weber (of Bonn).

Bought from Mr. M. M. Holloway, for £ 50. — Debois, No. 750, 1,300 fr.; Quandt, Leipzig, 1860, No. 219, 416 th.; Lehrs, Berlin, 1866, No. 323, on India paper, 740 th. In the autumn of 1867 a similar impression was sold in Dresden by Mr. Ernst Arnold to C. F. Harris, Esq., of Providence, R. I., for 800 thalers.

After this state, twelve impressions of the print were struck off with letters and arms, in which the word servo in the dedication was omitted on the plate. Our collection does not possess one of these.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same.

Impression of a print with the letters, that is, the artists' names, coat of arms, title in uncial letters, and dedication. An early impression on India paper, like R. Weigel's, Kunst-Catalog, No. 11008.

Purchased for 200 thalers. These first impressions on India paper precede those on plain paper, and are highly esteemed; they are said to have been taken only in very small numbers and for presentation copies. It seems, however, that later, after the several retouches of the plate, some new impressions on India paper were made. I know of one with the retouch of Desnoyers, and have seen one even of a very late and very wretched retouch.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same.

Impression with the first retouch, by Bervic.

The second and more extensive retouch was by Desnoyers; and after him there are retouches without number. Impressions after a thorough re-engraving of the plate are within the last two years.

DOMENICHINO pinx. St. John the Evangelist.

Engraved in 1808, after a picture, then in the possession of M. Fromman, in Stuttgart, of whom Prince Narishkin bought it, and sold it afterwards to the Emperor Alexander I. of Russia for 60,000 rubles. It is a repetition of the picture of the Orleans Gallery, now in the collection of the Earl of Carlisle at Castle Howard.

1st state; with "Domenichino pinx.," with the date 1808 after the name of the engraver, with the name of Ramboz as printer, and, in the dedication to his father, the words "von seinem Sohne." The inscription "Da gerieth ich am Tage des Herrn," etc. in uncial letters is shaded, in this state as well as in the originals of the 2d state.

DOMENICHINO pinx. The same.

Engraved in 1808.

DOMENICHINO pinx. The same.

Engraved in 1812.

The plate, after being ground down, was very carefully retouched, and, after an excellent water-color drawing by Müller's pupil Esslinger, especially of the head, was engraved anew by the latter and Müller.

2d state of the print. The spelling of the painter's name in the inscription is changed to "Domenichino," and the date has been altered to 1812. The dedication ends with the words "von dem Verfasser" instead of "gewidmet von seinem Sohne," and the name of Ramboz as printer is wanting, having been covered up in printing.

Good impressions of the original plate of 1812 are almost as rare as those of 1808.

DOMENICHINO pinx. The same.

Still with the year 1812.

3d state of the print. A quite new, entire re-engraving of the plate. The work is boldly and cleverly done. The light place under the forefinger of the right hand of St. John is gone over with continued diagonal strokes; the light place over the scroll is almost filled up by continued diagonal strokes. The reflection of light in the eyes is closed towards the outside, while it was open in the former impressions. The inscription "Da gerieth ich," etc. appears again in open letters. The paper is, of course, fresh and new.

Besides this, there is the following, an older, counterfeit copy of this plate.

DOMENICHINO pinx. The same.

With the date 1812.

M. Rudolph Weigel, who furnished this copy, describes it minutely in his Kunst-Lager Catalog, No. 14288, to which I refer. I would only add that the print is more feebly engraved, and that the inscription, "Da gerieth ich," etc. is in open letters formed of two lines without shading. The paper is of a bluish white tint.

Proof, Wilson, No. 443, "first finished impression, with the inscription only traced, with the text in open letters, and before the address [sic] of Ramboz," and, in a note, "The inscription, it is said, was erased after a few of these impressions were taken, and some were then printed without letters. These, and a few in an unfinished state, are, it is believed, the only ones without writing." — Same state, Debois, No. 751; Th[orel], Nos. 113 and 114; Johnson, No. 125, £ 38; G. Smith, No. 1026, £ 21; Sir J. Hippisley, No. 116, £ 29 8 s.; Marshall, No. 1189, £ 24 3 s.; Lehrs, No. 328, 126 th.

At Goddard's sale, No. 355, occurred "a proof before any letters"; it was bid in by Mr. Colnaghi for £ 30.

See, however, Andresen, quoted at the head of the article Müller, who describes the following states: 1st, before any letters, of which there are (a) 50 impressions made in Stuttgart, which are not so satisfactory, and (b) 50 more made by Ramboz in Paris, which are the rare and precious impressions. — 2d state, with the names of the artists. — 3d state, with the full inscription, of which, however, the two first lines are only traced in open letters, like Wilson's. In the fall of 1867 an impression of this state was sold by Mr. Ernst Arnold in Dresden for 250 thalers, about £ 37, to C. F. Harris, Esq., of Providence, R. I.

* The Loggie in the Vatican are three stories of galleries or corridors, running round three sides of an open court. The first side, which is next to the staircase of the second story, and leads to the Stanze, contains the Loggie of Raphael. Since 1813 it has been closed with glass. It is an arcade, the roof of which is formed of thirteen cupolas, each containing four paintings of connected subjects, the whole fifty-two forming "Raphael's Bible." (See MONTAGNANI.) Ottaviani, in Part II., gives only the principal representation of each cupola. These rest on pilasters, richly ornamented in color and stucco ; as is the space round the representations in the arches. The space round the windows leading from the Stanze into the Loggie is ornamented with flowers and fruit. The ornaments are in the style of the antique grotesque, — so called from the rooms of an antique building where this kind of ornament was found having become subterranean grottos, through the rising of the surrounding ground. For all these pictures, reliefs, and ornaments Raphael made the designs in sepia ; Giulio Romano superintended their execution, the decorative department being under the direction of Giovanni da Udino and Perino del Vaga. These ornaments are often, not quite correctly, called Arabesques of Raphael. The arabesque proper is a geometrically constructed design, excluding the representation of men and animals, originated by the Arab patterns of weaving and embroidery, which, even when painted, were intended to represent their rich tapestry. The picture is in the Louvre, where it is now ascribed to Spada. Villot, No. 409. Engraved for the Musée Français.

P.

PALMERINI, NICCOLÒ, engraver in Florence. A pupil of R. Morghen. He is the author of Opere d'intaglio del cav. Raffaello Morghen raccolte ed illustrate, Firenze, 1810, 8vo. — 3<sup>a</sup> ed., Firenze, 1824, 8vo.

‡. Ginevra Benci.

After a picture in the Pandolfi family in Florence which Rigollot (Catalogue de l'œuvre de Leonardo da Vinci, p. 74) attributes to Sandro Botticelli. Palmerini engraved it as the portrait of Petrarch's Laura, but identified it afterwards as that of Ginevra, by Domenico Ghirlandajo's fresco, the Visitation in Santa Maria Novella, in which this celebrated beauty is introduced (see Vasari). There is another portrait of her, by Leonardo da Vinci, in the Gallery of the Pitti palace (Rigollot, No. 67). The portrait of Laura, from a miniature in a MS. in the Laurentian Library in Florence, by Simone Memmi, is engraved by Bridoux. See BRIDOUX.

PANNIER, an engraver of the present day in Paris.

VELAZQUEZ pinx. ‡. Bust of a Young Man.

Engraved in 1846 as Velazquez's own portrait.

Open letter.

The picture is in the Historical Museum at Versailles. The engraving is mentioned in Stirling's Velazquez, p. 251, Catalogue.

PERFETTI, ANTONIO, engraver, born at Florence in 1790. A pupil of R. Morghen.

RAPHAEL pinx. The (larger) Madonna of Lord Cowper.

Formerly of the Nicolini family in Florence.

The picture is now in the Gallery of Lord Cowper at Panshanger near Hertford. Passavant, II. 58. Engraved in 1831.

Proof before letters and arms, with the names of the artists.

There are proofs before any letters and before the coat of arms.—2d proofs have the artists' names merely, as ours.—The 3d proofs are with the names of the artists and the coat of arms.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna della Sedia.

The painting is in the Gallery of the Pitti palace in Florence. Passavant, II. 226, and III. p. 133.

Artist's proof before any letters. On India paper. With a statement, written in pencil, and signed with the name of M. Steinla, that this copy was selected and sent by Perfetti to M. Steinla for the King of Saxony, who, however, had received already a similar copy from his sister the Duchess Dowager of Tuscany.

MURILLO pinx. Madonna and Child.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Palazzo Pitti in Florence.

Proof before letters, with the names of the artists and the address. On India paper.

ANDREA DEL SARTO pinx. Birth of the Virgin.

A fresco in the vestibule of the Chapel of the Anunciation of the Serviti in Florence. A. Reumont, p. 57; Crowe and Cavalcaselle, III. p. 555.

Artist's proof before any letters, "with the white Jewel." With the engraver's autograph.

GUIDO RENI pinx. Sibylla Persica.

The picture is in the Uffizj Gallery in Florence.

Artist's proof, before any letters.

DOMENICHINO pinx. "La Sibylla."

The picture is in Prince Poniatowski's collection, in Florence. Engraved in 1832.

1st proof, before letters, and without the artists' names.

The 2d proof has open letters.

DOMENICHINO pinx. "Sibylla Cumæa," or, more correctly, St. Cecilia.

The original is in the Gallery of the Borghese palace in Rome. Platner and Bunsen, III. iii. p. 288, No. 38. Engraved in 1828.

GUERCINO pinx. Sibylla Samia.

The picture is in the Tribune of the Uffizj Gallery in Florence. Engraved in 1833.

Artist's proof, before letters or arms, with only the artists' names, in small letters traced with the needle.

ALLORI pinx. P. Cosimo de' Medici.

The picture is in the Turin Gallery. Engraved for D'Azeglio's La Reale Galleria di Torino.

TITIAN pinx. "La Bella di Tiziano."

The picture, in the Sciarra palace in Rome (Platner and Bunsen, III. iii. p. 190), is ascribed to Palma vecchio; Passavant, Christliche Kunst in Spanien, p. 163, note.

Proof, before letters, with coat of arms and the names of the artists and printer.

Engravings for V. Marchese, "San Marco in Firenze." See under MARCHESE.

PERSICHINI, RAFFAELLO, a modern Italian engraver.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Presentation in the Temple.

See Passavant, II. 17, c. p. 23. Engraved, of the size of the original in the Vatican, for the Calcografia Camerale in Rome.

PETERSEN, HEINRICH LUDWIG, painter and engraver at Nuremberg, was born at Altona in 1806. A pupil of Kroymann and Rosmäsler.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna della Sedia.

In the Gallery of the Pitti palace in Florence. Passavant, II. 226, and III. p. 133. Engraved in 1838.

The inscription "La Madonna della Sedia" is in open uncial letters, and, as well as the artists' names, traced with the needle.

PETHER, WILLIAM, painter and mezzotint engraver, born at Carlisle in 1731, died at London about 1795. A pupil of Thomas Frye.

REMBRANDT pinx. "A Warrior."

REMBRANDT pinx. A Standard-bearer.

Described by Smith, Cat. rais. No. 201, and Supplement, p. 798, No. 23. The picture, lately in the collection of Lady Clarke, Oak Hill, is now in that of Baron Rothschild. Smith's description does not entirely correspond ; the features are not those of Rembrandt's own portrait, and the person wears no steel cuirass.

REMBRANDT pinx. A Jewish Rabbi.

Smith, Cat. rais. 290.

The picture is in the collection of the Duke of Devonshire.

PETIT, GILLES EDME, designer and engraver, born at Paris in 1696, where he died in 1760.

MEYTENS pinx. p. Marie Thérèse, Reine de Hongrie, etc.

"Née le 13. May 1717, peint à Vienne en 1742, gravé à Paris en 1743."

PETIT, J. LOUIS, designer and engraver, born at Paris in 1760, died about 1812. A pupil of N. Ponce.

RAPHAEL pinx. St. George with a Sword.

See Passavant, II. 25. The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Engraved for the Musée Français, of the size of the original. Villot, No. 381. Vorsterman's engraving, which is quoted there, by the side of this, is from a different picture, which is now in St. Petersburg, "St. George with a Lance." See under VORSTERMAN.

Waagen, Kunstwerke und Künstler in Paris, p. 435, states likewise, by mistake, that this picture was engraved by Vorsterman.

PETRINI, GIOVANNI, engraver, born about the middle of the eighteenth century. Engraved for Montagnani, "Raphael's Bible." See under MONTAGNANI.

PICART, ÉTIENNE, designer and engraver, born at Paris in 1632, died at Amsterdam in 1721. He seems to have been a pupil of François de Poilly ; he went to Rome, where he stayed some time, and after his return to Paris was called "Le Romain."

CORREGGIO pinx. The Marriage of St. Catherine.

Villot, No. 27. This is the second plate, with the Martyrdom of St. Sebastian in the background, which was omitted in the first. See Coxe, p. 66, and Otto's catalogue, by R. Weigel, II. No. 580.

PICART, BERNARD, designer and engraver, born at Paris in 1673, died at Amsterdam in 1733. A pupil of his father Étienne and of Sébastien Le Clerc.

J. VAN SCHUPPEN del. p. Prince Eugene.
1st state before address; Nagler, 23.

KNELLER pinx. p. Duke of Marlborough.

PICCHIANTI, GIOVANNI DOMENICO, designer and engraver, born at Florence about 1670. A pupil of Giovanni-Battista Foggini.

TITIAN pinx. Madonna with the Child holding Pears in his Hands.
The picture is no longer in the Galleries of Florence. Engraved for Raccolta de' quadri dei Granduchi di Toscana.

PICHLER, JOHANN PETER, mezzotint engraver, born at Botzen in 1765, died at Vienna in 1806. A pupil of Schmutzer and Jacobé.

PERUGINO pinx. Madonna with the Veil of Stars.
The picture is, perhaps more properly, attributed to Pinturicchio. Some have also ascribed it to Francesco Francia.
Impression without any letters.

BATTONI pinx. St. Magdalen in the Desert.
The picture is in the Dresden Gallery.

RUBENS pinx. p. The Two Sons of Rubens.
After the picture in the Lichenstein Gallery in Vienna, which, according to Smith, Cat. rais. No. 327, is by Rubens himself, though on the engraving it is stated to be by Van Dyck. The duplicate in the Dresden Gallery, Smith, Cat. rais. No. 259, engraved by Daullé, is there considered the original.

PICKERING, F.

p. General Riego.
From a bust. "Printed by C. Hullmandel."

PIERACCINI, FRANCO, a lithographer of the present time in Florence.

RAPHAEL pinx. p. Angelo Doni.
The picture is in the Gallery of the Pitti palace. Lithographed in 1829.
Passavant, II. 39.

PILSEN, FRANZ, painter and engraver, born at Ghent in 1676. A pupil of Robert van Audenaerde.

RUBENS pinx. The Conversion of St. Bavo.

The picture is in the Cathedral of St. Bavo at Ghent. Smith, Cat. rais. No. 105.

PIOTTI-PIROLA, CATARINA, engraver, born at Milan in 1800. She was a pupil of Longhi, at the Brera.

LUINI pinx. Adoration of the Infant Christ by Mary and Joseph, and two Angels making music.

The picture is in the collection of Gozzi in Milan. Engraved in 1827.

GUERCINO pinx. Semiramis, at her Toilet, receives the Message of the Revolt.

"Semiramide risposdò al nunzio : La mia bellezza calmera la sedizione."

Engraved in 1830.

Artist's proof before any letters ; with the white stamp of the engraver's initials.

GUERCINI pinx. The same.

Artist's proof unfinished, the figure of Semiramis and her attendant only in outline.

PIRANESI, GIAMBATTISTA, architect, designer and engraver, born at Rome in 1707, where he died in 1778. His son Francesco, who was born at Rome in 1756, and died in 1810, assisted him in the following engravings :—

View of the interior of Santa Maria degli Angeli, in the Baths of Diocletian.

View of the Column of Antonine.

View of the Column of Trajan.

View of the Colosseum, exterior.

View of the Colosseum, interior.

View of Santa Maria Maggiore.

View of the Arch of Constantine.

View of Acqua Felice.

View of the Palazzo dell' Academia Francese.

PITAU, NICOLAS, engraver, born at Antwerp in 1633, came early to Paris, where he died in 1676, a follower of François de Poilly.

SIMON FRANÇOIS OF TOURS pinx. The Christ Child seated on the Globe in Clouds, adored by Angels.

1st state, with the engraver's address.

The 2d has Mariette's address.

CLAUDE LE FÈVRE pinx. P. Alexandre Pitau (Petavius), Senator in Parliament.

PITTERI, GIOVANNI MARCO, designer and engraver, born at Venice in 1703, where he died in 1786. A pupil of Giuseppe Baroni and Antonio Faldoni. His style of engraving was, however, his own; he engraved by single strokes without crossing them; they run from top to bottom, and the shadows for the design are produced by strengthening the line. (Claude Mellan, who engraved some pieces with single lines, did not draw them in such a mechanical way.)

ELSHEIMER pinx. Flight into Egypt.

A night piece. In 8vo.

SPAGNOLETTO pinx. St. Peter delivered from Prison.

The picture is in the Dresden Gallery. Engraved for the Rec. d'est. de la Gal. de Dresde, II. No. 34.

C. F. RUSCA pinx. P. Count Schulenburg.

PIAZETTA pinx. P. Goldoni.

A head, life size.

PIZZI, LUIGI, designer and engraver, seems to be a pupil or follower of R. Morghen, at least in the second of the two pieces here mentioned, which is worthy of that master; in the first, seventeen years earlier, he is not so clear and pure in the lines.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Transfiguration of our Saviour.

See Passavant, II. under 244. Differing somewhat in the composition as well as in drawing and expression from the picture in the Vatican. Christ is represented in a glory of elliptical form, and the two deacons on Mount Tabor are absent.

"Rafaele Sanzio d' Urbino dipinse in Oglio a chiaroscuro. Luigi Pizzi Veronese disegnò dall' originale ed incise in Roma l' anno 1795." No further inscription, and the margin full of trial marks of the graver.

There is no account as to where the original of this engraving is, nor do I find this plate mentioned. The composition corresponds with that of the engraving of Marc-Antonio's school, Bartsch, xv. p. 187, No. 6, and is the same with the cartoon in black chalk (Passavant, II. p. 362, m.), purchased by Pope Clement IX. (Albani), and seen in the Albani palace, Rome, as late as 1826. This cartoon was engraved by Francesco Pozzi in 1779.* Bettelini (see our catalogue under BETTELINI) afterwards retouched or re-engraved this plate, and then put his own name on it; "Rafaele Sanzio d' Urbino inv. Stefano Tofanelli dres. Pietro Bettelini perf[ettò]. Transfigurazione del Signore, curata dal cartone del famoso quadro di Raffaele ove si scorgono le mutazione fatte dall' autore nell' esecuzione del quadro. — A William Hamilton Nisbet, Esq., grand' amatore delle belle arti. — In Roma presso il d° de Sanctio — Francesco de Sanctis D. D." See also Passavant, II. p. 363, n. and Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, xiv. pp. 404, 405, and p. 473, No. 198.

PAOLO VERONESE pinx. The Feast at the House of Simon.

The picture is in the Brera Gallery in Milan. Christ as a pilgrim with a scallop-shell on his cape; sitting between a pope and a cardinal; — three colonnades, the middle arched. Paolo Veronese dipinse a olio in tela a Monte Borio di Vicenza. Il quadro è lungo piedi di Parigi 27, poll. 3, — alto 14, poll. 10. Trovasi ora nella R. Pinacoteca in Milano 1811. — Luigi Pizzi Veronese, Professore nella Università di Padova, disegnò dall' originale et incise 1808. A coat of arms, and the inscription, A sua Altezza Imperiale il Principe Eugenio Napoleone di Francia, Arcicancelliere di state dell' Impero Francese, Vice Re d' Italia e Principe di Venezia. Largest folio, oblong.

PLANER, GUSTAV, an engraver of the present day at Dresden.

"GIOVANNI BELLINI pinx." Salvator Mundi.

The picture, in the Dresden Gallery, is now attributed to Cima da Conegliano.

"GIOVANNI BELLINI pinx." The same.

Artist's proof, before any letters and with the croquis of a helmeted head in the left margin.

In the Dresden Gallery. See Coxe, p. 125.

Artist's proof before any letters. With a dedication to Professor A. Krüger, in pencil, by the engraver.

* N. B. There is another engraving of the Transfiguration by Francesco Pozzi with the same date, representing the composition of Raphael's picture in the Vatican, "Raffael da Urbino inv. e dip. Pietro Paolo Panci dis. Francesco Pozzi inc. Roma 1779. Et evigilantes viderunt maiestatem ejus. S. Luc. Cap. IX. v. 32. Ext. venal. apud Stephanus [sic] Coppa." An inferior print. See Pozzi.

POILLY, FRANÇOIS DE, designer and engraver, born at Abbeville in 1622, died at Paris in 1693. A pupil of Daret and follower of C. Bloemaert.

LE BRUN pinx. The Visitation: "Fecit mihi magna qui potens est. Lucae 1."

A piece in oval.

GUIDO RENI pinx. The Adoration of the Shepherds.

The picture is in the Imperial Gallery of St. Petersburg; it was formerly in the Houghton Gallery. The picture in the Grosvenor Gallery, mentioned by Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 170, corresponds also with this engraving.

2d state, with the two angels above, and the shaded border. With the engraver's own address.

In the 1st state the place of the two angels is left white, and the octagon border is only in outline, not shaded. See Paignon-Dijonval, No. 1114, also Valois, No. 214; Alibert, No. 288, and Debois, No. 907.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Virgin praying.

Bust, nearly life size, from the Holy Family di Casa Pio in Naples, also called La Bénédiction; Passavant, II. 99.

With the engraver's address.

GUIDO RENI pinx. The Flight into Egypt.

The picture was in the old Royal French collection, but it is not now in the Louvre. See Waagen, Kunstwerke und Künstler in Paris, p. 69 and p. 777.

2d state, with the coat of arms of Colbert, but before address.

ANN. CARACCI pinx. The Virgin and Child adored by two Angels.

See Hecquet, 17; Brandes, I. p. 57.

From Otto's collection, II. No. 1131.

SÉBASTIEN BOURDON pinx. Holy Family.

Proof, before any letters.

With the signature of P. Mariette.

LE BRUN pinx. St. John at Patmos.

The picture is in the Gallery of Munich; Dillis's Catalogue, No. 424.

P. MIGNARD pinx. St. Carlo Borromeo administering the Communion to the Plague-stricken.

From the now ruined picture at Rome.

3d state; the saint is represented as using his right hand, and the address is added, "A Paris chez Jean, rue de Beauvais, No. 10."

POILLY, NICOLAS DE, designer and engraver, born at Abbeville in 1626, died at Paris in 1696. A pupil of his brother François.

BEAUBRUN pinx.  Marie Thérèse, Infante d'Espagne, Reine de France. (Queen of Louis XIV.)

Bust, life size.

2d state, with the lace kerchief.

POLLAJUOLO, ANTONIO DEL, sculptor, painter, goldsmith, niellist, and engraver, born at Florence in 1426, where he lived till 1484, when Pope Sixtus called him to Rome, where he died in 1498. He was a pupil of the celebrated goldsmith Bartoluccio Ghiberti, whose still more famous son Lorenzo he assisted in his gates of the Battisterio in Florence. Bartsch, XIII.

Hercules combating the Giants.

B. 3.

Purchased for 15 guineas.

POLLET, a French engraver of the present day.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Violin-player.

The picture is in the Sciarra palace in Rome.

See Passavant, II. 238.

POMAREDE, SILVESTRO, engraver, who worked in Rome and Florence about 1742–1768.

TITIAN pinx. The Triumphs, after Petrarch.

4 plates engraved 1748–50 for Giovanni Michilli, who owned the originals.

The Triumph of Time. — The Triumph of Fame. — The Triumph of Death. — The Triumph of the Christian Religion.

PONTIUS, or DUPONT, PAULUS, designer and engraver, born at Antwerp in 1596. He was a pupil of Vorsterman, but is, with the latter and the two Bolswerts, to be considered as a scholar of Rubens.

TITIAN pinx. The Entombment.

2d state, figures entire.

In the 1st state the figures extend to the knees. — The original, in which they are three fourths size, is in the Vienna Gallery.

RAPHAEL pinx.  Raphael.

See Passavant, II. 86, p. 124, and p. 622, No. 6, also III. p. 66 and p. 111.

The original of this engraving was purchased at Venice in 1807 by Prince A. Czartoryski, after whose death Mr. Samuel Woodburn bought it at St. Petersburg, and brought it to London in 1850. The French translation of Passavant's Raphael, however, has a modern copy by F. Girard of this engraving as frontispiece to Vol. I., in the inscription of which it is said to be "from the collection of Prince A. Czartoryski in Paris." From this it would appear that the family had bought the picture back.

An old copy is in the collection of the Countess Warwick at Gatton Park; Waagen, Galleries, etc., or Treasures, iv. p. 344.

2d state, with Meyssens's address.

RUBENS pinx. The Adoration of the Shepherds.

One of the shepherds has a bagpipe stuck in his girdle. An upright piece, arched: "Ecce Virgo concipiet et pariet Filium. Isaiae 7. — G. Hendricx exc." The picture is in the Munich Gallery. Smith, Cat. rais. 170; Basan, 10.

1st address; the paper appears rather late.

RUBENS pinx. The Massacre of the Innocents.

The picture is in the Munich Gallery. Smith, Cat. rais. 218; Basan, 32. Engraved on two sheets.

1st state, before any address.

From the collection and with the signature of P. Mariette. Purchased for £ 4.

The 2d state has Blooteling's address.

RUBENS pinx. The Presentation in the Temple.

Painted on the inside of one of the doors that cover the picture of the Deposition from the Cross in the Cathedral of Antwerp. Smith, Cat. rais. 5; Basan, 34.

1st state, before any address.

Purchased for £ 4.

The 2d state has the 1st address, of G. Huberti; — the 3d state, the 2d address, of Corn. van Merlen.

RUBENS pinx. Christ bearing the Cross.

Painted for the Abbey Church of Affleghem; now in the Museum at Brussels. The engraving omits a female with an infant on the left, and the two thieves guarded by two soldiers in the lower part of the picture; two children are substituted in their place. Smith, Cat. rais. 159; Basan, No. 75.

1st state, before address.

RUBENS pinx. Le Christ au Capucin.

The dead Christ wept over by his friends, two angels and a capuchin (St. Francis). Painted for the Church of the Capuchins, to whom it was presented by the Duke of Aremberg. Now in the Museum at Brussels. Smith, Cat. rais. 139; Basan, No. 101.

Without any address.

RUBENS pinx. The Virgin and Child enthroned before a green bower.

With St. Bonaventura in adoration, St. Jerome, St. George, St. Magdalen, and two other holy women. Altar-piece in the chapel of the tomb of Rubens, where it was placed by his widow, in the Church of St. Jacques at Antwerp. Smith, Cat. rais. 15; Basan, 17.

1st state, with Gillis Hendricx's address.

There are proofs before the inscription Laudate Dominum in Sanctis Ejus. Psalm. 150, and before Tabula epitaphii, etc., with merely the names of the artists.

RUBENS pinx. St. Roch interceding for the Sick with the Plague.

The picture is in the Church of St. Roch at Alast. Smith, Cat. rais. 121; Basan, 44.

Old impression on firm, thin paper, without address; watermark, Fleur-de-Lis in a Crowned Shield.

RUBENS pinx. Thomyris causing the Head of Cyrus to be immersed in Blood.

The picture was in the Orleans Gallery, and is now in the collection of the Earl of Darnley at Cobham. Waagen, Treasures, III. p. 23. A painting of the same subject, but treated differently, is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 433; Smith, Cat. rais. 745; Basan, 22.

1st state, before address.

Proofs are before the letters : Satia te sanguine quem semper sitisti. The 2d state is with the address of Van Merlen; the 3d has Huberti's address.

RUBENS pinx. P. After Velazquez. Gaspar Gusman Count Olivares, Duke of St. Lucar.

A bust in an oval, supported by two genii, holding, the one a Medusa's head, the other a club and lion's skin of Hercules, surrounded by emblems and ornaments. Engraved from a copy in grisaille by Rubens, made for the purpose and with additional ornaments, which is now in the collection of the Duke of Hamilton. Smith, Cat. rais., "Rubens," 1151; Stirling, Velazquez, p. 249.

1st impression, with the short beard, reaching only to the shirt-collar.

Harrach, No. 1843, 100 fr.

In the 2d state the beard reaches to the six parallel buttons of the cuirass. See Bartsch's Anleitung, II. p. 215.

RUBENS pinx. P. Philip IV. of Spain.

Engraved from the picture in the Munich Gallery, with the omission of the hands. Michiels, No. 994; Basan, No. 16.

1st state, before address.

The 2d state has Hendricx's address, and the mustache was also increased.

RUBENS pinx. ¶. Elizabeth of Bourbon, Queen of Philip IV. (daughter of Henry IV.). B. 17.

Engraved from the picture in the Munich Gallery, with the omission of the hands. Michiels, No. 841; Smith, Cat. rais. 230.

1st state, before address.

Hendricx's address designates the 2d state.

RUBENS pinx. ¶. Rubens.

He is represented with hat and cloak; the top of the plate is arched. (Another portrait of Rubens, engraved by Pontius after a painting by Van Dyck, is in the Iconographia.) The original of this plate is in Windsor Castle, from the collection of Charles I. Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 436; Smith, Cat. rais. 558; Basan, No. 48.

P. Pontius sc. et exc. 1630.

A proof before any letters, Marshall, No. 1565, £ 40 10 s.

LIEVENS pinx. Daniel Seghers, e Societate Jesu.

Bartsch, "Rembrandt," II. Appendix, p. 176, No. 96.

1st state, before the name of the engraver.

VAN DYCK pinx. The Virgin, looking on high, with the Child in her Arms, which is standing.

With two lines of inscription, "Virgo tuum stringens . . . crede Deum," four verses in two columns, then an open space for the dedication, below the artists' names; before any address.

The 2d state has a dedication to Antoni Triest; the 3d has the address of Bonenfant. Nagler, XI. p. 504, No. 100.

The picture is in the collection of Lord Francis Leveson Gower at Bridge-water House. There is another in the Marlborough collection at Blenheim, and still another in the Dulwich Gallery; there was also one in the Gallery of Salzdahlum, and one in the collection of Count de Vence, which latter is engraved by Salvador Carmona. Smith, Cat. rais. 263.

VAN DYCK pinx. The Coronation of St. Rosalia.

The Virgin and Child with St. Peter and St. Paul, the Infant Saviour crowning St. Rosalia with a chaplet of roses.

Painted for the hall of the congregation of Jesuits at Antwerp. It is now in the Gallery of Vienna. Smith, Cat. rais. 2; Waagen, Handbook, II. p. 286.

Without any address.

VAN DYCK pinx. ¶. Carignan. Francis Thomas of Savoy, Prince of Carignan.

The larger plate; figure three fourths length. He wears a richly embroidered collar and cuffs, and stands at a table. The picture is in the Berlin Gallery; Waagen's Verzeichniss, No. 782. (It was in 1840 also engraved by Caspar.) A similar picture, with slight deviation, is in the collection at Windsor Castle. Smith, Cat. rais. 213; Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 427.

The plate is larger than those of Van Dyck's Iconographia, in which occurs another portrait of this Prince. See below.

1st state; Van der Stock's name stands under the dedication on the plate, where afterwards G. Hendricx's address was placed.

The 2d state has Gillis Hendrix excudit Antu.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Orange, Frederic Henry, Prince of, Count of Nassau.

A larger plate than those of the Iconographia. The picture is in the Royal Gallery of the Hague. R. Weigel's Kunst.-Catalog, No. 491; Smith, Cat. rais. 711. A grisaille for the engraving in the collection of the Duke of Buccleugh.

PORPORATI, CARLO ANTONIO, designer and engraver, born at Turin in 1741, died there in 1816. A pupil of Wille, Chevillet, and Beauvarlet.

VAN DER WERFF pinx. Adam and Eve Weeping over Abel.

The picture is in the Gallery of Turin.

With the engraver's own address.

There are impressions before all letters.

CORREGGIO pinx. Madonna with the Rabbit, "La Zingarella." *

So called on account of the Egyptian head-dress. See Coxe, p. 40.

The Virgin resting with the Child in the desert under a palm-tree, with angels hovering over her. Sometimes called "Rest in Egypt," and also, very appropriately, "Hagar and Ishmael." The original is in the Gallery of Naples, and there are numerous repetitions, copies, and imitations. There is a very pleasing imitation in the Dresden Gallery, there ascribed to Baroccio, and called "Hagar and Ishmael"; it is engraved by G. Garavaglia.

Impression with letters.

Longhi observes, in his Calcografia, that he has met only with proofs of this plate; such are before any letters, and seem to be more frequent than the prints with letters.

CORREGGIO pinx. The Bath of Leda. †

The original picture, of which this engraving represents but a part, is in the Gallery of Berlin. The entire composition is engraved by Duchange. See DUCHANGE.

Proof before letters, with only the names of the artists and the coat of arms. (Like Debois, No. 924.)

* Ferrario enumerates this plate twice, pp. 271 and 272, once as "Madonna del Caniglio," and then again as "Zingarella."

† In Bryan's Dictionary, edition of 1849, this plate is mentioned three times under Porporati: first as Jupiter and Leda, and then again, in Stanley's addition to the article, once as Leda and the Swan, and then as Leda bathing. In the same place, the preceding plate is also enumerated twice, once as "Madonna with the Rabbit," and again as "Zingarella."

Of the prints with letters, the first have the engraver's address; the second the address of Tessari.

ANGELICA KAUFFMAN pinx. "Garde à vous." A Cupid.

Proof with one line of inscription and coat of arms, before dedication.

At Goddard's sale, No. 375, occurred a "fine proof," which was bought by Mr. Colnaghi for £ 8.

CARLE VANLOO pinx. Preparing for Bed. "Le Coucher."

Impression of the 2d state, with Buldet's address.

The 1st impressions are before this address.

Proofs are before any letters; there occur counterfeit proofs, made by covering the inscription of the plate, while under the press.

GREUZE pinx. The Little Girl with a Dog.

Smith, Cat. rais., "Greuze," 21. The picture, owned by Richard Forster, Esq., was formerly in the collection of the Duc de Choiseul.

With the address, "chés J. B. Greuze Peintre du Roi rue Thibautodé, la première Porte cochère à droite en entrant par l'Arche Marion."

Proof before letters, Thorel, No. 925, 205 fr.; George Smith, No. 1059, £ 11.

POSSELWHITE, an English engraver of the present day.

C. R. LESLIE pinx. Griselda.

Engraved in the modern English mixed mezzotinto manner.

POUSSIN, GASPAR, landscape painter and etcher, whose real name was DUGHET, but he adopted the name of his brother-in-law and teacher Nicolas Poussin. He was born at Rome in 1613, and died there in 1675. Robert-Dumesnil, 1.

Rocky Landscape with Water in the foreground, three Trees and two Men. R.-D. 3.

POZZI, FRANCESCO, engraver, born in Rome in 1750, died there in 1805. A pupil of his relation Rocco Pozzi.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Transfiguration.

See Passavant, II. 244. The picture is in the Gallery of the Vatican. Engraved in 1779.

This engraving is not to be confounded with one by the same artist and of the same year, from a cartoon in black chalk, made after Raphael's first design, without the two deacons on the mount. See under PIZZI.

PRADIER, CHARLES SIMON, designer and engraver, born at Geneva about 1785, where he died in 1847. He was a pupil of Desnoyers and worked at Paris.

RAPHAEL pinx. La Vierge aux Ruines.

See Passavant, II. 266. Engraved after a picture owned by the Marquis de Marialva, probably the same which is now in the collection of the Marchese Malaspina di Sannazaro in Pavia, of which the original, attributed to Raphael, was in the sacristy of the Escorial. Compare Passavant, Christliche Kunst in Spanien, p. 161, note.

ST. OURS pinx. Þ. H. B. de Saussure.

PREISLER, JOHANN MARTIN, designer and engraver, born at Nuremberg in 1715, died at Copenhagen in 1794. A pupil of his father Johann Daniel and his brother Georg Martin.

CHRISTOPH AMBERGER pinx. Herodias's Daughter receives from the Executioner the Head of St. John the Baptist.

The picture is in the Vienna Gallery. Engraved in 4to, upright, for the Theatrum Artis pictoriæ, etc., 4 vols., each containing 40 plates, Vindobonæ, 1728-33. Compare Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, under "Prenner."

RAPHAEL pinx. St. Margaret.

The picture is in the Vienna Gallery; it was formerly in the collection of the Archduke Leopold William, Governor of the Spanish Netherlands, who left it by will to the Emperor Leopold I. It was previously engraved, in 1660, by John Troyen, for the "Teniers" Gallery, Theatrum Artis pictoriæ, Bruxellæ, 1669. For the different editions of the Teniers Gallery, see under STEEN. Engraved in 1733 for Prenner's Theatrum Artis pictoriæ. Passavant, II. 234, B. p. 317.

PREVOST, ZACHARIAS, engraver in line and mezzotinto with aqua-fortis, and in the aquatinta manner, born at Paris in 1797.

PAOLO VERONESE pinx. The Marriage Feast at Cana.

With the Portraits of Francis I., Soliman I., Vittoria Colonna, Charles V., and of Titian and Paolo himself.*

Formerly in the refectory of San Giorgio Maggiore at Venice. The great picture is now in the Gallery of the Louvre; Villot, No. 103. Line engraving.

Open letters. On India paper.

LÉOP. ROBERT pinx. Les Pêcheurs de l'Adriatique.

Etching and aquatinta, etc., the modern mixed style. The letters of the inscription are formed of three lines. Not on India paper.

PRIMAVESI, JOHANN GEORG, landscape painter and etcher, born at Heidelberg in 1776.

JAC. RUYSDAEL pinx. The Cemetery.

In the Dresden Gallery. Goethe, Ruysdael als Dichter, in his Sämmtl. Werke, edit. in 30 vols., 1851, Vol. xxv. p. 153. Hübner, catalogue of the Dresden Gallery, No. 1366; Waagen, Handbook, p. 441. — Smith, Cat. rais. 60, mentions that a duplicate which was imported into England about 1815, for £800, is in the collection of Mr. Mackintosh. Engraved in 1808.

Proof before letters.

PYE, JOHN, the elder, engraver in London, was born about 1745.

CLAUDE LORRAIN pinx. Hagar directed by the Angel to the Well.

"Claude Lorraine pinxt. John Pye sculpsit. Hagar directed by the Angel to the Well. Engraved from an Original Painting, by Claude Lorraine, in the possession of Wm. Baillie, Esq. To whom this Plate is dedicated by his Obliged humble Servant J. Pye. Published according to Act

ANT. PESNE pinx. The Pigeon-Girl.

The picture is in the Dresden Gallery. Engraved for the Rec. d'est. de la Gal. de Dresde, III. No. 17.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. "Ryckaert, David, painter."

It seems that this name is now generally adopted for that beautiful portrait in the Dresden Gallery, I do not know if upon sufficient authority. David Ryckaert was born in 1615, and died in 1677. Van Dyck was born in 1599; he went to England in 1632, and died in 1641. The portrait represents a man of about 35 or 40 years of age, but if Van Dyck painted it as the likeness of David, it ought to be from 10 to 15 years younger. Moreover, if it was the portrait of that renowned painter, it probably would not be wanting in his Iconographia. There is no doubt that the picture is by Van Dyck, and it is probable that the writer of the Catalogue of the Dresden Gallery, after the death of the Director Matthäi, first called it the portrait of the painter Ryckaert, induced by some remote resemblance in the costume of the person, in his beard and fur cap, to the portrait of Martin Ryckaert, the one-armed painter, in the collection of the Earl of Warwick (Waagen, Treasures, III. p. 214, where, however, it is called David Ryckaert by mistake, for the picture there is Martin Ryckaert, and Waagen's description — "marked features," etc. — is that of Martin), engraved by Neeffs, for the Iconographia. As the Dresden picture, however, shows two arms, the name of Martin Ryckaert could not be retained; and it was called David, the more readily as there is an elder David, the father of our artist, of whom nothing further is known.*

* There seems to have been a time when names were given to pictures in Dresden with more readiness than criticism, as, for instance, to Van Dyck's portrait of Chevalier Taic, which is still called in the official catalogue the portrait of the painter Engelbrecht (see the present catalogue, art. GALLE); and Holbein's portrait of Morett, the goldsmith, which, till recently, passed for a painting of Leonardo da Vinci, and as representing the Duke Sforza of Milan, etc.

Matthäi, in his official catalogue of the Dresden Gallery, No. 204, describes the picture, without naming the subject of the portrait. The next official catalogue, under No. 405, says: "Portrait of the painter David Ryckaert, sitting in an easy-chair." Hübner, in his official catalogue, No. 936, says merely, "Portrait of the painter David Ryckaert."

Engraved for the Rec. d'est. de la Gal. de Dresde, III. No. 15, under the name, "Transylvain." Smith, Cat. rais. No. 192, describes the picture in the Dresden Gallery, without mentioning the name of the person represented in the portrait. Passavant, Christliche Kunst in Spanien, p. 175, mentions in the Madrid Gallery (Madrado, Catálogo, No. 1233) "the exquisite portrait of the artist David Ryckaert, in his loose fur robe." Waagen, also, Galleries, etc., or Treasures, IV. p. 518, describes in the collection of the Earl of Hardwicke at Wimpole, Cambridgeshire, a repetition of this picture as a portrait of "the painter David Ryckaert in a fur cap and furred dress, and red waistcoat. Bust picture on wood. Of the frequent repetitions of this portrait, the best, which is to the knees, is in the Dresden Gallery." How many of these repetitions are from the picture in Dresden, or perhaps from that in the collection of the Earl of Warwick, I cannot judge.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. "Cromwell."

A man in armor with a baton in his hand, and a scarf round his other arm; miscalled "Portrait of Cromwell."

Engraved for Rec. d'est. de la Gal. de Dresde, III. No. 16, "Buste d'un général, connu comme le portrait de Cromwell."

VAN DYCK pinx. P. The same.

Proof before any letters, with only the coat of arms of Saxony.

RAVENET, SIMON FRANÇOIS, the father, engraver, born at Paris in 1721 (according to Basan); died at London in 1774. A pupil of Le Bas.

SALVATOR ROSA pinx. The Prodigal Son.

The picture is in the Imperial Gallery at St. Petersburg. Engraved for the Houghton Gallery.

1st state, with the year 1767.

The 2d state has the date 1781.

PAOLO VERONESE pinx. Venus and Adonis.

Engraved for the Cabinet Crozat, while in the collection of M. Dupille.

TITIAN pinx. The Three Stages of Life.

The picture is in the Bridgewater Gallery. In the Borghese Gallery is a fine copy by Sassoferrato. Engraved, while in the Orleans Gallery, for the Cabinet Crozat. Waagen, Treasures, Orleans Gallery, II. p. 496; Bridgewater Gallery, ibid. II. p. 30, where he justly remarks, that the picture reminds one rather of Giorgione.

LUCA GIORDANO pinx. The Death of Seneca.

The picture is in the Marlborough collection at Blenheim palace. Waagen, Treasures, III. p. 131.

RAVENET, SIMON FRANÇOIS, the son, born at London about the year 1775. A pupil of the preceding and of F. Boucher.

CORREGGIO pinx. Martyrdom of Saint Placidus and Saint Constantia.

After the fresco in San Giovanni in Parma. Coxe, p. 76.

REMBRANDT VAN RYN, painter and etcher, born near Leyden in 1608, died at Amsterdam in 1669. He was instructed by Jacob Isaaksen van Swanenburg, P. Lastman, J. Pinas, and Joris van Schooten. The full name of this remarkable artist was Harmens Rembrandt Gerritszen; he was called van Ryn from the canal of the Rhine, on which was his father's mill, where the painter was born. The baptismal name Paul, which is frequently given to him by writers, appears not to have belonged to him. Bartsch, Catalogue raisonné, 2 vols., Vienna, 1797; Claussin, Catalogue raisonné, 2 vols., Paris, 1824; [T. Wilson], A Descriptive Catalogue of the Prints of Rembrandt, by an Amateur, London, 1836. Comp. also Ch. Blanc, L'œuvre complet de Rembrandt, 2 tom., Paris, 1859-61.

* * The Roman numerals denote the state of the plate.

- Ⓟ. Head of Rembrandt, with frizzled hair. B. 8, Cl. 8, III., W. 8, III.
3d state of 5, from the reduced plate, with the additional work of the deep shadows near the nose.

From Ackermann's collection.

In the 4th state the crown of the head was covered with strokes; in the 5th the plate is entirely retouched with the burin, and the hair behind shortened.

- Ⓟ. Bust of Rembrandt, with a fur cap and robe. B. 14, Cl. 14, W. 14.
With the stamp of Ackermann's collection.

- Ⓟ. Rembrandt and his Wife. B. 19, Cl. 19, W. 19.
With the collector's stamp "E. F." and that of Ackermann.

- Ⓟ. Rembrandt, bust in an oval. B. 23, III., Cl. 23, III., W. 23, III.
In the 1st state, of which there exist but four impressions, the figure extends to the knees; in the 2d "there is a kind of square formed by an outline at each extremity of the oval, before the plate was cut to the latter shape." (Wilson.)

With the stamp of Ackermann's collection.

Abraham entertaining the Three Angels. B. 29, Cl. 35, W. 36.

On the back of the print is the name "E. Faesch" written with ink; there is also the stamp "E. F." and that of Ackermann's collection.

Abraham caressing Isaac. "An Old Man with a Boy." (Wilson.)

B. 33, Cl. 38, W. 135.*

Impression of the first state, before any retouch in the shaded parts, and with the strokes of the dry point on the right above very distinct.

Abraham's Sacrifice.

B. 35, Cl. 36, W. 39.

Beautiful impression, with burr.

From Otto's collection.

Jacob lamenting the Death of Joseph.

B. 38, Cl. 42, W. 42.

From Otto's collection.

The Triumph of Mordecai.

B. 40, Cl. 44, W. 44.

Superb impression, full of burr.

The Presentation in the Temple, with the Angel.

B. 51, II., Cl. 55, II., W. 56, II.

Early impression, with the lower margin unburnished.

From Ackermann's collection, but without his stamp.

In the very rare 1st state the plate has a margin at the top beyond the representation, which gives to the impression a white margin; this is cut away in the 2d state.

The Flight into Egypt; a night piece. B. 53, II., Cl. 57, II., W. 58, II.

Wilson's 2d state of 4. The light reflects upon the front of the figure of Joseph, from the knees upwards, likewise on the head, neck, and legs of the ass, and on the right cheek of the Virgin. The bottle and luggage are distinctly seen, not so the landscape.

With the stamp of Ackermann's collection.

The 1st very rare impressions are little more than pure etching, without the additional work of the graver.

Rest in Egypt.

B. 58, Cl. 62, W. 63.

Most delicate and distinct impression.

From the collections of Otto and Ackermann, and with the stamp of the latter.

Return from Egypt; or, "Jesus found by his Parents, in their Journey to Jerusalem." (Wilson.)

B. 60, Cl. 64, W. 64.

With the stamp and from the sale of H. Weber.

Virgin and Child on Clouds.

B. 61, Cl. 65, W. 65.

Early impression, with some smut on the plate.

From Otto's collection.

Christ preaching, called "Le petit La Tombe."

B. 67, II., Cl. 71, II., W. 71, II.

Impression on Japan paper, full of burr. The man with the turban, standing upon the left, has the sleeve of the right arm very dark.

With the initials and from the collection of John Barnard.

Purchased from Messrs. Evans for £12 12s.

In the 1st state, of which only one impression is known, that in the Imperial collection at Paris, the corner of the wall behind the Saviour is not visible, the man with a high turban in the background to the left has his beard only shaded with a single stroke; the man holding his thumb to his mouth, on the same side, has only two buttons on his coat, slightly expressed, instead of five distinct ones ; the child lying down has no top near him. (Compare, however, Guichardot, Catalogue Van den Zande, p. 249.) The 3d and last state is without any burr ; the sleeve of the man on the left, with the turban, is white.

The Tribute Money.

B. 68, III., Cl. 72, III., W. 72, III.

The 1st extremely rare state is clearer than the others, especially the head of the Rabbi sitting on the right is less wrought upon ;— in the 2d state the head and clothes of the Rabbi are more shaded ;— the 3d and last state is worked over throughout, especially on the little archway in the left corner, over which two figures are sitting.

Christ driving the Money-changers from the Temple.

B. 69, II., Cl. 73, II., W. 73, II.

A state between the 1st and 2d. From Otto's collection, where it was designated, No. 1555, as 1st state. The face and the sole of the foot of the man dragged by the cow, as also the belly of the latter, have not the stronger shading of the 2d state, but the mouth is enlarged by additional strokes, so that the lower lip is not distinctly visible.

Christ and the Samaritan Woman.

B. 71, Cl. 75, W. 75.

The second, upright, plate of the subject.

1st state, with the part of the well near the Saviour's foot clearer, and before the light parts on the left side of the plate were filled by work brought to the edge.

This additional work constitutes the 2d state ;— in the 3d state the plate is retouched, and in the shadows resembles the work of mezzotinto.

Christ healing the Sick, called the Hundred Guilder Piece.

B. 74, I., Cl. 78, II., W. 78, II.

Maberly, 1851, No. 498, "most superb impression of the 2d state of Wilson, £ 71 ; Harrach, 1867, No. 2010, "magnifique épreuve du 1<sup>er</sup> état de Bartsch," 8,000 fr.

Bartsch did not know of the 1st state of Claussin and of Wilson. In this the neck of the ass in the right corner is light, not shaded with diagonal lines ; and in the group on the left, especially the hands of the tall figure, holding a cane behind him, the dog, and in front, near the middle of the foreground, the dry branch, and the cord of the mattress on which is the sick woman, are full of burr. "This impression is most clear, brilliant, and transparent, and of inestimable value : it is to be found in the British Museum, in the Imperial Collection at Paris, in the Museum at Amsterdam, and in the collections of Denon, Lord Aylesford, and Mr. Esdaile." (Wilson.)

In the collection of Sir Charles Price, sold in London, February 21, 1867, there occurred, catalogue No. 395, an "impression of the 1st state (of Claussin and Wilson) before the diagonal lines on the neck of the ass, etc., of which not more than eight impressions are believed to be known, viz., two in the British Museum, — one, owned by Mr. Holford, — one by the Duke of Buccleugh, — the other three in the public collections of Paris, Vienna, and Amsterdam." This impression was on Japan paper, and was purchased by C. J. Palmer, Esq., for £ 1,180.

The same.

B. 74, II., Cl. 78, III., W. 78, III.

With additional work by Rembrandt, before the retouch of Captain Baillie. The additional shading of the background covers the design of the arch. Brilliant impression, full of burr.

The 3d state of Bartsch, 4th of Claussin and of Wilson, is entirely retouched by Captain Baillie, with great care; he had purchased the plate from the engraver Greenwood. — After the Captain had taken a limited number of impressions, he cut the plate into four pieces, of different size, from which the 4th impressions of Bartsch (the 5th of Claussin and Wilson) are made.

Ecce Homo.

B. 77, II., Cl. 82, II., W. 82, II.

The 1st state of the finished plate. The right cheek of the head above that of the man holding the reed is only etched with a single stroke. "Extremely rare." (Claussin and Wilson.)

From the collection of Dr. E. Peart, with his initials on the face of the print, and with H. Weber's on the back.

In the 3d state the cheek is crossed with diagonal lines, to give it more shade. Of this state also the good impressions are rare. Drugulin's sale, London, 1866, No. 1354, early impression in the 3d state, £ 25 10 s. — The 1st state, trial proof, may be regarded as presque unique. The figures of Pilate and the principal persons are merely traced, the rest, though nearly finished, is less wrought upon than in the later impressions. Two impressions in this state, one of them retouched with bistre, are in the British Museum. (Wilson.)

Our Lord crucified between the Two Thieves. "The Three Crosses."

B. 78, III., Cl. 81, III., W. 81, III.

With the stamp of Ackermann's collection.

In the 1st state, the head of the afflicted man, whom they are leading toward the left, is merely in outline. Without name or date. "Extremely rare." — In the 2d state the name and date are added; the head of the old man is finished ; and there is some additional work and shading.

 "Very rare."

The Deposition from the Cross. B. 81, II., Cl. 83, II., W. 84, II.

In the 1st state, which is very rare, the legs of the men below, supporting the body of Christ, are shaded with only a single stroke ; — in the 2d state, the legs of these men are shaded with cross strokes ; — in the 3d state, the address of Hendricus Ulenburgensis is added ; — the late 4th state has Danckertsz's address.

Debois, No. 953, 451 fr. ; and No. 954, 465 fr. ; both 2d state.

The Descent from the Cross. B. 82, Cl. 86, W. 87.

The Good Samaritan. B. 90, III., Cl. 94, IV., W. 95, IV.

The composition is different from that of the picture in the Louvre, which was engraved by Longhi.

Good impression of the last state. With name and date in the lower margin.

In the 1st state, the tail of the horse is white and the wall on the landing of the steps is not shaded. The plate is larger on the left. "Extremely rare." Debois, No. 957, 1,800 fr.

In the 2d state the horse's tail is shaded, but not the wall. "It is more scarce than the first."

In the 3d, both the horse's tail and the wall are shaded ; — in the 4th, the name and date are added.

The Return of the Prodigal Son. B. 91, Cl. 95, W. 96.

Brilliant impression, with some burr, and with smut of the plate.

Before the retouch and with the white places on the right and on the top.

With H. Weber's stamp.

The same.

B. 136, Cl. 136, II., W. 137, II.

With Watelet's retouch; the ground especially is darker and the white spots filled in.

The Blind Fiddler, led by his Dog.

B. 138, I., Cl. 137, I., W. 138, II.

2d state, before the retouch with the burin.

With the stamp of Ackermann's collection.

In the 1st state, the figure of the fiddler is less wrought upon in the neck and drapery; — the 3d is retouched with the burin, and highly finished.

A Pole, with Cane and Sword.

B. 141, II., Cl. 140, II., W. 141, IV.

From Weber's sale, with the stamp of his initials.

Bartsch and Claussin describe two states: the 1st very slightly etched, and "rare"; — the 2d more worked upon, especially in the shadows; the stick which in the 1st was formed of two lines is now shaded. — Wilson describes four states: the 1st is slightly etched, the sabre belt is scarcely defined where the sword passes through; — in the 2d the belt is more defined, the plate is irregular, and the edges dirty; — the 3d is worked upon throughout, and the contour of the stick defined on one side by a double line, which in the preceding state is single; and the plate is cut and cleaned; — the 4th is retouched throughout with the burin, and the shadows rendered black and disagreeable.

The Scholar meditating by his Lamp.

B. 148, III., Cl. 145, III., W. 146, III.

From Otto's collection.

The 1st state is "very scarce"; the light of the lamp is large, and all the parts are somewhat indistinct, as in a haze; — in the 2d the rays of the lamp are less diffused, and the subject is better defined and clearer ; — in the 3d the cap of the man is larger, and the whole plate of a crude blackness ; — in the 4th the rays of the lamp are again more diffused, as in the 1st state, and the curtain is more worked upon, so that the folds are hardly to be seen.

The Persian.

B. 152, Cl. 149, II., W. 150, II.

Very rich and beautiful impression of the finished plate, with burr, and some smut of the plate.

From Otto's collection.

Claussin's and Wilson's 1st state is  $\frac{1}{16}$  of an inch larger on the right, and it is less worked upon, having no richness of effect. "Extremely rare."

A Beggar Couple by a Mound. B. 165, a state between the 3d and 4th ; Cl. 162, between the 3d and 4th ; W. 162, between the 3d and 4th.

According to plate I. fig. 6 of Bartsch, Catalogue raisonné de l'œuvre de Rembrandt ; and pl. IX. fig. 110 of Bartsch, Anleitung zur Kupferstichkunde, the altered form of the mound, or rock, would show it to be of the 4th state, but it is before the cheek of the woman was covered with shadows which are harsh and indistinct. Though from the reduced plate, after Rembrandt's monogram was cut off, the impression is delicate and harmonious.

With the stamp of Ackermann's collection, from which it was obtained at the sale in Leipzig in 1853, under No. 689 as the 3d state, and with the name of Dr. Petzold of Vienna on the back, in whose collection it occurred in that part which was sold in Dresden in 1848, No. 2339, also as 3d state ; and also with Robert-Dumesnil's mark (the letters R. D. in a small oval, printed in white) on the face of the print ; see p. 15 of that part of his catalogue which was issued in 1835.

The Beggar Family at the Door of a House.

B. 176, Cl. 173, W. 173, II.

With the name and date, but a very curious impression in red.

From H. Weber's sale, No. 285.

Bartsch and Claussin mention that there are impressions, "extremely rare," before the name of Rembrandt and the date ; such constitute Wilson's 1st state.

A Woman sitting before a Stove.

B. 197, IV., Cl. 194, IV., W. 194, V.

The woman is without a cap, and there is a key (damper) in the pipe of the stove.

From Weber's sale, No. 311.

Woman preparing to dress after bathing.

B. 199, II., Cl. 196, II., W. 196, II.

Though in the 2d state, with the flat cap, the impression is full of burr. On Japan paper.

In the 1st state the cap is high.

Landscape with a Sportsman. B. 211, I., Cl. 208, I., — W. 208, who reverses the order of the two states.

Before the house and barn beyond the two figures on the eminence to the left. Impression with some burr and smut of the plate.

From Ackermann's collection, No. 697.

The Three Trees. Landscape. B. 212, Cl. 209, W. 209.

Charming and brilliant impression, with burr in the sky, but with an artificial margin.

With the stamp and from the collection of Ackermann.

A Village near the Highroad. "Le paysage aux Trois Chaumières."

B. 217, I. (of two states), Cl. 214, I. (of three states), W. 214, II. (of four states).

Arched plate.

A most superb impression, full of burr.

With John Barnard's initials and William Esdaile's on the back, and the latter's also twice on the face of the print.

Purchased for £ 36.

Wilson says: "First impression. The great tree on the right has very little foliage. This impression, which is presque unique, is in the Cambridge [England] collection.

"Second impression. The shading before the door of the first cottage is only with a single stroke, and the roof of the nearest cottage is not so much shaded as in the next impression. In every part of the road are spaces quite white: the great tree has more foliage, but the dry point with which it is added is in heavy patches, as it is in some remoter parts of the subjects over the houses. It is extremely rare.

"Third impression. The road is lightly shaded with dry point in all those parts which in the preceding impression are clear; the patches are softened, but the door of the cottage is still only shaded with the single stroke.

"Fourth impression. The door of the first cottage is shaded with cross strokes; the roof of the third also is more shaded.

"All the impressions, even those in the fourth state, when fine, are full of burr."

Most delicate and rich impression, full of burr, and of perfect freshness.

Purchased from Messrs. Evans for £ 26.

- p. Uytenbogaert. "The Gold-weigher." B. 281, II., Cl. 278, II., W. 283, II.

1st state with the finished face of the portrait. Before the money in the cask. Impression of "the greatest brilliancy," full of burr, and with smut of the plate in the margin.

Purchased from Messrs. Evans for £ 31 10 s.

The 1st state of the plate, extremely rare, has the face blank, except two or three strokes for the features. — The 3d is entirely retouched, and the print appears heavy and muddy; most impressions are on thick Japan paper.

- p. Coppenol. B. 283, II., Cl. 280, III., W. 285, III.

The large portrait.

Before the darker shading of the background, and before the darker shading of the sleeves and the forepart of the garment in general; before the additional folds in the curtain. Superb impression, very rich.

Purchased from Messrs. Evans for £ 31 10 s.

Bartsch describes three states of the plate, as follows :—

The 1st, of the greatest rarity; the ground is white, except that a column reaching to the top of the plate on the left is partly shaded with single strokes; the right sleeve of the coat is little worked upon. — In the 2d the whole ground is covered with hatches; one does not see any column, but a great curtain. The coat is more shaded, especially on the left arm. — In the 3d the plate is cut down, showing only the bust.

Claussin and Wilson describe five states :—

The 1st is almost unique. The background is white, except that a column reaching to the top of the plate on the left is only shaded with single strokes to the middle of its height; the right sleeve is white.

The 2d is of extraordinary rarity. The background is still white, but the sleeve, clear in the preceding impression, in this is shaded with light single lines, and the shadow of the column extends beyond three fourths of its height.

These impressions are found in the Imperial collection at Paris.

The 3d is very scarce. The background is covered with etching; the column is not seen, but a large curtain is introduced, which reaches nearly to the extremity on both sides; and the habit, particularly on the left arm, is more shaded.

The 4th also is scarce. The background is darker, the curtain has more folds, and in general the sleeves and the forepart of the habit are more shadowed.

In the 5th, the plate is reduced, leaving only the bust.

p. The Burgomaster Six.

B. 285, between I. and II., Cl. 282, II., W. 287, II.

Impression on Japan paper, before the inscription in the margin at the left corner: "Jan Six. Æ. 29." With Rembrandt's name in the right corner and the year 1647, the two middle figures of which stand reversed. (The 1st state is without any inscription.) The window-sill, which in the 1st extends half-way up the arm of the Burgomaster, is suppressed. Rare and precious impression, in fine condition.

Purchased from Messrs. Evans for £ 55.

Bartsch describes but two states, and his designations are insufficient. Claussin and Wilson distinguish three states:—

The 1st state is of the very greatest rarity. The name and age of the Burgomaster, and Rembrandt's name and the date are wanting; the window has a stone sill extending half-way up the arm of the portrait. Superb impressions in this state are in the Museum at Amsterdam and in the Imperial collection at Paris.

The 2d is of very great rarity. The window-sill is suppressed, but some traces of it are visible near the arm of the Burgomaster; the name of Rembrandt is added in the margin in the right corner, with the date 1647, the two middle figures reversed. This impression, when in good condition, on Japan paper, is as beautiful in effect as the first.

In the 3d state the name and age of the Burgomaster are added in the margin at the left corner; the middle figures of the date are effaced, and inserted in the right direction. The hat, stick, matting, and various parts of the background are more worked on. Impressions in this state are extremely rare, and as beautiful as those in the 2d state; in these the name and age of the Burgomaster are full of burr. There are also modern, faint impressions, sometimes washed over with India ink.

Oriental Head, the first of the three; also called the portrait of Cats.

B. 286, Cl. 283, W. 288.

Impression with smut of the plate.

From Ackermann's collection.

With Ackermann's stamp.

Old Man with Bald Head.

B. 324, II., Cl. 317, II., W. 322, II.

Good impression of the second state; with some additional shading on the cheek, and the damaging retouch on the neck. With smut of the plate.

With the stamp of Ackermann's collection, in the catalogue of which it was erroneously called 1st state; it was previously in Otto's collection, in which it is correctly recorded as "2d state, with smut of the plate."

St. Catherine, frequently called "The Little Jewish Bride."

B. 342, Cl. 332, W. 338.

Superb impression, with a little burr.

From Otto's collection.

Portrait of an Old Woman sitting with her hands crossed before her, looking to the right.

B. 343, I., Cl. 333, and Appendix p. 37, III., W. 339, III.

B. 348, II., Cl. 338, II., W. 343, II.

The shadow in the background, which in the rare 1st state goes higher than the head, is effaced to the height of the shoulder.

The Head of an Old Woman, called "Head of Rembrandt's Mother."

B. 351, II., Cl. 341, II., W. 346, II.

Extending only to the chin.

The 1st state is extremely rare; the plate is a quarter inch deeper at the bottom, which makes the shape more agreeable, by the subject not ending so abruptly under the chin. (Wilson.)

RICHOMME, JOSEPH THÉODORE, engraver, born at Paris in 1785.
A pupil of Regnault and Coiny.

RAPHAEL pinx. Adam and Eve.

Engraved in 1814 after the fresco painting on the ceiling of the Camera della Segnatura of the Stanze in the Vatican. Passavant, II. 75.

Artists' proofs have only the names of the artists traced. Proofs have open letters.

J. Smith, No. 1134, £ 7; Macready, No. 96, £ 7.

RAPHAEL inv. The Five Saints.

The picture, in the Gallery of the Academy in Parma, is the work of a pupil of Raphael, after the drawing known through Marc-Antonio's engraving, with some small deviations. Passavant, II. 271, b.

Engraved for the Musée Français.

The artist's proofs "avant toutes lettres" have only very delicately traced with the needle the words Raphael pinxit. Dessiné par Bouillon. J<sup>re</sup> T<sup>re</sup> Richomme Sculp<sup>t</sup> anno 1819. The proofs have lettres grises.

ANNIBALE CARACCI pinx. La Silence.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 137. Engraved in 1838.

The Art Union of Baden gave this print as a premium in 1838.

Artist's proofs are before any letters. Debois, No. 1021.

RAPHAEL pinx. "La Vierge au Livre."

Engraved in 1836 after an old school copy, in the Gallery of the Louvre, of the Madonna Staffa in the possession of the Count Connestabile della Staffa in Perugia. Passavant, II. 18.

The finished artist's proofs have no letters, except the title "La Vierge au Livre," in dark shaded letters, in the socle under the picture. — The proofs have the names of the artists traced under this socle, an empty space, and then, below, the names of the publisher and the printer. The common prints have in the above-mentioned space the inscription, "Desiné d'après un tableau de Raphael et gravé par T<sup>m</sup> Richomme."

RAPHAEL pinx. La Vierge de Lorette.

Engraved in 1813, after a repetition, attributed to Giulio Romano. There are twenty repetitions and copies known; one in the Louvre, Villot, No. 389; Passavant, II. No. 88, and III. pp. 111 and 182. It is supposed now that the picture in the possession of Sir Walter Kennedy Lawrie in Florence is the original, long lost sight of.

Proofs have open letters; they have the stamp TR. in the right corner below, as well as the prints. — Messrs. A. E. Evans & Sons, London, had in 1857 an artist's proof before any letters, with the engraver's signature.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Holy Family of Francis I. The Great Holy Family of Paris.

See Passavant, II. 233, and III. 141. Engraved for the Musée Français.

Proofs are before letters, with only the names of the artists. Lehra, No. 358, 17 th. — Debois, No. 1018, "Première épreuve d'artiste, avant la lettre, seulement les noms d'auteurs à la pointe." It is stated in the same place that there occur impressions without any letters, fraudulently made by covering up the inscription of the plate while under the press. — Debois' copy occurred again in Th(orel)'s sale in Paris, 1853, and at Schletter's in Leipzig, 1855. A similar one, with only the artists' names cut with the needle, Lehra, No. 359, 69 th.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same painting, engraved in a larger size.

Richomme began the engraving in 1839, but becoming disabled before he accomplished it, it was eventually finished by Dien.

Impression on India paper.

An artist's proof "de remarque," before all letters and with the white sandal, Schletter, No. 84; Wilcox, No. 250.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Triumph of Galatea.

Engraved in 1820, after the fresco in a saloon of the Villa Farnesina in Rome. Passavant, II. 113.

Old impression "with the stamp of the engraver's initials in the right corner," which is found, however, even in the newest impressions.

Proofs have open letters. Archinto, No. 378, 250 fr.; Macready, No. 96, £ 14 14 s. Artist's proofs are before any letters, having merely the artists' names traced with the needle; they have also a croquis, a sketch of a landscape, in the margin of the plate below. ## SOLDIERS, SINGLE FIGURES.

- A man holding a square tablet with the title just mentioned, and pointing at it, behind him Envy. — With no mark. B. 25.
- A soldier with the shaft of a lance, going to the left. — With the mark of the initials on the right. B. 26.
- A soldier standing, with a shaft of a lance, pointing to the left. — With the mark on the right. B. 27.
- A soldier standing, supporting his head and both hands upon his sword. — With the mark on the right. B. 28.
- A soldier sitting, towards the right; behind him, on the left, his shield. — With the mark on the right. B. 29.
- A soldier standing, resting both hands on his buckler with Jupiter's thunderbolt on it. — With the mark on the shield below. B. 30.
- A warrior in antique Roman costume, standing with a staff in his hand, towards the right. — With the mark on the left. B. 31.
- A soldier in profile, towards the right, a sword with cross-hilt at his side; in his right hand is a very long cane, with the left he is pointing at his breast. — The mark on the right. B. 32.
- A soldier with the shaft of a lance on his shoulder, striding towards the left, and stretching out his hand in a gesture. — With the mark on the right. B. 33.
- A variation, with two figures at the right on the ground. The plate is full of the blots of aqua-fortis. — No mark.
- A cuirassed or armor-clad soldier, with a staff in his hand, bends over the rocky shore, to look into the water. — With the mark on the left. B. 34.
- A standing soldier, grasping a lance in both hands, turned to the right, nearly a full back view. — Mark on the right. B. 35.
- A standing soldier without hat, turned to the left, full face, in one hand a lance-shaft, in the other a shield on which is the artist's initials or monogram. B. 36.
- A sitting soldier, towards the left, his head and his arms resting on his buckler. — Mark on the right. B. 37.
- A standing cuirassed soldier, turned towards the right, seen in profile, both hands grasping the shaft of a lance. — Mark on the right below. B. 38.
- A standing soldier in chain-cuirass, head-dress the skin of the head of a wild animal; in one hand he holds a buckler; the other holds a mace on his shoulder. — Mark on the right. B. 39.
- A variation: instead of the mace, a sword is seen on the shoulder of the warrior. — Mark on the left.
- A cuirassed soldier sitting on a stone, grasping the shaft of a lance with both hands, profile to the right. — The mark on the right. B. 40.

- A standing soldier seen from behind, with the straps of his breastplate on his back, wearing an iron helmet and a short sword at his side; his left hand carrying a pole-axe with the head part up, in lieu of a walking-stick. — Mark on the right. B. 41.
- A standing soldier, head and body dressed in shawls, with arms stretched to the left resting on the handle of a pole-axe, of which the head is downward. Full face view. — The mark on the right. B. 42.
- A standing soldier, seen from behind, leaning on a rock; in his hand a lance-shaft. — The mark on the right. B. 43.
- A standing soldier in cuirassed armor, towards the left, in one hand a buckler, in the other a halberd. — The mark on the right. B. 44.
- A standing soldier looking on the ground, his right hand on his hip, with his left holding a lance-shaft on his shoulder. — The mark on the left. B. 45.

SOLDIERS AND OTHER FIGURES IN GROUPS.

- A soldier sitting on a mound, his right arm resting on his buckler, at his side a person beckoning him away. — The mark on the right. B. 46.
- Two soldiers sitting on square stones; the one on the right shows his back, with a large sword; the other, seen in profile towards the right, wears a helmet with feathers, and carries a pole. — The mark on the left. B. 47.
- A variation. The figure on the right sitting alone on a stone, twice as high and not so square, shows a scarf instead of a sword. The left figure is entirely different, not a soldier, but a man in a kind of Phrygian cap, with a cloak thrown over the shoulder; nearly full face view. — The mark on the right.
- A cuirassed soldier sitting on a stone, his profile towards the left; his hands rest on the head of a pole-axe; beyond him sits another soldier on the ground, holding a pole-axe in his hands. — The mark on the right. B. 48.
- An old soldier standing, speaking to his comrade, who is sitting at his left before him; both are clad in cuirass with helmet and lance; a little beyond the second soldier is a third young person standing. — The mark on the left. B. 49.
- A man reclining on a stone, profile towards the right, is making signs to some one in the distance; next beyond him a soldier with helmet and breastplate, leaning on his buckler, appears to be asleep. — The mark on the right. B. 50.
- A man reclining on a rock, profile towards the left, holding a long staff in his hands, is addressed by an old soldier, who points towards the left; on this side is also seen the head of a young person. — The mark on the left. B. 51.
- A soldier with shield and a long staff, sitting on a square stone, showing his back ; on the left before him are two other soldiers, apparently in conversation with him. — The mark on the right. B. 52.

A soldier, nearly back view, sitting on a square stone on the left, turned towards the right ; in one hand he holds a staff, in the other a large round buckler ; before him are three other soldiers, one with a halberd. — Mark on the left. B. 53.

A soldier standing, turned towards the left, with one hand on his hip, and the other pointing into the distance ; behind him on the left is another soldier, looking at him, with his hands resting on a round buckler with the head of Medusa upon it. — The mark on the left. B. 54.

A soldier, seen from behind, sitting at an improvised table, apparently playing dice with two other soldiers, one of them wearing a helmet, the other two showing bare heads. — This plate has no mark. B. 55.

Two soldiers in conversation ; one, standing, is seen full face, the other, sitting, with a cap of scale-armor, is seen from behind ; on the right is another soldier, carrying a banner, on the left another young person. — The mark on the left. B. 57.

Five soldiers in conversation. One, with his feet hanging over a ledge towards the spectator, supports his drooping head with one hand, while the other hand rests on his knee. — The mark on the right. B. 61.

A soldier standing, seen from behind with a mace in his right hand, carried as a staff, gesticulating with his left to a comrade who carries a pole on his shoulder. — The mark on the right. B. 62.

Repetition, corresponding with the preceding, but with less shading, especially in the sword and mace of the principal figure. — Without the mark of the artist. (Seems to be likewise original.)

A repetition in reverse. — The mark on the right ; the lines of the work are finer.

OTHER FIGURES OF MEN.

An old peasant, sitting with folded hands on his knees at the foot of a rock ; at his left, a little back, two other men. — The artist's name at the right. B. 67.

three other men on the right before him, the youngest of whom stretches his hand towards him. — The mark on the right. B. 70.

A man in profile, dressed in a cloak, and making a gesture with his left hand, walking towards the right, followed by another man in the costume of a peasant. — The mark on the right. B. 74.

A man standing in a tattered garment with bare head and bare legs, carrying a gourd-bottle and a long staff, points at something on the ground before him. — The mark on the right. B. 75.

An old Oriental with high cap and long flowing garments, seen from behind, at his right two women. — The mark on the right. B. 77.

WOMEN.

A nearly nude woman sitting on a mound at the foot of a tree, and clasping both arms round its trunk. — The mark on the left. B. 81.

An almost nude woman, drapery hanging to the ground, nearly full face view, stepping towards the right. — The mark on the right. B. 82.

The mark on the right.

B. 84.

A nude woman, sitting in a wilderness, profile, towards the right; she sits on a stone, resting her head, supported by her hands, on another stone.

Background, trees. — The mark on the left.

B. 85.

B. 86.

PIECES NOT DESCRIBED BY BARTSCH.

A. Of the same size as the preceding series. — A man stepping towards the left. He wears a cap of the form of the Neapolitan fishers, and a loose cloak, drawn up under his arms with his right hand, so that it forms a kind of cape over the left arm, the hand of which is stretched out behind him. His head inclines a little. — The plate has no mark.

B. Also of the same size as the preceding series. — Landscape, and likewise an upright piece. A large tree, under and in front of which are rocks, on the largest of which and under the tree sits a shepherd, his profile towards the right. — The plate has no mark.

ROSASPINA, FRANCESCO, designer and engraver, born in 1762 at Rimini, died at Bologna in 1842. He studied after the works of Bartolozzi, Volpato, and Morghen.

CORREGGIO pinx. Christ deposited from the Cross, and wept over by St. John and the Holy Women.

The lower part of the cross with a ladder against it, and a man descending, is seen in the background. — From an oil painting, formerly in San Giovanni, now in the Gallery of Parma. Not mentioned by Coxe. One of the three great easel paintings of that place, — the Madonna of St. Jerome, or the Day of Correggio, and the Madonna della Scodella, or Rest in Egypt, being the other two.* Engraved in 1802.

The same.

Proof before any letters, with only the artists' names in very small writing.

ALBANO pinx. Dancing Amoretti, with the Rape of Proserpina.

An oval picture, formerly in the Sampieri collection in Bologna, now in the Gallery of the Brera in Milan.

Artist's proofs are before any letters.

* Heller, Praktisches Handbuch, quotes this engraving twice, first as "The Corpse of Christ wept over by the Holy Women and St. John," and then again, as "Pietà, a rich composition."

ROTA, MARTINO, designer and engraver, born at Sebenico in Dalmatia about 1532. He worked in Rome and Venice. Bartsch, xvi.

TITIAN pinx. The Martyrdom of Saint Peter the Dominican. B. 20.
The picture was in San Giovanni e Paolo in Venice, recently destroyed by fire.

1st state, with the address, "Lvcæ Gverinoni Formis."

MICHEL-ANGELO pinx. The Last Judgment. B. 28.
The great fresco in the Sistine Chapel.

"Ser<sup>mo</sup> Emanueli Philiberto Sabaudiae Duci D." on one tablet, and
"Martinus Rota Sebenicensis F. 1569," on the other.

2d state, with the 3d small white tablet, instead of the address, Lucae
Guarionij [sic] formis," of the 1st state.

From the collection of Professor Vogel von Vogelstein.

ROTHER, landscape painter and etcher in Dresden, where he was born in 1785.
Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, xiii. p. 467.

We find no notice of this artist, except by Nagler, who does not mention his Christian name, nor any etching of his.

JACOB RUYSDAEL pinx. A Waterfall with a rock in the foreground; in the distance, on a rocky height, a castle, and at the foot a farm-house among trees.

Etching. Without any letters.

The picture is in the Dresden Gallery. Matthäi, No. 185; Hübner, No. 1364.

ROULLET, JEAN LOUIS, designer and engraver, born at Arles in 1645, died at Paris in 1699. A pupil of Claude Mellan and François de Poilly.

P. MIGNARD pinx. The Visitation.

1st state, with dedication to Mme. la Dauphine, and with the engraver's own address.

In the 2d state the dedication and arms are erased, and it has the address of Drevet.

P. MIGNARD pinx. Madonna with the Grape.

From W. Esdaile's collection.

P. MIGNARD pinx. The same.

2d state, with dedication to Mme. Maintenon.

In the 3d state the dedication is erased.

ANN. CARACCI pinx. The Virgin in a landscape with the Child standing on her knee; in her hand she holds the Book of Isaiah.

The inscription is, Olim Deus . . . Filio. The same as Brandes, II. p. 56.

ANN. CARACCI pinx. The Three Marias and the Angel at the Sepulchre of our Lord.

Engraved from the picture then owned by the Philarmini family in Naples.

1st state, with Raillard's address.

From Otto's collection, No. 1157. — The 2d state has the address of Dan. Herz, sen. — A proof before any letters, Johnson, No. 144.

ANN. CARACCI pinx. Pietà; "Les Cinq Douleurs."

The dead Christ is near the tomb on the lap of the Virgin, and three other holy women are weeping. — The picture, first in the collection of the Marquis de Seignelay, then in the Orleans Gallery, is now in the collection of the Earl of Carlisle at Castle Howard. Waagen, Treasures, III. p. 324.

Fine old impression of the 4th state.

The 1st state is with only the artists' names below in the plate itself, before cum priuil. Regis, and before the drapery which falls over the right arm of the Virgin is continued. Debois, No. 1028, 300 fr.

The 2d state has cum priuil. Regis, in the plate itself. The drapery is extended. It is, like the preceding, before the inscription, Tiré de la Galerie du Marquis de Seignelay. Debois, No. 1029, 120 fr.

The 3d state has on the right of the lower margin the inscription: Tiré de la Galerie du Marquis de Seignelay.

These three states may be considered as proofs.

The 4th state has the following, changed inscription in the middle of the lower margin: Divino afflatu correptæ Christo justa persolvunt; also, with small letters, on the left: Se vend à Paris chez P. Drevet, avec priuil. du Roy, and, on the right: le Tableau est au Cabinet de son S. A. R. Monseigneur le duc d'Orléans.

GIRARDON sculp. P. Colbert, Édouard.

Engraved in 1698, after a bas-relief by Girardon. Nagler, XIII. "Roullet," No. 7.

POILLY del. 1680. P. Poilly, François de.

Engraved in 1699. Nagler, XIII. "Roullet," No. 15.

J. COTELLE pinx. P. Touchellée, Catherine, wife of M. Hilaire Clément, and, by second marriage, of M. Antoine Le Riche.

Bust in an oval, hair in long loose curls, dress open in the neck, fastened in front by two ornamental buckles. Joan. Cotelle pinx. 1667 — Jo. Lud. Roullet sculpt. 1693. The medallion rests upon a socle, on the front of which is a white circle with a chiffre of letters, interlaced with the same letters reversed, — without further inscription of the name of the person represented. Nagler, XIII. "Roullet," No. 17, and 18 (where, by mistake, the plate is enumerated a second time). Compare Winckler, IV. No. 3351.

R. LEVIEUX del. p. Saint André, Pierre de.

Nagler, XIII. "Roulet," No. 5.

ROUSSELET, GILLES, designer and engraver, born at Paris in 1614, died in 1686. He studied after the works of C. Bloemaert.

TITIAN pinx. The Entombment.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. It passed through the collections of the Duke of Mantua, Charles I., and the banker Eberhard Jabach in Paris, to Louis XIV. Villot, I. No. 465. A duplicate of this picture is in the Mamfrini Gallery in Venice, after which the engraving of Schiavoni was made.

RUSCHEWEYH, FERDINAND, designer and engraver, born at Neu-Strelitz in Mecklenburg in 1785, lived principally in Rome, and died in his native place in 1845.

BENDEMANN pinx. 1832. Captive Jews weeping by the Waters of Babylon.

Engraved in 1832.

India proof, with the inscription, in small letters: "Das Original ist vom Kunstverein für die Rheinlande und Westphalen einer öffentlichen Bestimmung gewidmet"; and below: "Gedr. von H. Felsing in Darmstadt."

Nagler's description (xiv. p. 140, No. 14), "Sigmund Feyerabend, berühmter Buchdrucker in Frankfurt a. M., Brustbild, ohne Namen, 1587, 4," must have been made from a copy that had the upper margin cut off. The plate has a margin at the top, and in it the inscription, Sigismundus Feyerabendius Bibliopola Francofurti ad Moenum. Anno ætatis sue LIX. Filium Alloquitur. He holds a book in his right hand on which stands the year 1587, and near his left is written, Honoris ipsius causa i æs [sic] incisus à I. Sadeler.

SADELER, RAPHAEL, the father, designer and engraver, born at Brussels in 1555, died, not at Venice in 1617, as is usually stated, but with more probability in Munich, where he had a stroke of apoplexy, in 1628. A pupil of his brother Johan Sadeler. Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, xiv.

Proof before any letters, Johnson, No. 147, £9 10 s.; Macready, No. 102, £11.

TITIAN pinx. Magdalen.

The picture, formerly in the Barbarigo Palace in Venice, the original of numerous repetitions, is now in the Imperial Gallery of St. Petersburg. A fine repetition is in the Gallery of the Pitti palace in Florence.

TITIAN pinx. The Assumption of the Virgin.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Academy of Venice; it was formerly in the Church Santa Maria Gloriosa dei Frari.

1st impression with the three middle words of the inscription, "Maria in Cœlum," in open unshaded letters.

TITIAN pinx. The same.

Artist's proof before any letters. The coat of arms of Russia in the lower margin has, by mistake, only St. George in the middle, instead of this Saint and the White Eagle of Poland on a divided shield, and the crown over the arms is only in outline.

Such a proof occurred in the Macready collection, No. 101, where it was erroneously described as "with the Polish eagle"; it was sold for £28 10 s. Harrach, No. 2491, 620 fr.

The proofs have the coat of arms re-engraved and corrected, also the names of the artists and the inscription, Assumpta est Maria in Cœlum. Gaudent Angeli, and the dedication to the Emperor Alexander I., — all in traced and open letters.

REMBRANDT pinx. La Juive Fiancée. Jac. 128.

Engraved in 1769. "Gravé d'après le Tableau Original de Rembrandt, tiré du Cabinet de Monsieur le Comte de Kamcke, et dédié au dit Seigneur," etc. — Smith, Cat. rais., "Rembrandt," No. 567, mentions the print.

SCHMIDT fec. ad vivam. p. Mme. Schmidt, sewing, looking towards the right. Jac. 135.

REMBRANDT pinx. The Duke Adolphus of Gueldres threatening his Imprisoned Father. Jac. 137.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 166, where he, however, misunderstands the meaning of the picture. From the picture in the Berlin Gallery, No. 802. Waagen, Verzeichniss, and Waagen, Handbook, II. p. 344. This etching omits the two negro attendants behind the prince, — they are represented in Berger's engraving. See BERGER.

Impression before the cross-hatching on the raised hand, on the shoulder of the cloak, etc., and before the shading of the keyhole.

The space under the plate remained blank in all the impressions, as the plate never had an inscription, except the artists' names. Engraved in 1756.

SCHMIDT pinx. p. Schmidt, G. F. Jac. 141.

The portrait with the spider in the window, on the inner wall of which hangs a thermometer.

"George Friderich Schmidt, se ipse fecit aqua forti Petropol. 1758."

The first impressions of this plate are before the cross-hatching on the lower part of the window wall, and on the thermometer. Weigel, Kunst-Catalog, VII. No. 7978 a.; described also in Prince Schwarzenberg's catalogue, and in Tschirschky's, No. 907.

SCHMIDT del. p. Schmidt's wife, reading. "Dorothee Louise Viedebandt, Femme de George Frédéric Schmidt." Jac. 142.

SCHMIDT del. p. Michel, Hirsch. Jac. 144.

Three fourths length, the face towards the right, a full beard, Oriental fur cap, caftan or easy gown of the Polish Jews, with fur cuffs and tied with a sash, the hands crossed over the stomach. In the background of the etching is the inscription, "G. F. Schmidt ad vivum fecieb. [sic] Bero- lini. 1762."

1st state, with the inscription in the lower margin, "Hirsch Michel, presentirt an Isaac Onis durch Aaron Monceca."

The later impressions are without this inscription.

SCHMIDT, GEORG FRIEDRICH, continued.

- REMBRANDT pinx. "Princess of Orange." Jac. 147.
 Portrait of a lady, half figure, turned towards the right; a string of pearls fastens her hair, and a clasp on her bosom secures her cloak. Engraved in 1767.
- ANT. PESNE pinx. ♀. Dinglinger, jeweller in Dresden. Jac. 148.
 In an oval. Engraved in 1769. With Boerner's and Geissler's names on the back.
- REMBRANDT pinx. ♀. Rembrandt at the age of 28. Jac. 150.
 Half figure, turned towards the right; face view. "Rembrandt p. 1634. G. F. Schmidt 1771. f. aqua [sic] forti. — Le Tableau Original est à Florence dans la Collection de Ms: le Marquis Gerini."
- REMBRANDT pinx. ♀. Rembrandt at the age of about 60. Jac. 151.
 Half figure, turned towards the left, nearly full face. "Dédié à Monsieur B. N. Le Sueur, par son ami Schmidt." Smith, Cat. rais. No. 218, states that the original is now in the Pitti palace. Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, xv. p. 315, "Schmidt," No. 99, designates the picture in the Pitti palace as the one formerly owned by the Marquis Gerini (Jac. 150), representing Rembrandt at the age of about 30 years. Engraved in 1771.
 In our copy the dedication is cut off.
- G. FLINCK pinx. ♀. Cats instructing the young prince William Henry of Orange. Jac. 152.
 The prince is in profile, with a wreath of laurels on his head; his old teacher wears a gold chain. Engraved in 1772.
 A similar picture is in the Imperial Gallery of St. Petersburg. Waagen, Die Gemäldesammlung in der Kaiserlichen Ermitage zu St. Petersburg, München, 1864, p. 187, No. 842.
- REMBRANDT pinx. Rembrandt's Mother. Jac. 153.
 "Du Cabinet de Monsieur Glume." A corresponding picture is in the Gallery of the Hermitage at St. Petersburg, Room 12. Waagen, Die Gemäldesammlung in der Kaiserlichen Ermitage zu St. Petersburg, München, 1864, p. 183, No. 807. Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, xii. "Rembrandt," p. 419, mentions such a picture in the Gallery of Gotha.
- A. VAN OSTADE pinx. Two Boors drinking and smoking. Jac. 160.
 "A. v. Ostade pinx. 1667. — G. F. Schmidt fecit Aqua forti. 1757." — All impressions have an open space in the lower margin, and no inscription.

SPIERRE, FRANÇOIS, painter and engraver, born at Nancy in 1643, died at Marseilles in 1681. A pupil of S. Vouet and François de Poilly.

FR. SPIERRE del. Christ in a glory, giving his blessing to Five Saints, recently (1671) canonized by Clement X.

The first, on the left, raises a monstrance ; the next holds a crucifix and a horse-pistol in one hand ; the third an open book and a pen ; the fourth, a woman, holds the blessed Child in her arms ; and the last one, on the right, with a tiara at his feet, holds a crucifix and a lily in his hand. Designed and engraved to commemorate the great event of this canonization, and dedicated to Cardinal Alfieri.

The Saints are : Cajetan of Thiene, born in 1480, the founder of the Regular Clergy "Theatines" ; Francis Borgia, born in 1572, General of the Jesuits ; Philip Benozzi (Benizzi or Beniti) though not one of the seven original founders, the principal saint of the Serviti, born in 1285 ; Lewis Beltran, or Bertrand, born in 1526, of the Dominican order of preachers, apostle in Peru ; and Rosa di Lima, born at Lima in 1586, of the Dominican order, the patron saint of America.

On each side below in the margin of the plate the star of the Dominicans is engraved.

Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, art. "Spierre" has No. 12, "Christ in a glory, adored by several Saints, after Spierre's own design," and No. 20, "Five Saints in adoration of the Saviour in the clouds, after Fr. Vanni." Under this last designation the print occurred in, and was purchased from, the Otto collection. Vanni cannot be the designer of this composition, because he lived a century before the canonization took place.

STEEN (sometimes STEIN), FRANS VAN DEN, painter and engraver, born at Antwerp in 1604.

ANN. CARACCI pinx. Pietà.

STEFANONI, or STEPHANONI, PIETRO, engraver, was born at Vicenza in 1589. He removed to Rome, where he established a printing-press, and became publisher of engravings, especially of the Caracci school. His mark, St. or Stephanoni f., means usually, even in the absence of the name of the artist, Stephanoni formis.

ANN. CARACCI pinx. Holy Family with a Cradle. Virgin and Child, and Joseph, St. John offering cherries.

"P. Stephanoni f[ecit]."

2d state, with the dark shadow on the Virgin's left cheek, the drawing of which has been corrected.

In the 1st state, before the correction, the cheek appears swollen. The comparison was made in the Royal Cabinet of Dresden.

The plate is dedicated to Prince Francesco Ludovisi, who owned the original painting.

STEINLA, MORITZ. His family name was Müller, but to distinguish himself from numerous contemporary artists of this name, he called himself after his birthplace, Steinla (near Hildesheim in Hannover) where he was born in 1791. He died in Dresden in 1858. A scholar of Morghen and of Longhi.

RAPHAEL inv. The Slaughter of the Innocents.

See Passavant, II. p. 528, No. 259. Engraved in 1836, after a drawing in the possession of the King of Saxony, and corresponding with Marco Antonio's engraving, B. 20, the second plate, without the fir-tree.

Artist's proof before any letters, with the stamp of the engraver's initials. With Steinla's autograph; the sheet bears also the autograph of E. Mandel.

TITIAN pinx. "Cristo della Moneta." The Tribute Money.

The picture is in the Dresden Gallery; it was painted for the Duke Alfonso I. of Ferrara, and is the original of several copies.

Proof, with merely the inscription, "Il Christo [sic] della Moneta" in open uncial letters; and, in very small cursive letters, "Titian pinx. . . M. Steinla sc." On India paper. In the right corner of the lower margin is the white stamp of the letters A and R, surmounted with a crown (Antonius Rex).

The plate was bought for the Royal Cabinet of Engravings in Dresden, to be added to Part III. of the Rec. d'estampes de la Gal. de Dresde.

TITIAN pinx. The same.

Artist's proof, 1st state of the finished plate before the title. With the inscription, "Titian gem. — gez. zu Dresden u. gest. z. Mailand u. Florenz v. Moritz Steinla 1827," traced with the needle in larger letters than in any other state.

There occur impressions of the plate without any letters, which were taken after the German notice about the artists just mentioned was erased, and before it was replaced by the short inscription, Titian. pinx., M. Steinla sc., of the open-letter proofs. The prints have the notice about the artists in French, in small letters, Peint par Tiziano Vecelli, gravé par M. Steinla à Florence; the title, Il Christo della Moneta, is in shaded letters, under it are the arms of Saxony, and the further inscription, Tableau de Tiziano Vecelli da Cadore de la Galerie Roiale de Dresde. Haut 2 pieds 8 pouces, sur 2 pieds de largeur.

FRA BARTOLOMMEO pinx. Pietà.

Engraved in 1830 after the picture in the Gallery of the Pitti palace in Florence. See Crowe and Cavalcaselle, III. p. 471.

Artist's proof, before letters and arms, with only the names of the artists.

Some still earlier impressions are before any letters or arms. The proofs are also before letters, but they have the artists' names and the coat of arms.

MICHEL-ANGELO pinx. Madonna and Child, and the infant Saint John.

Engraved in 1829, after an oil painting, alleged to be by Michel-Angelo, in the possession of the Countess Camilla Farrari in Florence, for the Antologia di Firenze XXXIV. See Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, under "Buonarroti," p. 221.

Without inscription.

PALMA VECCHIO pinx. Madonna and Child, with the infant Saint John and Saint Catherine.

The picture is in the Dresden Gallery.

Artist's proof before any letters, with the croquis of the profile of the engraver, drawn with the needle in the right hand corner below.

RAPHAEL pinx. Madonna di San Sisto.

Engraved in 1847. Passavant, II. 240. The picture is in the Dresden Gallery; it was originally painted for the Grey Friars of St. Benedict in Piacenza. See further under MÜLLER, p. 257.

Proof, before letters, arms, or dedication, with only the artists' names. With the stamp of the engraver's initials.

Published for 40 th. ; present price from 75 to 80 th.

RAPHAEL pinx. The same.

Macready, No. 110, £ 19 ; bid in by Messrs. Amsler and Ruthardt, of Berlin.

Of the prints, those with open letters are the first, and before the plate was retouched,—the price of these is 30 th. now at the publishers, — and such of them as have the stamp of the engraver's initials are subscription copies. The impressions from the retouched plate have shaded letters.

HOLBEIN pinx. The Madonna of the Burgomaster Meyer, of Basle.

The Burgomaster is represented with his family in devotion before the Virgin and Child.

A full history of the picture (now in the Dresden Gallery) is given by G. Th. Fechner, in Naumann's Archiv, Jahrg. xii. p. 58, et seqq., which corrects the former accounts, and the statements given by Hübner, in his Verzeichniss der K. Gemälde-Gallerie zu Dresden. A duplicate of this picture is in the possession of the Princess Charles of Hesse-Darmstadt, Waagen, Handbook, i. p. 192 ; A. von Zahn, in Naumann's Archiv, Jahrg. xi. p. 42, et seqq. Engraved in 1841.

1st proof, before letters and before the coat of arms, with only the names of the artists.

The 2d proofs, still before letters, have the coat of arms ; and a very small number (it is said but 12) of engravers' proofs are before the arms and before any letters.

RAPHAEL pinx. P. Pope Julius II.

Passavant, II. No. 83. The original is in the Gallery of the Pitti palace in Florence, and there are numerous repetitions and copies.

Artist's proof before any letters. On India paper.

STEINMÜLLER, JOSEPH, engraver, born at Vienna in 1795, where he died in 1841. A pupil of Maurer.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Virgin in the Meadow, "Die Jungfrau im Grünen."

See Passavant, II. No. 37, and III. p. 91. The picture is in the Vienna Gallery. Engraved in 1841.

PERUGINO pinx. Virgin and Child with two female Saints.

The picture is in the Vienna Gallery. Engraved for the Austrian Art Union in 1834.

LEONARDO DA VINCI pinx. Virgin and Child, with St. Catherine and St. Barbara.

See Rigollot, No. 27. The picture is in the Esterhazy Gallery in Vienna.
Engraved in 1827.

STOCK, ANDREAS, engraver, born in Holland about 1590, worked at the Hague and at Amsterdam. Supposed to be a pupil of Jac. de Gheyn.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Snayers, Pieter, painter.

Smith, Cat. rais. No. 84. Munich Gallery.

Engraved for Martin van den Enden, Van Dyck's Iconographia, No. 57.
Weber, p. 84.

2d and last state, with the name of the engraver (instead of "Martinus van den Enden excudit," of the 1st state). Watermark, Small Foolscape.

STÖLZEL, CHRISTIAN ERNST, designer and engraver, born at Dresden in 1792, died there in 1837. A pupil of his father, Christ. Friedr. Stölzel.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Coronation of the Virgin.

Altar-piece for the church of San Francesco in Perugia; now in the Gallery of the Vatican. Passavant, II. 17. Engraved in 1832.

1st state, with the name of Hultzsch as printer.

The proofs have open letters.

RAPHAEL pinx. An Angel, from the fresco in San Severo in Perugia, called "The Trinity."

See Passavant, II. 35. Engraved in 1836.

FRA FIESOLE pinx. Saint John the Evangelist.

From the fresco in the chapel of Nicholas V. in the Vatican. Engraved in 1825. On India paper.

FRA FIESOLE pinx. Saint Catherine.

The original, painted in tempera, is in the church of San Domenico in Perugia. Engraved in 1824. On India paper.

STÖLZEL, CHRISTIAN FRIEDRICH, designer and engraver, born at Dresden in 1751, died there in 1816. A pupil of Schenau and Canale.

GIORGIONE pinx. The Concert.

Two choristers, the one playing a clavecin, with a youth at his elbow, wearing a barret-cap with feathers; the other holding a violoncello. The picture is in the Gallery of the Pitti palace. Engraved in 1808, for the Musée Français.

Artist's proof; the engraver's name and the date slightly cut with the needle.

Villot, Musée du Louvre, I. p. 26, mentions this print (with a mistake in the name of the engraver, Hoelzel for Stölzel), as an engraving of the picture in the Louvre, which, however, is entirely different. The other engraving he mentions, by N. Dupuis, is from that picture, representing a landscape with four figures, etc.

RUBENS pinx. p. Rubens's first wife, Isabelle, or Elizabeth, Brant.

The picture is in the Dresden Gallery. Engraved for Rec. d'est. de la Gal. de Dresde, III. No. 13, where it is called, erroneously, the portrait of Helena Forman, the second wife of Rubens.

STORM, G. F., an English engraver of the present day.

p. Shakespeare.

Mezzotinto, three quarters length, "from an original picture in the possession of C. U. Kingston, Esq., of Ashbourne, Derby."

Proof, with the inscription written with the needle.

G. STUART pinx. p. Nathaniel Bowditch.

The original is in the possession of the family of the late Dr. N. Bowditch, in Boston, U. S.

Proof.

STRANGE, SIR ROBERT, designer and engraver, born in one of the Orkney Islands in 1723, died at London in 1792. He was first instructed by Richard Cooper in Edinburgh, and went thence to Paris, to study with Le Bas. His work consists of 62 plates, and is described by Charles Le Blanc, Catalogue de l'œuvre de Robert Strange, Leipzig, 1848. About 1790 Strange selected 80 of the finest impressions of each of his plates, — with letters, for of those before letters but a very limited number were taken, — which he numbered and had bound up with an introductory essay on the progress of the art of engraving. For this collection he engraved his portrait, of which one sheet contains the proof etching and the finished print. These numbered copies have mostly been separated; they are recognized by the Roman numbers stamped in the margin.

GREUZE del. p. Sir Robert Strange.

Le Blanc, 62.

Head in profile, in a medallion.

Two impressions, one of the pure etching, and the other of the finished plate.

With the stamped numbers I. and II.

VAN DYCK pinx. p. Charles I. of England. Le Bl. 46.
 Full length figure, dressed in ermine and his royal robes.

The picture was owned, at the time of the engraving, by Strange himself; according to Le Blanc, p. 49, note, it passed into the possession of Sir Robert Dundas; it is at present in Windsor Castle, though not mentioned by Waagen, Treasures. Smith, Cat. rais., "Van Dyck," No. 210.

Proof, before any letters, Debois, No. 1126, 1030 fr.; Sir J. Hippisley, No. 147, £ 44; Johnson, No. 152, £ 52; Marshall, No. 1751, £ 62.

VAN DYCK pinx. p. Henrietta Maria, Queen of Charles I., with her two Sons. Le Bl. 48.

"In Pinacotheca Regis Britannici conservata. 1784."

The engraving does not contain the whole composition of the picture in Windsor Castle (Smith, Cat. rais. III. "Van Dyck," No. 224; Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 426); it leaves out the portrait of King Charles I., seated in an arm-chair. Smith, Cat. rais., Appendix, p. 377, No. 34, describes a picture in the collection of Earl Douglas at Bothwell Castle, a repetition of the one in Windsor Castle, with the omission of the King.

Proof, before any letters, and before the jewels on the table, Johnson, No. 154, £ 22.

VAN DYCK pinx. p. Children of Charles I. Le Bl. 49.

The picture is in the Gallery of Naples.

"Printed by Hocquet."

MEDINA pinx. p. Archibald Pitcairn, M. D. Le Bl. 61.

* The proofs of Strange's plates are, as a rule, before any letters whatever.

Bust in a medallion, with a border in which is the name as given above ; it rests on a socle which has no inscription ; on the ground in front lie an Æsculapius-staff with the snake, resting on a book, and a lyre with a branch of laurel. Below the border line, in the margin of the plate, are the following lines in traced letters : To John Clerk M. D. President of the Royal College of Physicians in Edinburgh — This Head of his Celebrated Friend Dr. Archibald Pitcairn, is with the — Utmost Respect Humbly Inscrib'd by — His most Obedient and — very humble Servant — Rob<sup>t</sup>. Strange. — J. Medina Eques Pinxit — R. Strange Sculp<sup>t</sup>. Edin<sup>r</sup>. Le Blanc knows but one state of the plate, of which he gives the following description : "Archibald Pitcairn, Médecin et Poète. D'après Jean Baptiste Medina. Buste dans un médaillon posé sur un socle, où se lit le distique suivant :

Scire potestates herbarum et tangere plectrum,
Pitcairno Phoebus munera magna dedit."

Ours would seem to be an earlier state.

The 1st state has, instead of the above inscription, Hujus Prototipi Inuen. Suavius.

SUBLEYRAS, PIERRE, painter and etcher, born at Uzès in 1699, died at Rome in 1749. A pupil of his father, Matthieu Subleyras, and of A. Rivalz. Robert-Dumesnil, II.

SUBLEYRAS pinx. The Feast at the house of Simon, Magdalen washing Christ's feet. R.-D. 3.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre, Villot, No. 504, where, under the following No., there is also a sketch for this picture; another sketch is in the Dresden Gallery.

2d state, before the inscription of two lines on the left below: "Observer que Subleyras n'a fait tirer," etc.

The 1st state is a pure aqua-fortis etching.

SULLIVAN, LUKE, miniature painter and engraver, born in Ireland.

He came, when young, to London, and became a pupil of Thomas Major.

HOGARTH pinx. The March to Finchley.

"Painted by Wm. Hogarth, and published in 1750, According to Act of Parliament."

With but one s in Prussia in the dedication.

SUMMERFIELD, JOHN, engraver at London, pupil of Bartolozzi.

RUBENS et SNYDERS pinx. 10. "Rubens and his Wife."

He is represented as carrying game, a young stag, on his shoulder, and a basket with fowls; and she as carrying a basket with fruit on her head. The painting is owned by Lord Aylesford. Bürger, Trésors, p. 193.

Proof, with open skeleton letters and unshaded coat of arms; below, the address: "London, published by J. Summerfield at No. 9 Southampton Street, Strand, Feb<sup>y</sup> 11, 1801."

The artist's proofs are before any letters; they have only below, cut with the needle, London, published by Summerfield Nov. 15, 1800.

M. A. DA CARAVAGGIO pinx., RUBENS del. The Entombment. W. 107.

The picture is in the Gallery of Prince Lichtenstein at Vienna.

2d state, before address.

The 1st state is before any letters, and a pure aqua-fortis etching, — the 3d, with the address of Carolus Allard, — the 4th, with a French inscription, Christ mort, etc. and the address, à Paris chez Basan.

RUBENS pinx. Bacchus, led by a Satyr and a Faun. He is preceded by two Bacchantes and a Panther. W. 108.

Smith, Cat. rais. 1090.

With the inscription "Visus Hebet, fumant Artus, Cerebrumq; Rotatur," etc.

4th state, without any address.

The 1st has the address, P. Soutman Excud., — the 2d has the address, Clement de Jonghe Excudit, — the 3d, F. de Wit exc., which is erased in the next state.

A. VAN OSTADE pinx. "The Big Broom." W. 124.

Peasants under an arbor in front of a tavern, with an old hostess. Smith, Cat. rais. 36. The picture was sold in the collection of Braamcamp in 1771, and in the sale of Walsh Porter, in 1810.

2d state, before address, with only the names of the artists.

The rare 1st state is before the artist's names; Verstolk, No. 1352, 110 fl. . . . The 3d state has the address of C. de Jonghe; — the 4th has Leoñ Schenk Excudit, on the left below.

A. VAN OSTADE pinx. "Jan de Moff." W. 121.

Three peasants in a tavern, one playing the violin. "Als Jan de Moff zijn Veel doet spelen," etc., without artist's name. Smith, Cat. rais. 125; Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 343. The picture is in the Dulwich Gallery, No. 190.

3d state, with "C. Visscher Excus." The artists' names, in the print itself, about half an inch from the bottom on the right, are so covered up with hatches as to be hardly perceptible.

From the collection, and with the name of Amann on the back.

The 1st state, very rare, is before the names of the artists and the verses in the margin; — the 2d has the names of the artists, and the verses, "Als Jan de Moff zijn Veel doet spelen," etc., but is before the address. — In the 4th state, the address has been erased, but some traces of it are still perceptible. — The 5th state has the address "J. Cövens et C. Mortier Excudit."

A. VAN OSTADE pinx. A Man with a Jug and Pipe. W. 116.

CORREGGIO'S FRESCOS IN THE CAMERA DI SAN PAOLO, A ROOM IN THE CONVENT OF BENEDICTINE NUNS IN PARMA, PAINTED FOR THE ABBESS GIOVANNA DI PIACENZA.

Over the projecting chimney Diana is represented as returning from the chase, in a chariot drawn by two white stags. The apartment represents an arbor of vines and flowers ; 16 stems, rising from consoles, form as many arcades by the interwoven branches and leaves, and leave in each an oval lunette, through which are seen a couple of sporting children. Under each lunette a niche is painted in chiaroscuro, an antique bas-relief of some mythological or allegorical subject.

PAOLO VERONESE pinx. The Presentation in the Temple.

The picture is in the church of San Sebastiano at Venice. Nagler, art. "Villamena," No. 16.

1st state of the impressions with inscription.

There are impressions without the inscription; the late impressions have the address of C. Lossi, 1773.

BAROCCIO pinx. The Descent from the Cross.

The picture is in the Duomo at Perugia; Nagler, art. "Villamena," No. 31. Engraved in 1606.

1st state, before address.

The 2d state has "Gio. Batt<sup>a</sup> Rossi formis in P. Navona"; the 3d has apud Carolum Lossi, Anno 1773.

VILLAMENA del. St. Francis in the Desert, praying before a Crucifix.

See Nagler, art. "Villamena," No. 36.

VISCHER, PETER, amateur designer and etcher, born at Basle in 1779, died there in 1851; he was a connoisseur and collector of engravings.

RUYSDAEL pinx. An old castellated Dutch building on the bank of a canal on which two fishermen in boats are throwing their nets.

"P. Vischer sc. [aqua forti] 1807." — "du Cabinet de mon père."

Small folio, oblong.

VISSCHER, CORNELIS DE, designer and engraver. It is usually assumed that he was born at Haarlem about 1629, and that he died about 1658. He was a pupil of Soutman, but formed a style of his own, which, especially in portraits, is unsurpassed in boldness and picturesque effect. Hecquet, in the Appendix of the 2d vol. of Basan, Dict. des graveurs; Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, xx. p. 383, seq.; William Smith, Catalogue of the Works of Cornelius Visscher, London, 1864, also printed in the Fine Arts Quarterly Review, London, Vol. I. 1863, et seq.

JACOPO DA PONTE BASSANO pinx. The Angel bidding Abraham quit his Country.

Engraved for the Cabinet Reynst. Nagler, 102. Hecquet, 1. W. Smith, 1.

With the figure of the Angel in the clouds. Without the name of painter or engraver.

From Otto's collection.

Nagler describes a 2d state : with the promises written in the plate in the place where the Angel was before (Nagler speaks of four angels, here is but one), and with the names of the artists. William Smith does not mention such a state.

GUIDO RENI pinx. Susannah and the Elders.

A picture of this subject is in the National Gallery (Waagen, Treasures, i. p. 338); it was formerly in the Lancelotti palace in Rome. The picture from which this plate is engraved was in the Orleans Gallery, see Basan; it was bought by Mr. Willett for £ 400. Waagen, Treasures, ii. p. 495, No. 10. Engraved for the Cabinet Reynst. Nagler, 104. Hecquet, 3. W. Smith, 3.

1st state, before any letters, i. e. before the names of the artists, and before address.

From Otto's collection.

The second state is with the names of the artists; the 3d has the address of F. de Wit added.

TINTORETTO pinx. The Entombment.

Engraved for the Cabinet Reynst. Nagler, 105. Hecquet, 4. W. Smith, 8.

2d state; within the print, at the bottom, "Tintoretto pinxit. Corn. Visscher figuravit aqua forti."

From Otto's collection.

The first state is of great rarity, only two copies being known; it is before the inscription; — the 3d is with the address of Nicolaus Visscher; — the 4th, with the address of Danckerts.

PAOLO VERONESE pinx. The Ascension.

Engraved for the Cabinet Reynst. Nagler, 107. Hecquet, 5. W. Smith, 9.

1st state, before the names of the artists and before address; like Verstolk, No. 1161. — The inscription "Ego et pater vn̄ svmvs is on a scroll in the plate."

From Otto's collection.

VISSCHER, CORNELIS, continued.

The 2d state is with the inscription: "Corn. Visscher Shulp. [sic.] P. Veronees Pinxit. F. de Wit excudit." Verstolk, 1162.

TITIAN pinx. The Virgin and Child, with Tobias and the Angels in the background.

The original picture is now in Hampton Court palace. (William Smith.) Engraved for the Cabinet Reynst. Nagler, 108. Hecquet, 6. W. Smith, 4.

3d state, without any letters, i. e. "Tixianus pinxit" in the margin at the left, effaced.

From Otto's collection.

The 1st state is before any letters, Verstolk, No. 1163; the 2d has, in the margin beneath, on the left, Tixianus pinxit.

RUBENS pinx. The Last Judgment.

The picture is in the Munich Gallery; it was formerly at Schleissheim. John Smith, Cat. rais. 167. Engraved on two plates. Nagler, 133. Hecquet, 13. W. Smith, 36.

1st state, before Soutmann's address; like Verstolk, No. 1176.

The 2d state has the plate retouched, with the address of P. Soutman, Verstolk, 1178; — the 3d is with the additional address of F. de Wit, Verstolk, 1179; — the 4th has the address effaced.

PARMEGIANO pinx. "Artemisia."

According to Stanley, in Bryan's Dictionary, the original picture is in Hampton Court palace; it is not mentioned, however, by Waagen, in his Treasures. Engraved for the Cabinet Reynst. Nagler, 153. Hecquet, 28. W. Smith, 51.

1st state, before any letters, i. e. before Visscher's name and address; a painter's name was never put on the plate.

The 2d state is with Corn. Visscher sculp., in the margin below, immediately under the engraving on the left; — the 3d, with the name of Visscher effaced, and in the right corner, at the bottom, G. Valk ex.

PIETER DE LAER pinx. A set of three Landscapes, engraved for the Cabinet Reynst. Namely:—

1. The Robbery of the Wagons, Le coche volé.
Nagler, 168. Hecquet, 18, a. W. Smith, 67.
1st state, before any letters.
2. The Fight with Pistols, Le coup de pistolet.
Nagler, 169. Hecquet, 18, b. W. Smith, 68.
1st state, before any letters.
3. The Kiln, Le four à briques.
Nagler, 170. Hecquet, 18, c. William Smith, 69.
1st state, before any letters.

The 2d state of the three plates has the artists' names and G. Valk's address ; — in the 3d, the address is effaced.

VISSCHER del. The Pancake Woman.

Nagler, 144. Hecquet, 14. W. Smith, 42.

Uncommonly fine and clear impression of the plate, described as the 7th and last state. It might be mistaken for an impression of the 3d state, but for the deeper shading in the foreground, where the inscription is. Perhaps an impression after the effacing of an earlier address than the last.

From Otto's collection.

The 1st state is before the handkerchief of the old woman and the hair of the old man were covered with cross strokes ; — the 2d state, with these cross strokes added, but before those on the left hand of the old woman ; — in the 3d state, cross strokes are introduced on the woman's left hand ; — in the 4th state, on the left, within the print, in the same line with that of Visscher, we read : Clemendt de Jonghe exc. ; — in the 5th state, the name of De Jonghe is effaced, and J. Visscher inserted ; — in the 6th state, J. Visscher is effaced, and N. de Visscher exc. inserted ; — in the 7th state, the address is entirely effaced, and the place in which it was is covered with diagonal lines proceeding from near the sticks, and continued almost to the margin. C. Visscher's name is not nearly so distinctly visible on account of the shadows having been strengthened. In this state the plate is retouched all over, and has a disagreeable black effect, instead of the silvery tone of the earlier impressions. Before address of Cl. de Jonghe, Debois, No. 1181, 255 fr. ; Verstolk, No. 1180, 125 fl. With Cl. de Jonghe's address, Verstolk, No. 1181, 22 fl. Address effaced, Verstolk, No. 1182.

VISSCHER del. The Rat-catcher.

Nagler, 146. Hecquet, 16. W. Smith, 43.

3d state, with the inscription in the margin beneath : "Fele fugas mures ! — felesque fugabo," and under this, on the right, "Clemendt de Jonghe excudit." Within the print is a paper, represented as fastened to the wall on the right near the top, on which is slightly etched, "C. Visscher Inv. et sculp. A° 1655."

In the 1st state the plate has no inscription in the margin below, nor in the 2d ; but in this state there is more work on the right cheek of the man, and exc. has been added under Inv. on the paper represented in the print. "These 1st and 2d states are extremely rare." — In the 4th state, Cl. de Jonghe's address is replaced by F. de Wit excudit ; — in the 5th, De Wit's address is effaced.

"Before any letters," Sternberg, No. 3075 ; Verstolk, No. 1185, 205 fl. ; Johnson, No. 166, £18 ; Debois, No. 1183, 400 fr.

A. VAN OSTADE pinx. The Strolling Musicians.

See Smith, Cat. rais., "Ostade," No. 219. The original picture was sold in 1795, in the collection of Baron Nagel. Nagler, 145. Hecquet, 15. W. Smith, 80.

2d state, with the names of the artists, before the address of Cl. de Jonghe. "A. v. Ostade pinxit, C. Visscher fecit aqua forti," in two lines at the right of the lower margin.

The 1st state is before any letters. Verstolk, No. 1184, 201 fl.; Johnson, No. 167, £ 5 5 s.; Debois, No. 1182, 550 fr. — The 3d state is with the address of Cl. de Jonghe. — The 4th is coarsely retouched all over, De Jonghe's address effaced, and strong, nearly perpendicular lines are introduced on the cap of the boy on the left.

A. VAN OSTADE pinx. The Skaters.

See Smith, Cat. rais., "Ostade," No. 202. The original picture, of the size of the engraving, is in the collection of M. Six van Winter at Amsterdam. Nagler, 148. Hecquet, 23. W. Smith, 79.

3d state, with the inscription in the margin below, "Cornelius de Visscher sculpsit. Adr. van Ostade Pinxit. Nicolaus Visscher Excudit."

The 1st state is before any letters, and before the shading with diagonal lines, extending from right to left, was added to the perpendicular and horizontal lines of the chimney. Of this state one exemplar is known, formerly in the collection of Mr. Anthony Stewart, then in Verstolk's, catalogue No. 1203, sold for 180 fl., and now in the British Museum. — The 2d state is also before the letters, but with the additional shadows and work. Weber, 1197, 45 th. — The 4th state is with the address of Clement de Jonghe.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Henderik du Booy.

See Smith, Cat. rais., "Van Dyck," 821. Waagen, Galleries, or Treasures, iv. p. 520, describes the original picture of this and the following engraving in the collection of the Earl of Hardwicke, at Wimpole, Cambridgeshire. Nagler, 18. Hecquet, 17. W. Smith, 88.

6th and last state, with "E. Cooper excudit. E collectione Nobilissimi Joannis Domini Somers."

The 1st state is before any letters; — the 2d, with the letters, but before Visscher's name and the address; — the 3d has the name of Visscher, but before address; — the 4th is with the address of Du Booy very slightly etched; — in the 5th, the address is strongly engraved; — in the 6th, Du Booy's address is effaced, and Cooper's put in its stead, and at the bottom is the notice that the picture is from Lord Somers's collection.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Helena Eleonora de Siever, wife of H. du Booy.

See Smith, Cat. rais., "Van Dyck," 723; Waagen, Galleries, or Treasures, iv. p. 520. The originals of this and of the preceding picture are in the collection of the Earl of Hardwicke, at Wimpole, Cambridgeshire. Nagler, 18. Hecquet, 18. Wm. Smith, 117.

The 1st state is before any letters; — the 2d, with the inscription, but before Visscher's name; — the 3d has Visscher's name added, and the address of Du Booy's slightly etched; — the 4th has the address strongly engraved; — the 5th has Du Booy's address changed for Cooper's, and, below, the notice that the picture is from the collection of Lord Somers.

These two plates, though corresponding in size, were never added to the different collections of Van Dyck's portraits, the Iconographia.

¶ Gellius de Bouma, Ecclesiastes Zutphaniensis.*

Nagler, 4. Hecquet, 4. William Smith, 89.

4th state, with the date.

In the 1st state, the leaves of the book on the table are entirely blank. Duke of Buckingham, No. 819; Révil, 1838, No. 247; Debois, No. 1194, which individual print was sold again, in the Marshall Coll. No. 1827; it had also the name of "Mariette 1670" inscribed on it, and sold for £ 26. Verstolk, No. 1246, sold for 180 fl. — The 2d shows on the upper leaf an inscription of 12 lines, 11 of which have no meaning, and are merely made to resemble letters; on the 12th line is distinctly written "Amst." — In the 3d, two more leaves are covered with hatchings to resemble writing; the further one a little below the middle, the one this side of the upper one in 5 paragraphs or sections. Still before date. Marshall, No. 1828, £ 10. — The 4th has the date 1656 in the centre of the lower margin of the plate at bottom. — The 5th has the date effaced, but is before address. — The 6th has in the centre at bottom the address: "Tot Amsterdam by Johannes Covens en Cornelis Mortier."

PALAMEDES pinx. ¶ Robertus Junius.

The smaller portrait, oval in a shaded square. Nagler, 34. Hecquet, 34. William Smith, 100.

2d state, with the first address, that of P. Goos.

The 1st state is before any address; Verstolk, No. 1301. — The 3d state is with the second address, of H. Focken.

¶ Guiliam de Ryck, Ophthalmist at Amsterdam.

Nagler, 5. Hecquet, 5. William Smith, 115.

* This portrait and that of De Ryck are called The Great Beards, and are, according to Hecquet, the finest of the master. Very frequently the portrait of Scriveri is put as a third, but his is not a great beard. In Wilson's and Debois' Catalogue, the portrait of Winius is mentioned as the third; this is of the greatest rarity, and occurs in French catalogues as l'Homme au pistolet.

3d state, with the upper part of the ear made light, and with the first inscription: "Den wel Eervaren Gvilliam de Ryck, Ooge Meester tot Amsterdam, and twelve verses, in two columns, in Dutch: "So ymant wiens gesicht en . . . isser geen gesicht."

The 1st state, "before any letters, and before the age and date in the background of the plate." (William Smith.)

First and rare proof before the title "Den wel Eervaren Guiliam de Ryck, Oogen Meester tot Amsterdam," before the twelve verses which are below, and before the work to lighten the beard and the left ear. Debois, No. 1195, 1020 fr. "Épreuve superbe et rare, avec l'oreille noire, 1<sup>r</sup> état," Verstolk, No. 1248, 275 fl. — The 2d state is with the letters (the first inscription stated above), Winckler, No. 6208; Marshall, No. 1831, £ 25 10 s. — In the 3d the letters of the 2d state remain. The upper part of the ear is made light, four hairs are introduced about the middle of it, extending behind it towards the left. Einsiedel, No. 3600; La Motte Fouquet, No. 397. — In the 4th, the twelve lines in two columns being effaced, instead of them appears in large letters, "Den wijdt beroemde en wel-eerwaren, Guiliām de Ryck Oculist ofte Ooge-Meester tot Amsterdam"; and, on the right, "Corn. de Visscher delinia. et sculp." . . . In the 5th, the mouth is half opened; both lips are distinctly marked. On the ear are some light portions which are only worked with a single hatching. The very strong wrinkles on the joints of the fingers are softened, and there are many alterations in the face. The collar is broader, measuring nine lines (nearly seven eighths of an English inch). Compare Bartsch, Anleitung zur Kupferstichkunde.

P. SOUTMAN pinx. P. Petrus Scriverius, Harlemensis.

Nagler, 23. Hecquet, 23. W. Smith, 116.

From the collection and with the autograph of De Valois on the back.

The 1st state is before the name of Visscher; — the 2d, with his name, before the scratch on the cheek, and, in the last line but one, with the misspelling Hac, instead of Hæc. Marshall, No. 1832, £ 10 10 s. — In the 4th state a scratch appears on the mustache and beard on the right, caused by the graver slipping during the process of retouching the plate.

VISSCHER, CLAS JANSZ, (i. e. Jan's son,) born at Amsterdam about 1550, designer and engraver, but of more importance as a publisher; he continued the business of his father Jan Claessen Visscher, and was followed by Nicolas Visscher.

A. BLOEMAERT pinx. The Golden Age.

excudit; below, in the margin, Saturno sub rege cetas fuit aurea mundi; Omnia tunc tellus absq. labore tulit. And sixteen Dutch verses: Owaerde Gulden Eeuw . . . en in den Heemel leeft. Compare Nic. de Bruyn's engraving.

VISSCHER, JAN DE, engraver, during the latter part of his life also painter, brother of Cornelis, was born at Amsterdam in 1636. Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, xx. art. "Jan Visscher," p. 407, et seq.

A. VAN OSTADE pinx. The "small" Ball in a Barn.
A composition of 14 figures. Nagler, No. 22.
2d state, with the 1st address of N. Visscher.
The 1st state is before letters; — the 3d, with the address of F. de Widt;
— the 4th with G. Valk's address.

A. VAN OSTADE pinx. Three Men smoking and drinking, and a Woman.
See Nagler, No. 23.
2d state, with the address of Justus Danckerts.
The 1st state is before address.

WOUWERMANS pinx. Le coup de pistolet.
Five horsemen before two tents. Smith, Cat. rais., "Wouwermans," No. 158. The picture is in the collection at Buckingham palace. Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 18, No. 3. Nagler, No. 28, (4.)
With the address of Justus Danckerts.

BERGHEM pinx. Summer, landscape with cattle; a family sleeping.
Nagler, No. 31.
4th state, address of Nic. Visscher.
The 1st state is before letters; — the 2d, before address; — the 3d, with the address of F. de Widt; — the 5th, with P. Schenk's address.

BERGHEM pinx. The Spinster, sitting by a rock, near her a man sleeping, etc.; landscape with cattle.
See Nagler, No. 36.
2d state, with the 1st address, of Frederick de Widt.
The 1st state is before letters; — the 3d, with Nic. Visscher's address.

BERGHEM del. The Seamstress, sitting at the foot of a large tree; landscape with cattle.
See Nagler, No. 37.
2d state, with the 1st address, of Frederick de Widt.
The 1st state is before letters; — the 3d, with Nic. Visscher's address.

BERGHEM pinx. The "great" Boors' Dance or Ball in a Barn.
See Nagler, No. 18. The picture, an imitation of A. van Ostade, was painted en grisaille by Berghem, for his friend Jan Visscher, who engraved it. Smith, Cat. rais., "Berghem," No. 200.

In the collection of Lord Gwydyr in 1829; bought by Mr. John Smith.

3d state, Berghem pinxit. Johannes Visscher fecit. Justus Danckerts excudit.

A similar impression, Ploos van Amstel, 40 fl.

The 1st state is before letters, and but partly finished with the graver. Rigal, No. 828, 204 fr.; G. Smith, No. 1273, £12 10 s. — The 2d is before letters, and finished with the graver; Marshall, No. 1836, "proof before any inscription," £5. — The 4th adds to the inscription of the 3d state, cum privilegio Ordin. Hollandiae et Westfrisiae.

J. VAN DER HELST pinx. P. Vander Hulst, Abraham, Viceadmirael van Hollant en Westvrieslant.

Nagler, No. 2.

The border, composed of palm leaves, has been cut off.

JAN VAN NOORT pinx. P. Proëlius, Petrus, Ecclesiastes Amstelædæmensis.

Nagler, No. 4.

2d state; "Joan van Noort pinxit. Nicolaus Visscher excudit."

With the stamp of Franck's collection.

The 1st state is before letters.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Rubens.

Nagler, No. 7.

2d state, with the address of Clem. de Jonghe.

The 1st state is before address; — the 3d with Marrebeeck's address.

VISSCHER, LAMBERT DE, engraver, brother of Cornelis and Jan, born at Amsterdam in 1633. In after life he went to Italy, where, about the year 1690, he engraved, in conjunction with Bloemaert, Spierre, and others, the plates from the frescos by Pietro da Cortona in the Pitti palace at Florence, where he died.

PIETRO DA CORTONA pinx. Wisdom withdrawing a Youth from Love and Pleasures, and leading him to Labor.

A fresco on the ceiling in the Pitti palace. Room of Minerva.

2d state, with Rossi's address.

FERD. BOL pinx. P. Cornelis Tromp, Admiral of Holland.

See Bartsch, Rembrandt, appendix, p. 172, No. 89; Claussin, Rembrandt, appendix, p. 163, No. 90.

With the address: "'t Amsterdam, Uytgegeven by Marcus Doornik."

VITALI, PIETRO MARCO, engraver, born at Venice about 1755, died about 1810. A pupil of Joseph Wagner, and afterwards of D. Cunego.

GUIDO pinx. Cupid on the Sea-shore.

"P. Vitali delin. et sculp. Romae 1781. Apud Joh. Volpato."

VIVARES, FRANÇOIS, designer and landscape engraver, was born near Montpellier in 1709, and compelled by his father, who was a tailor, to follow the same occupation, till he succeeded in getting to England, where he placed himself under the tuition of J. B. Chatelain. He died in London in 1782.

REMBRANDT inv. Rembrandt's Windmill.

A copy of Rembrandt's etching.

CLAUDE LORRAIN pinx. A Herdsman instructing a Shepherdess to play on the Pipe.

"Claudio Gillée Lorenese pinxit, 1645. In the Collection of Thomas Walker, Esqr. Published by C. Knapton, 1741." Painted for M. Fontany. It was subsequently the property of Thomas Walker, Esq., and of Sir Eliab Harvey, from whom it descended by marriage to W. Lloyd, Esq. Smith, Cat. rais. 93.

Has been also engraved by William Wilson. See WILSON.

CLAUDE LORRAIN pinx. The Ford.

"Claudio Lorenese pinxit 1656. Vivares sculp. In the collection of Dr. Mead," 1741. Smith, Cat. rais. 8. Sold in Mead's collection in 1754.

CLAUDE LORRAIN pinx. The Flight into Egypt.

Engraved from a picture at that time (1757) in the possession of Rev. Dr. Newton. Smith, Cat. rais. 310.

HOBBEEMA pinx. Village in a Wood, near Antwerp.

Nagler, No. 11. Smith, Cat. rais. 91, calls it "View of a Hamlet among Trees."

Artist's proof, with merely F. Vivares fecit 1777, delicately cut with the needle.

GEORGE SMITH pinx. The Hop-pickers.

Published by Fr. Vivares, 1760.

G. F. GRIMALDI, called BOLOGNESE, pinx. Castel Gandolfo.

"Vivares & Chatelain sculp. Jos. Goupy del. J. Boydell exa. 1769. In the collection of H. R. Highness the Princess of Wales."

VIVIANI, ANTONIO, an engraver of Venice, died recently.

TITIAN pinx. The Pesaro Family in Adoration before the Madonna, surrounded by St. Peter, St. George, St. Anthony of Padua, and St. Francis.

The picture, from Santa Maria Gloriosa de' Frari, is now in the Gallery of the Academy in Venice.

Proofs have open letters.

VOERST, ROBERT VAN, designer and engraver, born at Arnheim in 1596. He studied his profession at Utrecht, and formed his style after Egidius Sadeler. In 1626 he went to London, and the last date of his plates is 1635.

VAN DYCK pinx. p. Digby, Sir Kenelm.

See Smith, No. 220. The picture is in Windsor Castle. Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 428. Engraved for Martin van den Enden, No. 58. Weber, p. 85.

4th and last state, after the 2d address, "G. H.," had been effaced. Watermark, Large Foolscap.

VAN DYCK pinx. p. Inigo Jones.

Smith, Cat. rais. No. 223, mentions the picture, identified by this engraving in the list of Van Dyck, in "His Majesty's collection." Waagen, Treasures, does not mention it as in Windsor Castle. Engraved for Martin van den Enden, No. 59. Weber, p. 86.

4th state, after the 2d address, "G. H.," had been effaced. Watermark, Foolscap.

VAN DYCK pinx. p. Herbert, Philip, Earl of Pembroke.

See Smith, No. 518. The picture, of which this is only the half length, is in the collection of the Earl of Pembroke. Weber, p. 127, "Portraits divers," describes only this state of the plate. Weigel, Kunst-Catalog, No. 20,302, has a proof before all letters, price 15 th.

Watermark, Two interlaced C's, crowned, with no inverted cross between them.

VAN DYCK pinx. p. Voerst, Robert van, engraver.

See Smith, Cat. rais. No. 779. Engraved for Martin van den Enden, No. 60. Weber, p. 86.

4th state, after the second address, "G. H.," had been effaced. Watermark, Foolscap.

VAN DYCK pinx. p. Vouet, Simon, painter.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 765. Engraved for Martin van den Enden, No. 61. Weber, p. 87.

4th state, after the second address, "G. H.," had been effaced. Watermark, Arms of the city of Amsterdam.

VOET, ALEXANDER, engraver, born at Antwerp in 1613, supposed to have been a pupil of Pontius.

RUBENS pinx. Judith with the Head of Holofernes, which she is putting in a sack held by an attendant.

Called "The smaller Judith," Basan, 28. Smith, Cat. rais. No. 1002, mentions merely the engraving. This is not the composition of the picture of the Salzdahlum collection, now in the Ducal Gallery of Brunswick, Cat. No. 431, in which the attendant holds a light.

2d state, without the engraver's name, with only "C. Galle excudit." Fine impression on thin paper, with the watermark of the Arms of Amsterdam.

The 1st state is without the engraver's name, and without address.

RUBENS pinx. Madonna and Child, in a landscape, with three Angels, two of them bringing fruit.

Smith, Cat. rais. 955, mentions only this engraving. Basan, 35.

With the engraver's address.

In the Dresden Gallery is a similar picture, Madonna sitting, in a landscape, with one angel bringing fruit. A small picture, on copper.

JORDAENS pinx. Fool with a Cat.

Basan, 22.

2d state, with Hubert's address.

The 1st state is with the engraver's name and address.

VOLPATO, GIOVANNI, designer and engraver, born at Bassano in 1738, died at Rome in 1803. He was a pupil of the engraver and publisher, Joseph Wagner, at Venice, at the same time with Bartolozzi, and in the drawing of both, the influence of the school of Amiconi, the master of Wagner, is very perceptible.

MICHEL-ANGELO pinx. Sibylla Erythraea.
MICHEL-ANGELO pinx. Sibylla Delphica.
MICHEL-ANGELO pinx. Sibylla Cumaea. }

* * From the frescos in the Sistine Chapel.

GUERCINO pinx. Aurora. In a chariot drawn by two piebald steeds.

She is chasing Night and Stars before her, and leaving behind her old husband Tithonus, who follows her with eager looks. Fresco on the ceiling of a garden pavilion in the Villa Ludovisi at Rome. Platner and Bunsen, III. ii. p. 588.*

The proofs of this plate have, besides the artists' names, 4 verses, "Rore madens — suspirantem" in open traced uncial letters. These letters were shaded in the "prints," and a dedication to Angelica Kauffman was added.

In the same room with the picture just mentioned there are two lunettes, painted in fresco by the same master, and represented by the two following plates, also engraved by Volpato; they are smaller than the preceding.

GUERCINO pinx. Day, or Dawn; a youth with flowers in one hand, and a torch in the other, and * Heller, Praktisches Handbuch, and also Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, "Volpato," No. 36 and No. 37, enumerate this print twice, — first as Aurora, and then as Evening.

GUERCINO pinx. Night; a sleeping mother, with two sleeping children.

GUIDO pinx. The Martyrdom of St. Andrew.

A fresco in the chapel of St. Andrew, of the church San Gregorio at Rome. Platner and Bunsen, III. i. p. 485.

Proofs have open letters.

CORREGGIO pinx. Christ praying in the Garden.

See Coxe, p. 122. The original is in the collection of the Duke of Wellington; a repetition in the National Gallery, another at St. Petersburg. Engraved for Hamilton's Scuola Italica.

The rare first impressions are on bluish ribbed paper.

RAPHAEL pinx. The Marriage of Alexander and Roxana.

See Passavant, II. 223. Fresco in the Villa Raffaele. Engraved for Hamilton's Scuola Italica.

CARLO BIANCONI inv. The Sepulchral Monument of Count Algarotti in the Campo Santo at Pisa. (Erected by Frederic the Great.)

RAPHAEL pinx. The Stanze in the Vatican.

7 plates; the 8th, The Mass of Bolsena, was engraved by R. Morghen, who also added, as 9th plate, "The Attributes of Jurisprudence," three allegorical figures, Prudence, Fortitude, and Moderation. He further engraved from the Stanze (though in a different size, 4to), not belonging to this set, the four allegorical figures on the ceiling of the Camera della Segnatura: Theology, Poetry, Philosophy, and Jurisprudence. See MORGHEN. — The rest of the Stanze, beyond Volpato's plan, were afterwards engraved by FABRI and SALANDRI. See those names.

1. The School of Athens. Camera della Segnatura.

See Passavant, II. No. 67.

2. Disputa di S. Sacramento. Camera della Segnatura.

See Passavant, II. No. 65.

3. Heliodorus driven from the Temple. Sala di Eliodoro.

See Passavant, II. No. 105.

The same.

4. Defeat of Attila. Sala di Eliodoro.

See Passavant, II. No. 107.

5. Parnassus. Camera della Segnatura.

See Passavant, II. No. 66.

6. L'incendio del Borgo. Sala del Incendio.

See Passavant, II. No. 123.

7. The Deliverance of St. Peter from Prison. Sala di Eliodoro.

See Passavant, II. No. 108.

Still earlier impressions are printed on paper of a bluish tint. Proofs are before letters, i. e. before the dedication, "PIO SEXTO PONT. MAX." Debois, No. 1226, 870 fr.; George Smith, No. 1280, £ 26. — The late impressions have the white stamp of the papal print-shop, Stamperia Camerale, on the first plate of the set.

FRA BARTOLOMMEO pinx. Virgin and Child with a Book and Two Angels.

Without name of engraver; with only the address, "Apud Joan. Volpato."

Engraved in conjunction with R. Morghen. Palmerini, Catalogue of R. Morghen, p. 154. See MORGHEN.

RAPHAEL pinx. Loggie.

46 plates in three parts. — Engraved conjointly with Ottaviani. See OTTAVIANI.

ANN. CARACCI pinx. The Gallery of the Palazzo Farnese.

Three larger and three smaller plates. — Engraved conjointly with P. BETTELINI. Volpato etched the outline, which, in the copies to be colored, he carefully finished with water-colors, and gilded the stucco-work. For the impressions not to be colored, the plates were afterwards finished with the graver by P. Bettelini, to which class belong these impressions.

VORSTERMAN, LUCAS, the elder, painter and engraver. A pupil of Rubens. He was born at Antwerp in 1578; in 1623 he visited England, where he stayed till 1631, and enjoyed the patronage of Charles I. and the Earl of Arundel; after that he returned to Antwerp. The date of his death is not known.

RUBENS pinx. The Archangel St. Michael expelling the Bad Angels.

Basan, 1; Smith, Cat. rais. 173; comp. also 1024. The picture is in the Munich Gallery; it was formerly in Düsseldorf.

1st state, before Huberti's address.

The 2d state is with this address.

ERASMUS QUELLINUS pinx. The Beheading of St. John.

With Martin van den Enden's address, and a dedication by the same to Johann Christoph Butkens. Without the name of L. Vorstermann on the plate. (Nagler, xx. p. 548, No. 106.)

RUBENS pinx. The Adoration of the Magi, with two torches.

"Serenissimo et potentissimo Alberto Austriae Archiduco," etc. 1620.

Basan, 23. Smith, Cat. rais. 126. The picture is in the church of St. John of Malines, for which it was painted.

With Vorsterman's own address.

PARMEGIANO pinx. The Virgin adoring the Child.

RAPHAEL pinx. Holy Family, called La Perla.

See Passavant, II. 231. The picture is in the Gallery of Madrid.

The engraving represents only the group in the foreground; the background is shaded black.

1st state, before "L. Vorsterman sc.," his name being only in the dedication.

RUBENS pinx. The Return from Egypt.

Basan, 30; Smith, Cat. rais. 830. The picture is in the Marlborough collection at Blenheim. Waagen, Treasures, III. p. 124; Waagen, Handbook, II. p. 266.

With Vorsterman's own address.

VAN DYCK pinx. Pietà.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Louvre. Villot, No. 138.

A state between the 2d and 3d; it has still the dedication, but the words "Regis" after "privilegio" and "et excudit" after "sculp." have been erased.

The first state is before the word Regis after privilegio, before et excudit after sculp., and before the 3d line of inscription, the dedication. Wilson, Catalogue raisonné, No. 494; Debois, No. 1231, from the collections of Mariette, St. Yves, and Révil, 389 fr.; Otto, III. No. 1232, 31 th. — The 2d state has Lucas Vorsterman sculp. et excudit, and a 3d line following the six verses (a dedication) Perillustri apud Anglos Domino D. Georgio Gagi, etc. — In the 3d state the word excudit and the dedication are erased. — The 4th has the address of Bonenfant.

RAPHAEL inv. The Entombment.

Engraved from a sepia drawing, formerly in the Arundel collection (Passavant, II. p. 491, No. 149), which was afterwards in the palace Borghese. Still later it was owned by Cavaliere Camuccini, and in 1829 bought by Hon. George John Warnon, England.

RAPHAEL pinx. St. George with a Lance.

The Saint-Knight wears a Garter of which the inscription "Honi" is visible. The picture was ordered by the Duke of Urbino, as a present to King Henry VII., who had bestowed that order upon him. At the time of the engraving, 1627, the picture was owned by the Earl of Pembroke; soon after it came into the collection of Charles I., and was sold with it. From the Crozat collection it was bought by Catherine II., and it hangs now like a votive picture, with an ever-burning lamp, before the portrait of the Emperor Alexander I. in the Hermitage at St. Petersburg. Passavant, II. No. 43.

M. A. AMERIGHI DA CARAVAGGIO pinx. St. Francis in Ecstasy.

With Vorsterman's name only under the dedication to J. van der Goes, and without address.

RUBENS pinx. St. Francis receiving the Stigmata.

Basan, 11. According to Smith, Cat. rais. No. 110, the picture is in the Academy at Ghent, which statement Michiels, No. 430, corrects, assigning it to the Museum at Antwerp.

With Vorsterman's own address.

RUBENS pinx. The Martyrdom of St. Lawrence.

Basan, 37. Painted for the church of the Chartreux of Notre Dame de la Chapelle in Brussels, and now in the Munich Gallery. Smith, Cat. rais. 150.

With Vorsterman's own address.

PAOLO VERONESE pinx. St. Helena, seeing the Cross.

The picture is in the Gallery of the Vatican. Platner and Bunsen, II. ii. p. 430.

PIETER BREUGHEL THE ELDER pinx. Fight of Peasants at Cards.

"Vorsterman exc."

TITIAN pinx. P. The Constable Bourbon.

The picture was, when engraved, in the Arundel collection.

TITIAN pinx. P. Isabelle of Este, wife of Duke Francis Gonzaga, at Mantua.

The picture is in the Vienna Gallery; it was formerly in the collection of Charles I. Engraved after a copy by Rubens.

TITIAN pinx. P. Charles V., Emperor of Germany.

The picture is at present neither in the Gallery of Vienna, nor in Madrid; it is probably lost. Engraved after a copy by Rubens.

HOLBEIN pinx. P. Desiderius Erasmus, Rotterodamus.

Nagler, K.-L. xx. p. 542, No. 30. L. Vorsterman sc. c. pr. is, however, not on the plate, the long dedication to Thomas Howard, Earl of Arundel, only has at the end, hanc Erasmi effigie amoris ergo humiliter Lucas Vorsterman sculptor D. D.; and, in the right corner, Cum Privilegio Reg.

LIEVENS pinx. P. Hieronymus de Bran.

"Cæsaris Agenti Catholici exercitus Capitaneo ejusq. Annonæ Prefecto generali in Belgio," etc., "D. D. Lucas Vorsterman sculptor." The engraver's name is merely at the foot of the dedication, not under the plate, nor is the painter's name mentioned; and as a later publisher put this plate with Van Dyck's Iconographia, the portrait has usually been ascribed to Van Dyck. So Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, xx., under "Vorsterman," No. 29; also Smith, Cat. rais. III. No. 801, who describes this portrait, from the present engraving, as a picture by Van Dyck.

The plate is without address, and never had one. Watermark of the old thin paper, letters, apparently K. I. R.

Szwykowski, A. Van Dyck's Bildnisse bekannter Personen, p. 319.

Harrach's cat., Paris, 25 Febr. 1867, "No. 2786, Vorsterman, Portrait de Jérôme de Bran, d'après J. Livens. Superbe épreuve du 1<sup>er</sup> état, avec l'inscription en lettres italiques. No. 2787, Le même portrait. Belle épreuve, avec l'inscription changée, et avec le nom de Livens effacé." Both numbers were sold in one lot, and bid in by Messrs. Amsler and Ruthardt of Berlin, for 54 fr.

VAN DYCK pinx. P. Nicolas Rockox.

According to Smith, Cat. rais., "Van Dyck," No. 293, a portrait, probably the same from which this engraving was made, was sold in 1749 in the collection of Van Halen. Weber, p. 127, "Portraits divers d'après A. van Dyck"; Szwykowski, p. 229, c. This plate was never added to the Iconographia and its continuations.

1st state, before any letters in the lower margin, before the names of Plato and Seneca on the books, before the medals on the table, before the coat of arms in the background, in the place of which stands, "A. van Dyck pinxit, L. Vorsterman sculp. et excud. Cum privilegio." Watermark, Large Fleur-de-lis.

The 2d state is with the names of Plato and Seneca, otherwise like the 1st state;— in the 3d the plate is cut down to the knees of the portrait; it has the medals on the table, and the arms in the background, and in the lower margin a dedication, 14 Latin verses, the artist's name, and the date 1625.

VAN DYCK pinx. Thomas Howard, Earl of Arundel.

Smith, Cat. rais. III. "Van Dyck," describes, under No. 627, a portrait from this engraving, without knowing the original. Weber, p. 127, "Portraits divers d'après Van Dyck." The plate is without address, and later impressions are not distinguished by a different state. It was added by a later publisher to Van Dyck's Iconographia.

WILLE, JOHANN GEORG, designer, etcher, and engraver, was born near the small town of Königsberg in the Grand-Duchy of Hesse-Darmstadt, in 1717. He learned originally the trade of a gunsmith, and the ornamental work belonging to this business led him to study the art of engraving plates. After finishing his apprenticeship, he wandered to Paris, where he became the founder of an important school of engravers, and died, after many vicissitudes of fortune, a very old and very poor man, in 1808.

Mr. Rudolph Weigel remarks in a note to p. 7 of Charles Le Blanc's Catalogue de l'œuvre de J. G. Wille, Leipsic, 1847, that he has met with modern spurious proofs of "La Mort de Marc-Antoine," "Les Musiciens ambulans," "Les Offres réciproques," "Le Concert de Famille," and "L'Instruction paternelle," in which the letters were covered up in making the impression, leaving merely the arms. I have met with some, especially of the latter plate, on very white, modern paper, and looking very harsh.

DIETRICH pinx. Abraham receiving Hagar. Le Bl. 1.

3d state, 1st of the finished plate, before "20<sup>te</sup> Platte 1775," and the name "Wille" written in reverse, were erased. On India paper.

The erasure indicates the 4th and last state. The 1st artist's proof is before letters and arms; — the 2d state, proof, is before letters, but with the coat of arms.

DIETRICH pinx. Repos de la Vierge. Le Bl. 2.

2d state, with the letters, the coat of arms, and the address: "à Paris chez l'Auteur, Quai des Augustins, à côté de l'Hôtel d'Auvergne"; — without a number.

In the 3d and last state the coat of arms was erased, as well as the dedication and title, and the new inscription is only: "La Dévideuse, Mère de Gérard Dow. A Paris chez l'Auteur, quai des Augustins, no. 35."

GER. DOW pinx. La Liseuse.

Le Bl. 62.

2d state, with the letters, with the dedication to J. M. Usteri, and before the number was added to the address.

In the 3d and last state the dedication is effaced, and the long inscription replaced by La Liseuse. A Paris chez l'Auteur. Quai des Augustins, no. 35.

ing ; on the right, under a tree, a young shepherd, with bended knee, instructing a shepherdess, sitting on the ground, to play the pipe, while another is standing behind, leaning on her staff.

Painted for M. Fontany in 1645. Engraved while in the collection of Thomas Walker, Esq. ; afterwards the property of Sir Eliab Harvey, from whom it descended to W. Lloyd, Esq. Smith, Cat. rais. No. 93. Also engraved by Vivares. See VIVARES.

WITDOECK (WITDOUCK, WITHOUC), JAN, designer and engraver, born at Antwerp in 1604. A pupil of Corn. Schut and Rubens.RUBENS pinx. The Adoration of the Shepherds.

With a woman pouring milk into a can, and another with a basket on her head, the figures casting gigantic shadows on the wall. Basan, 11 ; Smith, Cat. rais. 117. Painted for the church of the Capuchins in Lille.

1st state, with Witdoeck's name as engraver, and with his address, before the additional drapery on the bosom, etc.

La Motte Fouquet, No. 623.

The 2d state is with Witdoeck's and Coeberch's (Coeberger's) address, with the extended drapery, and retouched.

RUBENS pinx. The same.

3d state.

Schelte à Bolswert retouched the plate throughout, and put his name on it, effacing both Witdoeck's name and Coeberger's address. An impression of this state of the plate is already mentioned under Bolswert.

RUBENS pinx. The Elevation of the Cross.

Painted for the church of Santa Walburga ; now in the Cathedral of Antwerp. Waagen, Handbook, II. p. 266 ; Smith, Cat. rais., "Rubens," 1 ; Michiels, No. 103. Engraved on three plates. Basan, 78.

Impression before Mariette's address.

RUBENS pinx. Christ at Emmaus.

The picture is in the Munich Gallery. Smith, Cat. rais., "Rubens," 246 ; Basan, 114.

The 1st impression is before any letters. "Admirable épreuve avant toutes lettres ; extrêmement rare, presque unique," H. Weber, I. 1292, 46 th.

There are very rare 1st impressions, shaded by the engraver with India ink in deep chiaroscuro. Perhaps Weber's copy was one of them.

RUBENS pinx. St. Ildefonso receiving the Chasuble from the hands of the Virgin.

Basan, 31. The picture is in the Vienna Gallery. Waagen, Handbook, II. p. 265 ; Smith, Cat. rais. 295.

Old impression, on rough paper, without address.

CORN. SCHUT pinx. Madonna and Child, with St. John.

Without address.

RUBENS pinx. St. Cecilia playing the Harpsichord.

Basan, 24; Smith, Cat. rais. 350. The picture is in the Berlin Gallery, Waagen's Catalogue, No. 781.

1st state, "Jo. Witdoeck sculpsit, Joan. Witdoeck excud." Otto's collection, Cat. III. No. 769.

In the 2d state the plate is retouched by S. à Bolswert, who put his name on the plate in the place of Witdoeck's. — The 3d state has the address of Hendriex.

WOOD, JOHN, engraver, principally of landscapes; born at London in 1720, died about 1780.

REMBRANDT pinx. "A Fire-Light," night landscape.

See Smith, Cat. rais., "Rembrandt," 603. When engraved, in 1774, the picture was in the collection of Henry Hoare, Esq.; it is now in that of Sir Richard Colt Hoare, Bart., Stourhead.

SALVATOR ROSA pinx. Rocky landscape, with a Hermit reading.

At the time of the engraving, in 1774, the picture was in the collection of William Kent, Esq.

WOOLLETT, WILLIAM, engraver, born at Maidstone, Kent, in 1735, died at London in 1785. He was a pupil of one John Tinney, and of Vivares, but formed a style of his own, successfully combining the use of aqua fortis, the dry point, and the burin.

WEST pinx. The Death of General Wolfe.

The picture is in the Grosvenor Gallery.

2d proof, lettre grise. Before the retouch in the smoke, and the cross-hatching on the butt of the gun. With "B. West pinx. W. Woollett sc." (without their titles, "historical painter and engraver to His Majesty") in very small letters, and "The Death of General Wolfe," in open letters, without the dedication to the King. The place near the feet of the General, which in the preceding state forms a white spot, is shaded.

"With the title in open letters, and with the names of the artists traced with the point," Rigal, No. 901, 496 fr.

The 1st, or artist's, proof is before the coat of arms, and before any letters, and with the white spot left at the feet of the General. Logette, No. 175, 850 fr.; Marshall, No. 1910, £ 11 15 s.*

* Heller, Prakt. Handbuch, mentions, by mistake, the impression in Rigal's collection as a 1st proof. Nagler, Künstler-Lexicon, xxii. p. 77, "Woollett," No. 3, mentions Logette's impression, by mistake, as a 2d proof.

WEST pinx. The Battle of La Hogue.

The picture is in the Grosvenor Gallery.

Choice impression, without the dots on the side of the plate, mentioned by Longhi in his "Calcografia" as indicating later impressions.

1st proof, before letters, with merely the artists' names, traced with the point, Johnson, No. 180, £18; Archinto, No. 426, 140 fr.; Marshall, No. 1912, £10. — 2d proof, lettres grises, with the arms, the title in open letters, and the names of the artists and of the publishers in traced letters, Debois, No. 1281.

CLAUDE LORRAIN pinx. Jacob and Laban. "Il Ponte."

The picture is in Col. Egremont Wyndham's collection at Petworth. Waagen, Treasures, III. p. 33; Smith, Cat. rais., "Claude," No. 134.

Proofs are before letters; they have only the arms, the names of the artists, and of the publisher, Boydell, traced with the needle. Debois, No. 1285, 195 fr.

ANN. CARACCI pinx. Judah and Tamar, or St. John and Magdalen.

The picture, at the time of the engraving, was in the collection of John Pitt, Esq.

Proofs are before letters; artists' names traced with the needle. Debois, No. 1288, 135 fr.

R. WILSON pinx. Cicero at his Villa.

The picture is in the collection of Sir W. W. Wynn, Bart.

Impression with the address of the engraver and Green Street.

The impressions with Boydell's address are very inferior. — Proofs have the title in open letters, the coat of arms, and the artists' names and address traced with the point. Debois, No. 1297; Archinto, No. 428.

R. WILSON AND J. MORTIMER pinx. Apollo and the Seasons.

Proof before letters, with only the artists' names traced with the needle. This is the deceptive copy of Woollett's plate.

R. WILSON pinx. Niobe.

Engraved from the second picture of this subject by R. Wilson, differing somewhat from the first, which is engraved by Samuel Smith. A similar picture is in the Vernon Gallery (Waagen, Treasures, I. p. 367), and another in the Bridgewater Gallery (Waagen, Treasures, II. p. 53).

A "très rare épreuve avant la lettre, seulement les noms d'auteurs tracés à la pointe," Debois, No. 1301, was withdrawn from the sale of the collection. — "A most brilliant and finished proof of this exquisite plate, which may be declared all but unique," Johnson, No. 183, £70.*

* Stanley, in his edition of Bryan's Dictionary, 1849, says, "In a manuscript catalogue written by the late Alderman Boydell, mention is made of two proofs before the letter," and adds, "If such

R. WILSON pinx., figures by MORTIMER. Meleager and Atalanta.

Engraved in conjunction with Pouncy.

1st proof, before letters, with only the names of the artists. On India paper. This is the deceptive copy of Woollett's plate.

The 2d proof has the inscription, Engraved from an original picture painted by R. Wilson and J. Mortimer. Address, Sayer and Bennett. — The 3d state, the common print, has the inscription changed into "Meleager and Atalanta," artists' names, and the address of Laurie and Whittle.

R. WILSON pinx. Phaëton.

"In the collection of his Grace the Duke of Bridgewater."

Debois, No. 1300, "Épreuve avant toutes lettres," * 90 fr. — Wilcox, No. 318, "Splendid proof before the letter," £ 10 10 s. George Smith, No. 1306, "Very fine proof," £ 10 5 s. Marshall, No. 1924, "Proof before any letters," £ 10 15 s.

FILIPPO LAURI pinx. Diana and Actæon.

When engraved, in 1764, the picture was in the collection of the Right Rev. Thomas, Lord Bishop of Bristol.

Proofs are before letters, but have the coat of arms and the names of the artists and of the publisher in traced letters. Debois, No. 1289.

JONES pinx., figures by MORTIMER.

Figures engraved by Bartolozzi.

Dido and Æneas.

Proof, with merely the inscription, "Dido and Æneas," in open letters, with the coat of arms, the names of the artists and of the publisher, and before the dedication.

From the collection and with the initials of William Esdaile.

Artist's proofs are before the inscription of the title; they have merely the names of the artists and of the publisher in traced letters, and the coat of arms. Debois, No. 1305.

CLAUDE LORRAIN pinx. The Temple of Apollo.

See Smith, Cat. rais., "Claude," 157. The picture is from the Altieri palace in Rome; now in the collection of John P. Miles at Leigh Court. Waagen, Treasures, III. p. 181.

Proofs are before letters, with only the artists' names traced. Debois, No. 1283; Archinto, No. 427.

CLAUDE LORRAIN pinx. Roman Edifices in Ruins.

See Smith, Cat. rais. 82; Waagen, Treasures, III. p. 140, and IV. or Gal- are in existence, they are invaluable." M. Duchesne saw two proofs before letters (the same?) in the Duke of Buckingham's collection at Stowe. Voyage d'un Iconophile, p. 375.

* Nagler quotes this exemplar, by mistake, as a "lettre grise." Künstler-Lexicon, "Woollett," No. 13.

eries, p. 359. The picture is in the collection of the Earl of Radnor at Longford Castle.

Proofs are before letters; they have the coat of arms and the names of the artists and of the publishers in traced letters. Debois, No. 1284, 285 fr.; Johnson, No. 181; Wilcox, No. 322, £ 8. — Artist's proof, before any letters, and before the coat of arms, Marshall, No. 1926, £ 19.

CLAUDE LORRAIN pinx. The Enchanted Castle.

The picture is in Lord Overstone's collection, Wickham Park, Bromley. Waagen, Treasures, III. p. 27, and IV. or Galleries, p. 140. Lately in the collection of William Wells, Esq., Redleaf. Smith, Cat. rais. 162. Engraved in conjunction with Vivares.

Proofs are before letters; they have only the names of the artists in traced letters. Debois, "Vivares," No. 1212, 84 fr. — Artist's proof, before any letters, Wilcox, No. 323, £ 4 15 s.

R. WILSON pinx. Celadon and Amelia.

Landscape, with stormy sea. Engraved in conjunction with Browne.

Impression with the address "Green Street"; Heller's and Nagler's first address.

Still earlier rare impressions have the address, not mentioned by Heller or Nagler, "Longs Court, Leicester Fields." — After the address "Green Street" follows the address "Charlotte Street." — Proofs have, besides the artists' names, but one line of inscription, the title, in common — not open — letters: they are before the verses. Debois, No. 1299; Marshall, No. 1937; Wilcox, No. 328, £ 7.

R. WILSON pinx. Ceyx and Alcione.

Marine view with storm.

Proof; besides the artists' names, but one line of inscription, the title, in common — not open — letters; before the verses, also before the correction of i into y in the last word, "Ceyx and Alcione." (Like Debois, No. 1299; Marshall, No. 1922.)

Purchased for £ 8 8 s.

The 1st state of the print with the full inscription of four Latin and six English verses has still the misspelling "Alcione," and the address "Green Street." — The 2d state has the correction "Alcyone," the same inscription, and address "Charlotte Street."

ZUCCARELLI pinx. Macbeth meeting the Witches.

The picture was, when engraved in 1770, in the collection of William Lock, Esq.

1st state, with the address "Green Street."

The 2d state is with the address "Charlotte Street." — Proofs are before letters, with the names of the artists and of the publisher, in traced letters.

Debois, No. 1292, 75 fr.

RICHARDS pinx. The First Scene of the Maid of the Mill.

2d state, with Charlotte Street.

The 1st state has "Green Street." — Proofs are before letters, with only the artists' names traced with the point. Debois, No. 1304, 131 fr. The same copy, Marshall, No. 1952, £ 1 15 s. Another copy of the same state, Archinto, No. 430, 58 fr.

HEARNE pinx. Two Scenes from the Vicar of Wakefield.

Two plates, engraved conjointly with Ellis, in oval. See ELLIS.

R. WILSON pinx. Solitude.

Engraved in conjunction with Ellis.

1st state, with the address "Green Street."

The 2d state is with the address "Charlotte Street." — Proofs have the title in open letters, the coat of arms, and the artists' names and address traced with the point. Debois, No. 1298; Wilcox, No. 326, £ 8 8 s.; Archinto, No. 429.

GASP. POUSSIN pinx. A Forest, with Waterfall.

Etched by Browne. The picture was, when engraved, in the collection of Thomas Anson, Esq., to whom the plate is dedicated.

3d state, with the address "Charlotte Street."

The 1st state is with the address "Longs Court." (Heller and Nagler state that the address of Parrs is still earlier.) — The 2d state has "Green Street." — "Proof before letters, with only the words G. Poussin pinx., J. Browne et W. Woollett sculp., traced with the point," Debois, No. 1286, 400 fr.; Marshall, No. 1950, £ 2 11 s.

PILLEMENT pinx. Les Agréments de l'Été.

1st state of the finished plate with letters: "Les Agréments de l'Été. Gravé par W<sup>m</sup> Woollett d'après Le dessein Original de Même grandeur inventé et dessiné par Jean Pillement. London Publish'd according to Act of Parliament June 26. 1760." Without any address.

PILLEMENT pinx. The same.

3d state. With the same inscription as the 1st state, to which is added, in the right corner below, "à Paris chez Esnauts et Rapilly rue St Jacques à la Ville de Coutances."

"De la collection de Leviez" (Nagler) is not on either copy. According to Nagler, K.-L. xxii. p. 84, "Woollett," No. 45, the 2d state has the address of Leviez, and the 4th that of Jean de Paris.

- R. WILSON pinx. Snowden Hill and the adjacent country in North Wales.

Published by J. Boydell in 1775.
